Powell to discuss poverty program

WASHINGTON (NNPA) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D.-N.Y.) will discuss the poverty program at the Jan. luncheon session of the four-day AFL -CIO legislative conference in the Mayflower Hotel.

The opening session of the conference was scheduled for last Monday morning with addresses by Vice President - elect Hubert H. Humphrey, and AFL - CIO President George Meany.

Last week, Powell was ordered to pay $150 in court costs for causing "unnecessary services and disbursement" by Raymond Rubin, attorney for Mrs. Esther James, a widow, who is still trying to collect a $46,500 defamation judgment against the Congressman for calling her a "bag woman" for crooked police.

PEKING MILL

DAR-ES-SALAAM (NNPA) — A textile mill employing 2,000 persons will be built in Tanzania within the next two years, under an agreement signed last week with Red China.

The mill, to cost $9.6 million, will be named after Mao Tse-Tung, the Chinese leader.
