—Moylan on police

western Police Station following her release by police.

SHE SAID, "truthfully I don't even remember too much of what we were talking about in the taxi."

Mrs. Florence Snowden, 72, sister of Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, NAACP branch president, told reporters she and Mrs. Sheppard were returning in a taxi cab from the Veterans Administration office.

"We had gone down there to see about an allotment for Mrs. Sheppard's son, who is a disabled veteran," Mrs. Snowden recalled.

She said they had been discussing several things including the money expected in the allotment and the Veney case.

"I REMEMBER saying to Mrs. Sheppard 'You certainly didn't raise your boy to go out drinking and shooting at policemen,'" Mrs. Snowden said.

The cab driver, police later said, thought she had said something about "... letting one of her sons go out drinking and shooting policemen," and notified them after taking his passengers to their respective homes.

"I was cooking chicken," Mrs. Sheppard said, "when the bell rang and I heard banging at my windows and door. Then I opened the door.

"My Lord, there were all those policemen with guns pointing them at me."

The elderly woman said the officers frightened her so that her heart began throbbing and she began to feel a little weak.

"IT'S JUST terrible. They came running in, pushing me around and I told them, 'stop pushing me. I haven't done anything. What do you want?

"The officer who pushed me was wearing a light colored coat and told me real nasty like, 'We want you, come on you're going with us'."

SEVERAL OF the officers then grabbed her son, who was injured in combat during World War II, by the arm and started to take him out the door.

Mrs. Sheppard said she called out:

"Wait! Can't you wait and let him put on his coat?"

She stated the same officer said, "He can get his coat and you get yours, too, you're going with us."

"I asked him if I could make a telephone call and he said, 'No you can't make no call, you can make it at the Station House,'" Mrs. Sheppard a widow recalled.

As Mrs. Sheppard was leaving her home, two young women, one of them a next door neighbor, were standing nearby and she yelled to them.

Miss Carol Sheppard, 2005 N. Monroe, told the AFRO, "I was in my living room talking with Mary (Mrs. Mary Bumberry, 1823 Clifton Ave.) when I saw this man looking through my window with a gun in his hand.

"I didn't know what was going on so I ran outside. That's when they were bringing Mrs. Sheppard out of the house and she yelled to us, 'Call Mrs. Florence Snowden! Please call Mrs. Snowden."

THE TWO young ladies complied and went to Mrs. Snowden's home.

"But she (Mrs. Snowden) had gone out so we waited for a while and when she came back all of us went down to Mrs. Mitchell's office."

In company with Mrs. Mitchell and Del. Mitchell, the group headed for Northwestern Police Station where Mrs. Sheppard had been taken.

Meanwhile, police in bullet proof vests and armed with pistols and shotguns, went to Mrs. Snowden's home, home learning she was not at home TIGHT LINES they left.

MRS. SHEPPARD said she and her son were placed in cells and questioned.

"They kept asking me about some kind of shooting. Showed me pictures of men I have never seen in my life and asked me if I knew them," she stated.

Mrs. Mitchell protested the arrest to Capt Fred Gladstone, commander, North western district who she claimed:

"I don't know anything about it. It came under Lt. James Cadden of the Homicide Squad. I didn't have anything to do with it."

Mrs. Sheppard and her son were released by police an hour after their arrest.

OUTSIDE the Station house, Del. Clarence M. Mitchell, said "the Mayor wanted some specific complaints. Well I'm in favor of letting him hear this one."

At the Mayor's office Earl Poorbaugh, an assistant to the Mayor, informed the group that Mr. McKeldin was in conference and would be unable to see them.

"We want the Mayor, to hear this complaint. He asked for specific complaints and we're here to give him a prime example of how the rights of colored citizens are being ravished by police," Mrs. Mitchell declared.

Mr. Moylan came to the Mayor's office to hear the complaint.

After meeting Mrs. Shepard and hearing her story he talked with Mrs. Mitchell. It was during this conversation that the AFRO overheard him say:

"This is really too bad. It's a pity. They have gone too far this time."

Mr. Moylan was accompanied by William T. W. Bricker, assistant state's attorney assigned to handle complaints against police tactics in search of the Veneys'.

"THIS IS terrible" declared Mrs. Mitchell. "These are the type of tactics Hitler used. People are afraid to even talk about the Veney case on the streets.

"We have, I'm afraid, arrived at a police state."

Del. Mitchell later sent telegrams to Mayor McKeldin and Gov. Tawes.

The telegram to the Mayor stated:

"You and the Governor, without consulting any aggrieved citizens, publicly endorsed police procedures used during the present crisis. When our ministers met with you, you said that none had filed a specific complaint.

"Earlier today we brought to your office a shocking violation of the rights of one of our decent and elderly citizens.

"We regret that you were too busy to listen. Are we to assume that the abuse of colored citizens is of no concern to you?

"Somehow it was possible to search for the Profili killer without violating the sanctity of white citizens' homes.

"I sincerely hope that as our Mayor you will recognize the urgency of this situation and take steps to prevent this kind of treatment.

MR. MITCHELL in the telegram sent to Gov. Tawes declared:

"Police tactics in their search for suspected police killers are worsening. We want their apprehension as much as the department.

"However, innocent citizens have a right to be secure in in their homes from arbitrary and unreasonable search and seizure."

MRS. MITCHELL informed the AFRO late Thursday that a civil suit against the police department would be filed charging them with making a false arrest and illegal search and seizure.

