Syracuse underdog, Okla. faovred in Bowl clashes

NEW ORLEANS, La., — Integrated teams figure at even - steven in pre - game forecasts for the upcoming post - season football Bowl presentations.

Syracuse is rated underdog to Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl and Nebraska is regarded as unequal to the task of stopping Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. On the other hand, Oklahoma is given a slight edge over Florida State in the Gator Bowl and Michigan has favoritism over Oregon State in the Rose Bowl where both elevens include topline colored players.

• • •

IF SYRACUSE gets a lead on the running of sophomore Floyd Little and fullback Jim Nance, she can make it tough in LSU at New Orleans. But the Orange appears to lack the over - all defense to hold the fort all day.

At Dallas, the Cornhuskers promise to be a potent offensive threat, but Arkansas is quick, powerful and characteristically stubborn. These two rivals lost only one game between them, Arkansas going for a 10 - 0 season with a victory over rugged Texas and five consecutive shutouts to make her the more impressive.

The Rose Bowl affair looks like a Wolverine win, although Oregon State broke even in two games this season against Big Ten teams. Both were second division outfits, however, well below the Michigan standard.

• • •

IN JACKSONVILLE, the crystal ball calls for a Sooner victory.

Oklahoma, accustomed to late rallies, used the second to climb back from the brink half of the season this year of football obscurity and earn its second trip to the Gator Bowl.

The Sooners lost three straight games before they got their running game and their usually awesome defense clicking together.

Once they did, the Sooners won five of their last six games and tied the other. The high point came in the next - to-last game when an errorless effort enabled them to upset Big Eight champion Nebraska, 17-7.

39 colored Bowl stars

Thirty-nine potential stars of the weekend Bowl program are colored. That is the number of tan athletes listed for participation in the Rose, Sugar, Cotton and Gator bowls, and in the East-West Shrine classic.

Although the Orange Bowl is a lily-white affair this year, with Alabama meeting Texas, the Sugar Bowl is desegregated for the first time since 1956, and 8 colored youngsters will show there as members of the Syracuse eleven against Louisiana State. This will take up the slack caused by the absence at Miami.

• • •

THE LARGEST number of tan athletes will be seen in action at Pasadena, where the Rose Bowl game pits Michigan against Oregon State. The Wolverines lineup will include six, the OSU roster will have five.

Nebraska takes eight colored hopefuls with her to the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas, the same number Syracuse will have at Dallas And, in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., Oklahoma will use three colored athletes in her game with Florida State.

• • •

IN THE Shrine benefit at San Francisco, five tan selectees will be seen on the West squad as it opposes the East with its four all-star picks.

IDENTIFICATION of all these players, plus a guide to tan participiontain the NFL playoff game at Miami on Sunday will be found in the "TV Football" section elsewhere on these pages.

• • •

COMPLETING the East's 8 - man squad Boston's Tom Heinsohn and Cincinnati's Jerry Lucas.

Russell, Chamberlain and Robertson, along with Jerry West, were unanimous choices in the balloting.

Liston-Clay go despite charge of drunk driving

DENVER (UPI) — Former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston was charged with drunk driving Tuesday, but a spokesman said "The strangest arrest ever made on Christmas Day" would not affect a title rematch with Cassius Clay next spring.

The 30-year-old Liston was whisked through the Denver Police Building in 30 minutes and released on a personal recognizance bond.

He was charged earlier by the State of Colorado with drunk driving.

• • •

THREE DENVER policemen said they stopped Liston's 1965 Cadillac at noon Christmas Day. He was wrestled into a jail cell after a "shoving match" with 10 policemen on an East Denver Street.

He spent four hours in jail, then was released on recognizance bond.

Deputy Dist. Atty. William Chisholm filed the charge against Liston in Municipal Court. When he appeared at police headquarters with Denver attorney C. J. Murphy, traffic investigator Dick Lundquist said Liston was "polite and cooperative."

• • •

HAL CONRAD, a spokesman for Inter-Continental Sports, which is promoting the title rematch with Clay, said the fight would go on no matter how Liston fares in court.

"I think this guy has been harrassed", Conrad said. "The stories I've read about the arrest sounded like 77 Sunset Strip. Liston has received letters and wires from all over the country objecting to the 'roust' he got in Denver."

Conrad said the Clay-Liston fight would be held in late May or early June, depending on a doctor's examination of Clay around Feb. 1.

Skins' Taylor cops UPI rookie award

NEW YORK (UPI) — Charley Taylor, the Washington Redskins' halfback who is one of the few professionals ever to rank among the leaders in both rushing and pass receiving, has been named the rookie of the year in the National Football League by United Press International.

