Long's job-hunt clinics to get start next month

Rep. Clarence D. Long (D-Md.) has announced the appointment of a director to run clinics in Baltimore County do - it - yourself job - finding clinics in Baltimore County and says the program will open early next month.

The pilot program to help more people win employment, set up by the Labor Department at Rep. Long's request, will run through October and may serve as a model for permanent clinics throughout the nation.

The Baltimore area Health and Welfare Council has been awarded $64,000 to administer the clinics.

Donald Frank, a formere personnel manager now employed as a research analyst at the Social Security Administration in Woodlawn, has been granted a leave of absence to direct the job-finding clinics.

William F. Griffith, University of Maryland graduate, has been named administrative aide to Mr. Frank.

Dr. Herbert Stern, director of guidance and placement for Baltimoree'se public scho is to serve as consultant to the program.

The job-finding clinics will demeonstrate eevery trick in the bolk to win employment." Rep. Long said, "and some that probably haven't yet beeen written."

National Gallery announces schedule

John Walker, Director of the National Gallery of Art has announced the hours of opening of the Gallery during Inauguration week.

On Monday January 18, the Gallery will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. That afternoon it will be opened specially for the Distinguished Ladies Reception.

The Cafeteria will be open to the public on the 18th from its normal opening hour of 11 a.m. until the Gallery closes to the public at 1 p.m.

On every other day of the inaugural period, including Inauguration Day, the Gallery will be open its regular hours, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays, and 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Sundays.

On Inauguration Day, the Constitution Avenue doors of the Gallery will be closed from the time the President leaves The White House for the Capitol until he returns. Also on that day the daily tours will be suspended.