She said the suit will also charge the Mayor and Governor with condoning the acts and tactics of the Police Department.

—Baby slain

were told, started with F.J. The car reportedly had four male occupants and a female. They said that in the front seat were two men and in the back were two men seated on either side of the woman.

Witnesses said the car was speeding in excess of 30 miles per hour and took off at a higher rate of speed after the "back fire" sounding noise.

Police said Mrs. Mary Gallman, 44, 800 block Whitelock St., came to aid of the hysterical mother after the shooting.

"I was looking out the window of the laundromat when I saw this car speed past," Mrs. Gallman told the AFRO.

She continued, "Some other women and I had just started talking about how terrible it was for cars to speed like that when I heard something that sounded like a car back-firing or a firecracker."

A few seconds later she said she heard screams and looked out the window again.

"THERE WAS that poor woman clinching the baby to her breast then holding it in the air and all the time yelling, somebody's shot my baby," she said.

"All those people out there just stood around looking. Nobody went to help the poor soul, so I ran out of the laundromat and pried the child from her arms.

"Blood was running down the side of the baby's face. I opened the snow suit and I could hear the poor thing gagging."

Mrs. Gallman, the baby and Mrs. Cooper were taken to Provident Hospital by Louis Straiten, 1700 block Gwynns Falls Parkway, who had seen the car speed into Whitelock St. from Brookfield Ave.

He told police the car went through a stop sign as it swirled around the corner. Mr. Straiten also said he heard what sounded like a car backfiring before hearing the woman's screams.

SAMUEL POLATNICK, the owner of a grocery store, at 911 Whitelock St., in front of which the shooting occurred stated:

"I heard that noise. It sounded to me like a firecracker and I really didn't pay it much attention until the woman started screaming.

"I looked out of the store window, then ran outside when I saw what had happened. I came back in and called the police. They were here in a matter of minutes."

"They told me they had done all they could but that they weren't equipped to handle the case and sent us to University Hospital.

THE INFANT was pronounced dead on arrival, at 4:10 p.m. Police said the fatal bullet went through the child's forehead and came out the back of the head.

Mrs. Cooper is mother of three other children, Karol, 13; Kathy, 3 and Karen, 7.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions some of 10 to 50 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for relieving injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H® Suppositories or Preparation H® Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H® is sold at all drug counters.

JHU Freshman president is from Louisiana

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

Joseph Anthony Carlton who stands 6 feet, inches in his stocking feet at the age of 17, is president of the Freshman Class at Johns Hopkins University.

He hails from the small town of Grambling, La., where his father, Major Carlton, is superintendent of Buildings and Grounds at Grambling State College and his mother, Mrs. Jessie Carlton, is the school auditor.

He wants to become a physician and selected Hopkins for its medical courses. He majors in biological science, wears no Freshman beanie and experienced no hazing.

Hopkins banned such in favor of a more mature freshman life in which first-year students are respected as college men.

YOUNG CARLTON was elected by his 412 classmates at the 89-year-old university that has as famous a name as the Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions has as the mecca for persons ailing of disease or those with a yen to study at a world famed college.

As leader of the Class of 1968, head of the undergrads who are on the way to get diplomas at the 89th annual commencement, Carlton sets a precedent, it's true.

But, leadership is no new thing for the frosh president who has held the post since October.

When he was graduated from John Bosco High School in June, 1964, in New Jersey, he was valedictorian of the senior class, a member of the student council and elected "Student Of The Month." He won a scholarship to college.

HE ARRIVED on the Hopkins Homewood Campus in September, 1964, to reside in the Gildersleeve Dormitory. Among his classmates are foreign exchange students and those enrolled from many of the states including Hawaii.

Hopkins was never known as a "snap" and Carlton and some 1,542 other students of all classes are preparing for examinations.

ADD TO this mid-term experience the suspense of freshmen waiting for the fraternity rush season coming within days, and you have what is called "a difficult and trying period" in the life of any young man.

Here is where the job of being freshman president also becomes a tough one and it falls not to Carlton and other class officers to suddenly become resourceful and wise beyond their years.

COMPETING hundred of details, the unscheduled duties can be lumped in one package marked "keeping up the morale and spirit of the class."

This means hurrying back to the dorm every night. Carlton manages but not before basketball practice.

As can be imagined from his height, Carlton is a basketball regular team member, the center, and third highest scoring man on the campus. He was a net star in high school and a track letter man.

MR. CARLTON has four brothers and sisters one of whom, is 14-year-old Mary Jennifer Carlton, a sophomore high school student at Bishop Imore's Catholic St. Francis Academy For Girls.

Michael, 12, a brother, is at home with the parents at Grambling. The other two sisters are Mrs. Anita Lloyd, 27, a secretary in Los Angeles, Calif., and Miss Margaret Carlton, an Oakland, Calif. secretary.

Hopkins is the first U. S. college to model after German universities that accent graduate study and research. Total enrollment, 8,692, includes 1,542 undergrads; 1,150 graduate students. McCoy Evening College has 6,000 night school students.

JOSEPH A. CARLTON

HOME FOR the holidays is Sp-4 Ralph W. Moore, who is stationed with the 3rd Medical Battalion, Frankfurt, Germany. Son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Moore, 3000 Belmont Ave., Specialist Moore will return to duty on Jan. 15.