The rangy, former Arizona State star was awarded 17 votes from the UPI panel of 42 writers (three from each league city) who covered the season regularly. Teammate Paul Krause, a safety, was runnerup with nine votes, followed by Paul Warfield, a flanker for the champion Cleveland Browns, with eight ballots.

• • •

"HE'S THE finest football player we've ever had around here," said Washington coach Bill McPeak in reference to Taylor. "He's the finest I've seen anywhere and I feel he's destined to become one of the great backs in pro history."

Taylor finished sixth in the NFL in rushing and eighth in pass receiving. He carried the ball 199 times for 755 yards and five touchdowns, averaging 3.8 yards per carry.

He also scored five touchdowns as a receiver and for 814 yards, including one for 80.

• • •

THE FLASHY rookie was the No. 1 draft choice of the Redskins but reported late to training camp because of commitments to play in All - Star games at Buffalo and Chicago. Taylor suffered a shoulder injury in the Buffalo game, and tore a rib muscle in the College All - Star camp at Chicago.

Still he set up a field goal, passed for a touchdown, scored another and averaged better than five yards a carry in the Stars' 28-17 loss to the Chicago Bears and was named the game's outstanding player.

First tan starter wins Sugar Bowl's top honor

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Olympic sprinter Theron Lewis, the first tan athlete to participate in the Sugar Bowl track meet, won the in the 30th annual meet here Tuesday.

Lewis, of Southern (La.) University, set a Sugar Bowl record, running the 400-meter dash in 46.9 seconds.

Another colored Olympic sprinter, Richard Stebbins of Grambling (La.) College, won the 100-meter dash in 10.5 seconds.

• • •

LEWIS was almost beaten by another tan speedster in the 400 meters. Bill Calhoun of Oklahoma University, finished in 46.95.

Lewis said he did not kick the final 10 yards because his leg was bothering him and he did not want to risk a pulled muscle. He will run in the Orange Bowl at Miami this week.

Ronnie Fountain, of Northeast, was second to Stebbins in the 100 meters.

Stebbins was happy with his time of 10.5 because he said he had just practiced two days for the meet.

• • •

THE MEET was run on the Tulane University outdoor track, in 75 - degree weather and under cloudy skies.

Ted Nelson of Texas A and M and Garry Carr of Southern Illinois finished behind Lewis and Calhoun in the 400 meters.

Outdoor Tips

WOOD'S SIGNAL

Keep in touch with buddies or call for help with a shrill penetrating whistle. Then just blow into an empty shell.

CATCH A CHUCK

To catch a chuck place a trap in one burrow and close up his other exists and entrances with rocks. Chuck will soon come up to say "don't fence me in and you've got him.

HOLD SCREWS

Dip screwdriver blade in glue. Wait until tacky. Now screws will stay on blade while you reach them into inaccessible spots on reels or rifles.

PEEL OFF PAINT

Camouflage your aluminum boat by spraying it with surfacing paints used to line professional spraying rooms. Then paint camouflage over this film.

At season's end, just peel undersurface away. Any autobody shop can tell you where to get undersurfacing.

BETTER PAINT

After sanding, wash wood or metal with turpentine bath before you paint.

Imperfections you can't see or feel wash away.

Oliva, Walt Hazzard win Mag's year-end nod

NEW YORK, — Tony Oliva has been named Sport magazine's "Rookie of the Year" and all sports in its 18th annual year - end selections honoring the top performers in each major sport and appearing in the current issue of the magazine.

Oliva, the Minnesota Twins' star who became the first rookie in history to lead the American League in hitting, posted a .323 average with 32 homers and 109 runs batted in.

His sensational freshman season prompted the editors to establish this new category as part of their annual awards.

• • •

PLAYMAKER WALT Hazzard, currently with the Los Angeles Lakers, was named Sport magazine's "Top Performer in College Bakketball" for 1964, in the same year-end selections.

The award, goes to Hazzard for leading UCLA to an unbeaten season and the national championship.

Walt, who learned his basketball on the streets of Philadelphia, was regarded as the best ballhandler and passer in collegiate ranks last year.

His playmaking ability was instrumental in helping the U. S. team capture the Olympic championship.

Todd Duncan, Miss Coleman to sing at Inaugural Concert

WASHINGTON — Artists who will appear in the traditional Inaugural Concert and the program to be performed have been announced by Abe Fortas, Chairman of the Inaugural Concert Committee.

