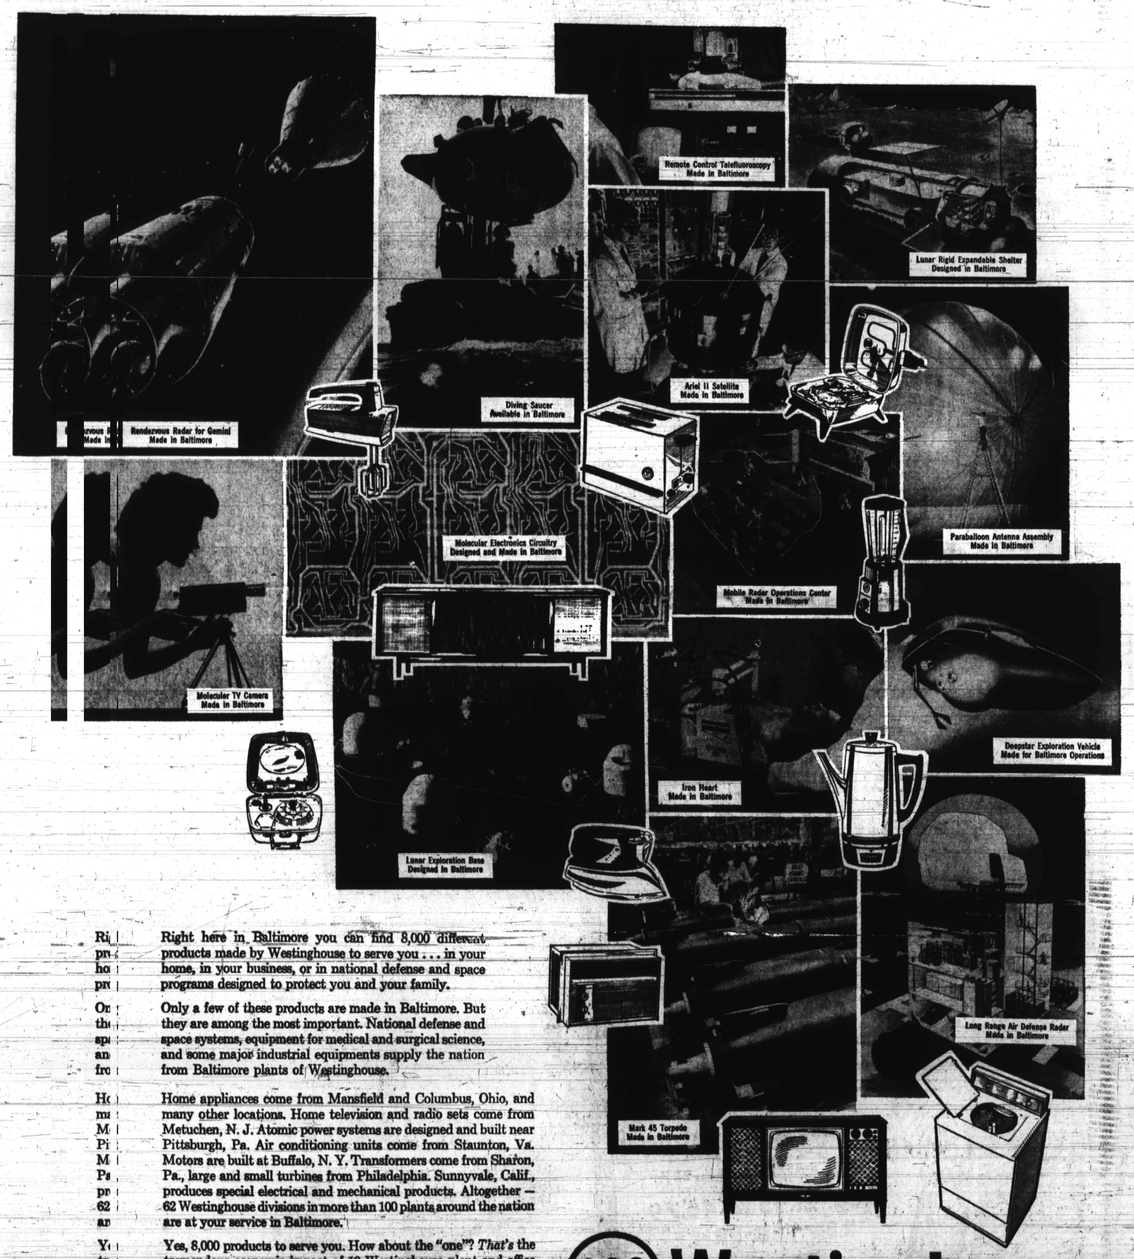
Among the 8,000 and 1 ways Westinghouse serves Baltimore:



Right here in Baltimore you can find 8,000 different products made by Westinghouse to serve you . . . in your home, in your business, or in national defense and space programs designed to protect you and your family.

