Bahai's to hear Mitchell Sunday

World Religion Day, Jan. 17, an event observed by members of the Baha'i faith throughout the world will be celebrated on Sunday at twelve-noon in the Baltimore Baha'i Center, 5301 Gwynn Oak Ave. The public is invited.

Glenford Mitchell, writer and co-editor of the Africa Report, of Washington, D.C. will speak.

The oneness of Religion and the oneness of mankind are two basic principles given by Baha'u'llah, whose name means the "Glory of God," for the establishing of world peace in this day.

Mrs. Parker's estate settled

The estate of Mrs. Aleese V. Parker, who died May 19, 1964, is being administered by Archie Williams, attorney.

Mrs. Parker is survived by her husband, Bernard H. Parker of 1827 Division St.

Her estate consists of $5,400.27 in cash, and an automobile valued at $875. The court also allowed Mr. Williams to settle a claim for an accident in which Mrs. Parker figured, but not blamed for her death, for $900; and to allow Mr. Williams to deduct a third, $216.33, for handling this case.

Baha's to meet at James home

Bahais of Howard County will hold a public observance of World Religion Day Sunday, Jan. 17, with Paul Pettit as speaker. Mr. Pettit, member of the national governing body of Baha'is, will use slides to illustrate his talk.

According to Albert B. James of the local Baha'i community, Baha'is around the world observe this day annually.

At this time it is emphasized that all major religions teach basically the same spiritual truths, and various denominations or sects are made by man.

The meeting will be at the James home of Route 32 at 4 p.m.

Mrs. Effie Keck

Mrs. Effie Senora Keck, 64, formerly of 1121 N. Caroline St., died Friday at 2801 Chelsea Terr., the home of her son, Otho Keck.

Postal Auxiliary visits District Home for Blind

The Women's Auxiliary to the National Alliance of Postal Employees shared cheer and happiness with the residents at the District of Columbia Home for the Blind during the recent holidays.

Christmas Carols were directed by Mrs. Josephine Johnson accompanied by Mrs. Mayne Dixon at the piano. After Mrs. Carletta McDaniel related the Story of the Birth of Christ, a presentation of numerous gifts to the home was made by Mrs. America Nelson, chairman of welfare and public relations

Mrs. Lottie B. Diggs, member of the Board of the Home welcomed and thanked the auxiliary for its thoughtfulness and generosity.

The Annual Twelfth Night Party was planned under the leadership of Mesdames Marie Woolridge and Jessie Wilson.

Carolyn Grimstead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Grimsteed of this city, ship award given by the National Alliance of Postal Employees Women's Auxiliary from the national office. Carolyn entered Howard University and is majoring in advertising art.

After Mrs. LaVerne Greene, president of District No. 2, gave encouraging remarks and extended season's greetings, members of the auxiliary delightfully displayed their gifts received as result of having pulled names.

IT IS estimated that there are more than five million mentally retarded persons in the United States.

THE CONCAVE hoofs of bighorn sheep act as suction cups on treacherous mountain slopes.

In 1963, a total of 47 cases of botulism was reported in the United States and its territories.
