8-Filed July 24, 1970. Motion for Judgment by Default by Nicholas Andrew, Defendant and certificate of service.
July 31, 1970. Trial held before Judge B. Hackett Turner, Jr. Mrs. Connie Bennett reporting. Mr. Earl L. Carey, Jr., attorney for plaintiff, and plaintiff were present, and the defendant was not present. Reference is made to a letter to the Court in which Mr. Andrew says he cannot attend the trial on January 31, 1970, for certain reasons set out in the letter. Mr. Andrew has been properly notified, and the Court finds that the case should be tried without his presence, however, disposition should be made of various matters raised to the Court or to Mr. Carey. Mr. Carey was heard by the Court. Motion for Sanctions denied, and Court also denied motion for judgment by default. The case is to proceed to trial under provisions of Rule 526, and Rule 542 G that removed cases to be taken care of as promptly as possible. Motion by Mr. Carey for judgment by default and further that the Court take testimony to render a final judgment in this case, and further under the Rule 604 that Court award counsel fees. Motion for judgment by default granted. Plaintiff, Henry L. Conway, Jr., was sworn and examined. Copy of deposition and bill for deposition filed.
