IN MEMORY OF

DR. J. TIMOTHY BODDIE

My late husband and our father who passed Nov. 22, 1963

Men are of two kinds, and he was the kind we'd like to be. Some preach their virtues, and a few express their lives by what they do. The later sort was he.

No flowery phrase or glibly spoken word of praise won friends for him.

He wasn't cheap or shallow, but his course ran deep, and it was pure.

Not many in a life you find whose deeds outrun their words so far, that more than what they seem they are.

Out in the open fight he fought, and didn't care what others thought.

Nor what they said about his fight if he believed he was right. The only deeds he ever hid were acts of kindness that he did. What speech he had was plain and to the point.

Whether one flinched or was made to think; Yet children loved him, and they are fleet to sense injustice and deceit.

No back door gossip linked his name with shady tale of shame He did not have to compromise with evil-doers, shrewd and wise. And let them ply their vicious trade because of some past escapade. No door at which he ever knocked against his many form was locked. If ever man on earth was free and independent, it was he No broken pledge lost him respect, he met all men with head erect. And when he passed we think there went a soul to yonder firmament So white, so splendid and so fine, it came almost to Gods design.

Devoted wife, Emery and children, Marcia, Vashti, Timothy, Jr., William