Only a few of these products are made in Baltimore. But they are among the most important. National defense and space systems, equipment for medical and surgical science, and some major industrial equipments supply the nation from Baltimore plants of Westinghouse.

Home appliances come from Mansfield and Columbus, Ohio, and many other locations. Home television and radio sets come from Metuchen, N. J. Atomic power systems are designed and built near Pittsburgh, Pa. Air conditioning units come from Staunton, Va. Motors are built at Buffalo, N. Y. Transformers come from Sharon, Pa., large and small turbines from Philadelphia. Sunnyvale, Calif., produces special electrical and mechanical products. Altogether — 62 Westinghouse divisions in more than 100 plants around the nation are at your service in Baltimore.

Yes, 8,000 products to serve you. How about the "one"? That's the tremendous economic impact of 18 Westinghouse plant and office locations in the Baltimore area, helping to make Baltimore one of the nation's great industrial communities!

CLOSE OUT BUSY WEEK—Morgan State College, off to her fastest start in recent years, winds up the busiest week of the young basketball season tonight and tomorrow (Saturday). Having already split two CIAA games earlier, the Golden Bears will be trying to keep their hot pace going against Lincoln University tonight (Friday) and Delaware State tomorrow, both games in the Hurt gymasium. On Tuesday, Morgan whipped Virginia State, 110-87, but the following night lost to Union, 96-88. Kneeling here are Dave Nesbit, Edward Gibson, Albert Atkins, Grant Turner, James Hall, Howard Cornish; standing are Jim Turk, Bobby Gordon, John Greer, Edward Strawther, Henry Bethea and Earl Holmes.

14 tan cagers in U.S. 20 best

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — The National Basketball Association unveiled its alignment of the 20 best players in the United States here Wednesday night at the annual East - West All - Star Game.

And of the 20 first performers the league poll sent onto the floor, 14 were colord.

Ironically, the East squad, which boasted 8 tan athletes, defeated the West squad, which used 6 colored, 124 - 123.

THE EAST contingent of Oscar Robertson, Bill Russell, Wayne Embry, Sam Jones, Lucious Jackson, Johnny Green, Hal Greer and Willis Reed collaborated to tally 95 points, with Robertson's 28 leading the output.

On the West Side, Elgin Baylor, Walt Bellamy, Wilt Chamberlain, Gus Johnson, Nate Thurmond and Lenny Wilkens combined to net 83 of the 123 total.

Rounding out the two squads were Jerry Lucas and Larry Costello with the victorious East, Terry Dischinger, Don Ohl, Bob Pettit and Jerry West for the vanquished West.

'Tops In Sports' banquet

By SAM LACY

The 12th annual "Tops In Sports" banquet was held Monday night at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, under the auspices of the Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association.

An estimated 400 persons heard halfback Lenny Moore and catcher Elston Howard extolled for their contributions to the general area of sports.

• • •

MOORE and Howard shared honors with seven other big-name athletes: third baseman Brooks Robinson, the Orioles' MVP; pitcher Dean Chance of the Angels, outfielder Harmon Killebrew of the Twins, quarterback John Unitas of the Colts, farmhand Dave Boswell of the Twins, Hall of Famer Hank Greenberg, Oriole manager Hank Bauer, and Phillies scout Johnny Ogden. Ogden discovered NL "rookie of the Year" Richie Allen for the Phils.

• • •

AN ENTERTAINING program preceded the awards, with the Orioles' president, Lee MacPhail, the Yankees' Phil Linz and the Colts' Don Kellett, among others, participating.

Howard was paid delayed tribute for his 1963 achievement in winning the American League MUP award.

• • •

COORDINATOR Lou Grasmick explained that Howard was to have been the main honoree last January, but a 2-day snowfall prevented his 1963 attendance.

Moore's tribute was in recognition of his tremendous comeback and the inscription took cognizance of the fact without Lenny's great effort the Colts could not have gone all the way in the Western Division of the NFL.

