BEGINNING at luncheons on the Tuesday before the day the new administration was sworn in, the ladies from every state, including Hawaii and Alaska, wore mink.

They were most evident at the 3 to 6 p.m. reception given in honor of the governors of the states and special distinguished guests of the Inaugural Committee.

The RSVP affair at the Sheraton Park Hotel, saw present, everybody who had heretofore spread out all over the city to some 64 other affairs.

President and Mrs. Johnson, Vice - President and Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey and family were on hand as guests No. 1.

The throng of exquisitely dressed celebrants of every race and creed then overflowed the Sheraton - Park Maryland, Delaware and Virginia suite banquet rooms and, walking, moved through the 23 degree temperature, with snow lining the walks, to the Shoreham Hotel, a block away.

Here at the Regency Room, the Reception for the Vice President - Elect and Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey was hosted by Minnesota's Gov. and Mrs. Karl F. Rolvaag; Congressional Delegation, President's Club and Minnesota State Society.

At the same time the Puerto Rico Reception and some other special parties were in honor of the Humphreys.

• • •

THE SAME GROUP, numbering thousands, went on to the Young Democrats' party at the Mayflower and Willard Hotels to dance until 1 a.m. and/or the Inaugural Concert at Constitution Hall, featuring Todd Duncan, Theresa Coleman, and others.

• • •

DR. AND MRS. Ralph J. Bunche, she in brown and mink in a beaver shade were early arrivals at the impressive governors' reception hall that was decorated with all the state flowers around booths for each governor of each state.

A line of diplomats marched in about 4 p.m. to disclose how many African nations have ambassadors in Washington.

Among them was Godwin A. Onyebula, charge'd affaires, Embassy of Nigeria and the angel faced Madame Kabanda of Rwanda, both in native costumes. Also Hosea J. Soro, ambassador of the Republic of Gambia.

Veteran Illinois Congressman William L. Dawson, again held forth as a host, this time at his state booth with his governor, assisted by Mrs. Christine Davis, his secretary, who was smart in gold; a mink jacket and a black feather tierra that danced upon her head.

Chicago people in the crowd included Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Woods, in mink and black; Judge and Mrs. Mark Jones in navy blue; Archibald Carey, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dejoie in beige and mink; Mr. and Mrs. John Sengstacke in a brown silk suit, mink trim; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wimp; Senator and Mrs. Corneal Davis;

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beasley, County Commissioner Josephine B. Sneed; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beasley, Miss Dorothy O'Brian.
