FOSTER PARENTS HONORED — Over 1,500 foster parents of the Baltimore area were honored Sunday at a reception sponsored by the Maryland State Conference of Social Welfare and the Advisory Committee on Foster Care. AFRO camera spotted Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Gadson, 64 S. Morley St., and (right) Mrs. Elva Haines, 2749 W. North Ave. The Gadsons care for two foster children. Gov. Tawes and Mayor McKeldin were on hand to greet the parents. Many received citations.

Furnace Branchers cite foster parents

Furname Branch Home-makers honored foster parents on Saturday at a tea held at John Wesley Methodist Church, Glen Dale.

Honorees were: Mesdames Richard Fields, Daniel Murdock, Isadore Hall, William E. Carter, who were presented certificates by Mrs. Nina Martin, chairman of Md. Foster Parent Week for Anne Arundel County.

Members of the tea committee were: Mesdames Sara B. Crawford, chairman Gladyes Keene, Salley Crowder, Dorothy Matthews and Ottilla Gilliam.

Other members are Mesdames Florence Martin, Florence Blackwell, Catherin Rickes, Grace Stokes, Mabele Sweet and Ceola Ware.

Association wants Tawes to investigate

The Correctional Officers' Association, in repeating Monday its charges of racial discrimination in the firing of probationary guards and upgrading of colored officers at the Maryland Penitentiary, wants Gov. J. Millard Tawes to order an investigation.

The association of colored guards at the pen have taken issue with a previous statement by Warden Franklin K. Brough that there were no colored guards on the promotional eligibility lists.

"The records will show that colored correctional officers have been employed at the Maryland Penitentiary since Nov. 1955," the association's statement charges, "and that colored officers have been consistently high among the eligibles on the promotional lists since 1961.

However, to date, only one colored officer has been promoted.

THE UNREST at the penitentiary first came to light some weeks ago with charges that colored probationary guards were being dismissed without cause.

Verenon L. Pepersack, Commissioner of Correction, has since denied any existence of such discrimination at the institution.

Art, hobby display

Faculty and teachers at Carver Evening School displayed their works of art and hobbies at the school recently.

Purpose was to let teachers and students share each others' experiences. The entire school was invited to participate.

Those who had hobbies on display were: Mesdames Geraldine Allen, Gladys Artis, Grace Buchanan, Beatrice Coney, Essie Fowlkes;

Mesdames Alice Dunlaps, Edna Garnett, Earldene Herndon, Arlene Jackson, Margaret James, Annie Mae Johnson, Mabel Joyner, Mattie Lay, J. Lee, Rita Mason, Lillian Mitchell;

ALSO, MESDAMES Helen Patterson, Cecile Phillips, Alice Redmond, Vivian Tate, Beulah Trusdale, Mildred Whittington and Daisy Wilson.

Miss Paulette Carter, Shirley Dabney, Grace Lawson and Theodosia Baker. Messrs. William Dunham and S. Swann.

Leon Williams, principal, John Cothorn and Joseph Hayes, vice principals. Mrs. Theodosia Baker, chairman; Miss Grace Lawson, secretary and Mrs. Essie Dunlap, chairman of the campaign steering committee.

William Boucher III, executive director of the Greater Baltimore Committee, which sponsored the study of the area with the Committee for Downtown and the city, will present the plan at the solicitors meeting, preceded by a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 30, at the CPHA meeting rooms, 330 North Charles St.

Inner Harbor plan

A reward for solicitors in the current membership and finance campaign of the Citizens Planning and Housing Association will be an invitation to an illustrated presentation of the proposed Inner Harbor Municipal Center plan, it was announced today by David H. Fulton Jr.,

In Memoriams

BENNETT — In loving memory of our husband and father, BARRY E., who passed away eleven years ago, November 28, 1953.
Thoughts return to scenes long past,
Time speeds on but memories last;
We do not know why we must part,
From those we love so dear,
But God who does all things right
Will some day make it clear.
Devoted Wife, ANNIE and Son, HARRY JR.

BOONE — In loving memory of my dear husband, REV. WILLIAM H. BOONE, who passed away November 30, 1963:
You are not forgotten loved one,
Nor ... will ... you
... ever be.
As long as life
and memory
last,
We will remember
thee.
We miss you
now our hearts
are sore,
As time goes by
we miss you more;
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place
Loving wife,
LOUVENIA BOONE
And FAMILY.

CLAYTON — In loving memory of our dear husband and our father, HERBERT, who passed away November 28, 1963:
I'll remember you dear
husband
Here and in my heart.
And though God and his wisdom has torn us apart
In your home up in Heaven, you must know that I am true
To the love and esteem that was shown to us
And I pray that when life for me comes to an end
I'll meet you in heaven, my own dear husband.
My friend and my sweetheart, my one, the dearest love
God keep and guard you in Heaven above.
From His Wife,
THELMA CLAYTON
And CHILDREN.

COGER — In loving memory of our son and brother, ALEXANDER DUBOIS JR., who passed away January 28, 1964:
No one knows how much we miss you.
Within the family circle, on this Thanksgiving Day
We one known the bitter pain
We have suffered since we lost
Life has never been the same
In our hearts
your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender,
Fond and true;
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
SON, HUSBAND
And FAMILY.

GROSS — In loving memory of our devoted husband, ISRAEL H., who passed away November 28, 1963:
Gone, but not forgotten.
MINNIE
And MRS. ALBERT J. SMITH
Columbia, S.C.

HAYWARD — In memory of our loved one, SUSAN, who passed away November 28, 1963:
Oh, mother dear, when you were here,
We had your tender care;
And none can ever take your place,
Or fill that vacant chair.
Loving and kind in all your ways,
Upright and just to the end of your days,
Religious and true, in your heart and mind,
Beautiful memories you left us behind.
THE FAMILY,
THREE DAUGHTERS.

McDANIEL — In loving memory of our dear husband, ANDREW, who passed away November 20, 1963:
Sad and sudden
was the call
Of one so dear;
A call we
didn't expect,
A shock severe;
We ask to part
with ... one so
dear.
Wife,
ANNIE McDANIEL.

MOORE — In loving memory of our loved one, HANNAH B., who passed away November 29, 1961:
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
THE FAMILY.

SEWELL — In memory of our father, LEVI SEWELL, who passed away November 28, 1947:
Father, your children all shall miss
Your blessed memory as you sleep
And when eternal day shall come
To wake you from your slumber
Greet you with love as Christ
shall say,
"Rise, LEVI SEWELL,
LUCILLE, LEVI JR.,
OLLIE R.