Aside from accepting accolades, Howard made the "Tope" presentation to Brooks Robinson.

• • •

GORDON BEARD of the Associated Press, followed the delight of the audience.

Beard made humorous reference to the transfer of the American Football League All-Star Game from New Orleans to Houston for Saturday.

"The AFL," he said, "was International League president Tommy Richardson to the microphone at the outset of the program. Both engaged in running repartee to caught with 21 men in motion. And New Orleans was penalized back to the 19th Century.

"CORE," Beard continued, "wanted to reschedule the game in Philadelphia — Philadelphia, Mississippi, that is. But it was decided it wouldn't be good to have those Mississippi cops pulling up to cars to make sure they were just football players."

Closed-circuit TV for Floyd-Chuvalo

Baltimore fight fans will have an opportunity to see the Floyd Patterson - George Chuvalo heavyweight elimination fight on closed circuit television.

Announcement of plans to present the February 1, Madison Square Garden bout on large screen at Civic Center, Center, was made Thursday at a press luncheon.

The Nilon Brothers, sponsors of the affair, also will produce the theatre - TV on the March 5 Ernie Terrell - Eddie Machen and April 26 Cassius Clay - Sonny Liston fights.

Wilt Chamberlain traded to Philadelphia 79'ers

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Scoring King Wilt Chamberlain, traded by the San Francisco Warriors to the Philadelphia 76'ers, slipped out of town Thursday morning, saying "I'm going home, I have a lot of things to clear up."

Chamberlain checked out of his hotel by telephone. Only UPI photographer Bruno Torres saw the bearded giant hurriedly leave the hotel and duck into a taxi which whisked him to the St. Louis - Lambert Airport.

Chamberlain refused to answer the telephone once the announcement was made that he was acquired by the 76'rs in a $375,000 deal which jubilant owner Irv Kosloff said may mean Philadelphia will end the Boston Celtics' six - year reign as National Basketball Association champions.

• • •

CHAMBERLAIN, carrying his All - Star gifts under his arms, came down the elevator, or from his seventh floor hotel room, went directly to the outside. A taxi pulled up and the big man stooped low to get inside for the trip to the airport.

WILT CHAMBERLAIN

Chamberlain didn't say a word. His only comment immediately after Kosliffs announcement of the trade shortly after midnight, was "I haven't been told about a thing. I have nothing to say. I'm going home (to San Francisco) . . . I have a lot of things to clear up."

AFRO keglers meet in pin tourney

By a strange quirk in the pairings, two staff members of the AFRO - AMERICAN Newspapers will clash head-on in the Mixed Doubles bowling tournament tonight (Friday) at Civic Center.

George Lee, Baltimore circulation manager, and Jackie McCoy of the teletype department, will team with members of the opposite sex and oppose each other in the second round of the pin competitions.

The event is one of the features of the Mid - Atlantic Sports, Travel and Vacation Show currently on tap at the Center and running through Sunday.

• • •

LEE PAIRED with Kitty Chesson to represent Fair Lanes Woodlawn in the opening round Wednesday night against a duo from AIBC Crown. They won the match, 11032 - 1062.

An hour later, Miss McCoy and Percy Mack rolled for Walbrook to defeat Bowl America Cedonia.

As a result of their victories, the two teams clash tonight (Friday) for the right to advance to the semi-finals scheduled for 8:30 p.m., Saturday.

• • •

BOTH LEE and Miss Chesson are regarded among the best competitive bowlers in the city, while Miss McCoy and Mack are rated high in scoring averages.

Jackie currently holds a mean of 172, and shortly after completing her Civic Center battle Wednesday night, she returned to her home alleys at Walbrook and knocked out a sparkling 241 game.

Goose Tatum's leg is broken

HOUSTON —Former Harlem Globetrotter star Goose Tatum suffered a broken leg in the closing minutes of an exhibition game Saturday night, his first serious injury in 25 years of professional basketball.

He had scored 50 points to lead the Harlem Road Kings to an 87 - 59 victory over the New York Olympians.

• • •

'I WAS having one of my best nights," he said Sunday from his hospital bed.

"It was kind of a freak accident. I went up for a shot and a guy on the other team came by me and his knee hit me on the right leg and the bone snapped in two places."

• • •

THE BREAKS were between the knee and the ankle. Tatum said doctors told him the leg will be just as good as new after it heals."

He will be hospitalized in Houston about a week while the teams continue a tour of Texas cities.
