Bold Lad sweeps 2-year-old honors

NEW YORK — The Thoroughbred Racing Associations' Board of Selection had little difficulty in choosing the champion among the 2-year-old colts of 1964.

Wheatley Stable's Bold Lad who had closed his campaign with seven straight victories, six of them in stakes events, was the unanimous choice of the racing secretaries at the 50 TRA member tracks.

—Virginia wins

football as ever has been placed in script.

THE TROJANS, as though to make their coach soothsayer as well as tutor, tried for the better part of the 60 playing minutes to give away the game through errors of commission and omission. But then they rallied to run down their own mistakes and knock down any remaining hopes the Bears may have entertained about winning the CIAA title.

This matter of elimination, however, was attended to by A and T College in Durham, N.C. along about the same time. The Aggies whipped North Carolina College, 26-0, to clinch the conference crown.

THE MORGAN come-up-pance, as previously stated, was delivered by a pair of "boys who got away." Quarterback Eddie Golder and flanker Lin Hart collaborated to put the clincher on the Golden Bears.

Golder, a product of Baltimore's Carver High School, tossed for both Trojan touchdowns, the first to freshman end Harry Sharper of Columbia, S.C., and the second to flanker Lin Hart, who received his scholastic grooming at Dunbar of Baltimore.

The pass to Sharper in the waning minutes of the third quarter erased a 6-0 lead Morgan had taken into the halftime intermission and tied the score at 6-all. The Golder-to-Hart winner came with only 1:10 left in the game, and climaxed a courageous uphill battle for both Virginia State and her game little QB, Golder.

"IF WE don't beat ourselves, we may be able to make it interesting," declared coach W. W. Lawson in a pre-game evaluation of his Trojan chances.

"It's a young team and prone to mistakes. We made four mistakes in the first quarter against A and T and we were licked before we got started."

Lawson's words were nearly prophetic.

FUMBLES married the opening moment of the game, the Trojans committing two which could have been costly, and the Bears making one that choked off what appeared to be a certain touchdown.

All this happened in the first five minutes.

AFTER GOLDER ran back the initial kickoff to the Virginia 30, sophomore halfback Edgar Golden fumbled on the first play from scrimmage, and end Arnold Jolivet recovered for Morgan on the Trojan 37.

The Bears raced to two quick first downs downs, but the drive was stopped when freshman end Harry Sharper broke through to nail Bill Seaton for a loss, and a 15-yard holding penalty against the Bears relieved the pressure.

AFTER MORGAN'S Wilbur Robinson missed a field goal attempt from the 24, the Trojans took over. However, Virginia again had the ball for only one play as Mel Swann committed the second State fumble and the Bears' Clarence Scott recovered on the Trojan 15.

Their second scoring opportunity went for naught for the visitor, though this time due to their own error.

Freshman fullback Ron Deskins broke over tackle for 5 yards, and on the next play, charged around his right flank to the 1, where a jarring Trojan tackle shook him loose from the ball and Virginia's Si Musgrove fell on it to thwart the Morgan effort.

STILL A third Morgan chance died moments later when, Virginia, unable to get out of danger, had Swann punt the ball over at the Trojan 42.

Aided by two successive offside penalties, the Bears moved to the Virginia 24, but were stalled as guard Alex Hughes cracked through to nail quarterback Moore for a sizeable loss, then first Swann and later center James Chaney knocked passes by Morgan quarterback Gilbert Moore.

IT WAS not ever thus, though.

Late in the second quarter, the Bear defense which had been plaguing Goldr throughout the contest, reared up and paved the way for the first Morgan TD.

Ends Jolivet and Eric Roberts twice banged over Golder's blockers to nail the Trojan general for huge losses. Then, when Eddie did manage to get off a pass to Mel Swann to put the ball on the Morgan 11, and set off the partisan crowd, a holding penalty snuffed out the gain, chocked off the cheers and moved the line of scrimmage back to the Virginia 48.

SO IT developed that, what appeared to be a fine scoring opportunity only seconds before, suddenly turned into a kicking situation for the Trojans.

Getting the ball just past midfield, Moore and the Bears had to rush into a race with the clock. With only 23 seconds chowing on the board,Moore hit end Alvin Mitchell with a screen pass and thebig Philadelphia sophomore raced 48 yards to the end zone.

Robinson's placement try was wide and the score remained 6-0 as the halftime gun sounded.

After Golder tossed to Sharper to knot the score midway of the third period, Morgan guard Art Arnistead drove through to smear the extra-point try to keep the Bears even.

MIDWAY OF the fourth quarter, Virginia fans suffered some anxious moments as Moore put the visitors in a drive at his own 44, and stormed downfield.

Halfback Roland Savage got 9, Earl Mayo followed with a first down at the Trojan 44. Savage added 6 more, and fullback Clarence Scott took a pitchout to a first down at the Virginia 27.

Savage then carried three straight times, winding up within inches of a first down at the 17. But on the next play, an offside penalty interrupted the march. This made Moore go to the air, and Swann saved the day by intercepting on his 6-yard line.

THE TROJANS then showed momentum on their own. Golder hit Sharper for a first at the Morgan 44. Eddie then thwarted the front-line rush by Morgan with a feint to his right before reversing and running naked around his left side to the Morgan 25.

Eddie passed to Swann for 12 yards and a first down on the Bear 13. Freshman halfback Bobby Wingo knifed 4 yards to the 8, as the clock moved past 1:20.

THEN THE Baltimore combination of Golder and Hart collaborated for the end zone pass that turned Rogers Stadium into a scene of pandemonium.

The victory not only completed the Virginia State season since its championship year of 1962, but snap-pled the Bears ped a string of three straight victories run up by the Bears since 1960.

St. Augustine rallies to defeat Shaw, 22-15

RALEIGH, N.C. — Three thousand enthusiastic fans watched the St. Augustine Falcons take the second straight Thanksgiving Day classic with the Shaw University Bears, 22-15 in Chavis Park Thursday.

The Falcons drew first blood with about 28 9:03 left in the first quarter. Shaw fumbled on their 28, and St. Augustine recovered. Sinclair King, advanced to Shaw 25, with William Jameson moving the ball to the 11-yard line on the next play. "Coco" Jackson then went to the 4, Jameson went over for the touchdown.

ST. AUGUSTINE scored again in the 2nd quarter at the end of a 64-yard drive. After Jameson and Jackson moved the ball to the 49, QB King hit right end Grady Thomas on the 31-yard line.

Jackson then got a pass from King and with great effort moved to the 9. On the next play he drove to the 4.

Jameson then went up the middle for the touchdown and ran his right side for the two point conversion.

The 3rd quarter saw the Bears grab the lead after St. Augustine's King fumbled on his 6. Timin moved to the Falcon 4, and Walton advanced to the 2. Raymond Hadsen, Shaw's promising freshman went around his right end for the touchdown. This put Shaw ahead 15-14 going into the final quarter.

King then turned the tide with a great bootleg play moving around the right side all alone for the touchdown.

Edward Chester got the 2 point conversion on a pass from King.