The concert in honor of Lyndon B. Johnson and Hubert H. Humphrey will take place in Constitution Hall at 8:30 p.m. on Jan. 19, the eve of the Inauguration.

The music director for the evening is Howard Mitchell, conductor of the National Symphony, which will perform as it has at all Presidential Inaugurations since 1933.

The guest soloists will be Van Cliburn, pianist; Issac Stern, violinist; Theresa Coleman, soprano; and Todd Duncan, baritone.

Mr. Fortas said he was confident the program and distinguished performers would appropriately represent the high level of musical attainment in the United States and in the Nation's Capital.

Mr. Cliburn will be the soloist in the First Piano Concerto by Liszt. The program will close with excerpts from George Gershwin's famous opera, Porgy and Bess. Todd Duncan, the baritone who created the role of Porgy in the original 1935 production, will sing this famous part once again.

Bess will be sung by Theresa Coleman, who scored an exceptional triumph in a recent appearance with the National Symphony and was immediately chosen by Dr. Mitchell as "the perfect Bess."

Mr. Duncan has for many years been a distinguished resident of Washington. Miss Coleman resides in Baltimore.

Mummers to observe ban on blackface in parade

PHILADELPHIA, (UPI) — Blackface makeup will not be used again this year by marchers in the traditional mummers parade on New Year's Day.

Robert Rodebaugh, assistant director of the parade said Sunday the mummers organizations had "agreed to go along with" a city ban on Blackface which was ordered last year.

He said about 15,000 persons would take part in the 65th annual parade although two string bands have dropped out because of financial difficulties.

U. S. judge frees six Ga. klansmen

MACON, Ga., (UPI) — A Federal District Judge Tuesday threw out a government indictment charging six Ku Klux Klansmen with conspiring to deprive colored citizens of their civil rights.

The indictments grew out out of the investigation into the killing of Lemuel Penn, an educator from Washington, D.C., last summer.

Judge W. A. Bootle in throwing out the indictment, said his court could not "usurp jurisdiction where it has none."

• • •

"THE ENFORCEMENT of general criminal laws is a local matter with authority and responsibility resting squarely" upon local and state officers, he said.

But Bootle said that "fortunately, under the Criminal Appeals Act, the Federal government has a speedy remedy for a review of this ruling by the Supreme Court.

The defendants had asked Bootle to throw out the indictments on ground prosecutors had failed to show a federal crime was committed.

Three of the Klansmen — John Howard Sims, Cecil William Myers and James S. Lackey — were charged with slaying Penn as he and two other Army Reserve officers drove along a lonely road near Athens, returning to Washington from a tour of duty at Ft. Benning.

Sims and Myers were tried on state charges of murder and acquitted. Lackey has not been tried.

• • •

THE OTHER THREE charged in the federal indictment were Willis Phillips, George H. Turner and Herbert Guest. All were members of the Athens Klan Klavern.

They were accused of conthreaten and intimidate colored people. The government claimed that it was "part of the plan and purpose of the conspiracy that its objects be achieved by... shooting colored people... beating colored people... killing colored people (and) destroying property of colored people.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mississippi congressmen agreed Tuesday to challenge the right of several colored persons to contest their elections.

The congressmen held a three-hour meeting with their attorneys, former Gov. J. P. Coleman and B. B. McLendon Jr., to lay plans for opposing an effort to oust them from their house seats.

Neither the congressmen nor the lawyers would comment on their plans after the meeting, but it was learned they decided to question the legality of the MFDP proceeding.

City acts to honor George W. Carver, proclaims 'Carver Day'

WASHINGTON

In observance of achievements of "a great educator, scientist — and benefactor," the District Commissioners Wednesday proclaimed the week of Jan. 3 as George Washington Carver Week.

City fathers issued the proclamation citing Dr. Carver's rise from humble beginnings in Missouri to a world renowned scientist of the soil and its products.

The same Tuskegee Institute scientist made a lasting contribution to agriculture and plant chemistry, the Commissioners said. In his laboratory, he found some 300 uses for the peanut alone.

Dick Rosmini at Foghorn

Dick Rosmini, TV's folksy cowboy sengee on "Bananza" is appearing thru Saturday at the Foghorn Folk Center.

The guitar playing actor is the instrumentalist heard on hundreds of records for such greats as Bobby Darin, The Limelighters, Jackie Washington and Pete Seeger.

As a guitar player the musical virtuosity of Rosmini is so good Time Magazine recently crowned him "King of the 12-string guitar."
