Dunbar sold out for crucial battle with Towson Catholic

Athletic officials at Dunbar High School cannot remember when their gym has been sold out for a basketball game. But that is the case for this afternoon's climatic battle with Towson Catholic scheduled for 3:30 o'clock.

"We're completely sold out," an athletic department spokesman told the AFRO. "and requests for tickets are still coming in. It is the first time I can remember a similar situation, but we are not anticipating any trouble with unruly visitors."

* * *

THE LATTER statement was in answer to a question as to whether or not the over capacity attendance might bring about disorders such as have prevailed at other schools in the past.

"For the most part," was the reply, "Incidents like that are provoked by people other than students. We have been fortunate in not having to contend with this sort of thing in the past and those outsiders who do attend our games usually clear the area without delay."

REASON FOR the tremendous enthusiasm for the Dunbar - Towson game is obvious. It is a final contest of the first half of the Maryland Scholastic Association schedule, and both teams are undefeated.

Today's victor will take over undisputed possession of difficulty in knocking off stubborn Forester, 7 and 1 last Tuesday thus establish a clear favorite and eliminated the Forester team from the race for the way bid to challenge immediately for the lead. Towson Catholic kept pace by disposing of Douglass, also in relatively easy fashion.

These developments enabled the two rivals to run their strings to 5 in a row for the campaign.

* * *

IN THE meantime, Carver, who occupies first place in Division 2, and who also is unbeaten for the year, closes out the first half with something of a breather.

The Cubs entertain Curley on their home floor and are not expected to have any trouble worthy of note. The Curley quint is still looking for its first victory, shows a record of 0 - 5 as against Carver's 5 - 0.

* * *

THE DIVISION 2 leaders, incidentally, took a leaf from Dunbar's book on Tuesday. Like their Poet counterparts, the Cubs locked with Patterson Park, which then was just one game off the Carver pace with a 3 - 1 slate to the latter's 4 - 0.

The Pats were thumped, 64 - 49 — LACY.

3 Clippers tilts slated for radio

— Baltimore Clippers hockey fans will be able to follow the play-by play of three Clippers road games which will be broadcast by "The Schaefer Circle of Sports" on January 24, 30 and 31.

All of the games will be heard on radio.

The game Sunday, will have the Clippers meeting the Bisons in Buffalo at 7:15 p.m.

On January 30, Baltimore will skate against the Springfield Indians at 8 p.m. in West Springfield, Mass.

The Quebec Aces will play host to the Clippers on January 31, at 8:15 p.m.

FIRE STARTER

You can always build a fire if you've got a motor around. Soak the end of a paper or rag rope in gasoline.

Hold next to open spark plug and make the spark jump into the gas. Bloole! Fire. Take it easy with the gas, though, a little is plenty.

PEPPERY DEER HUNTERS

Deer hunters carry a can of black pepper in their coats.

When deer is clean they sprinkle insides with pepper to keep blow flies away.

In Memoriams

BOYKIN — In loving memory of my dear wife, ADNER M., who passed away January 19, 1956:
Dear God to repeat her, I love her too dearly
For her memory is dear
My life like a dream;
My loss need not speak when my heart mourns sincerely,
Her spirit often dwells where it seldom is seen.
Devoted Husband,
WILLIAM S. BOYKIN

BROWN — In loving memory of my brother, FRANK, who passed away January 24, 1964:
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head, you did not bend,
I kept the watch with you, dear husband,
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain,
God grant some day we'll meet again.
Sister, DORA ADDISON
NIECES and NEPHEWS.

HENLEY — In memory of our loved one, ETHEL B., who passed away January 22, 1964:
I miss and seek you on this last,
And hold your dying hand,
And hear the last sigh from your heart,
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had,
We only know you went far away
And never said good-bye.
THE FAMILY

MATTHEWS — In memory of our loved one, EDWARD EUGENE, who passed away January 19, 1964:
When the evening shades are falling
And I am sitting all alone,
My heart there comes a longing
For you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
One year ago today.
Devoted WIFE, DAUGHTER, SON and FAMILY.

SIMMS — In loving memory of my husband and my brother, JAMES A., who passed away January 23, 1964:
One year has passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called to pass away
God took him home—it was His will
But within our hearts he liveth still.
HAZEL AND GEORGE.

TILMAN — A tribute of love to our beloved husband and father, ESTELLE, who passed away January 22, 1961:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
A letter grief, a shock severe
To all who knew and loved dear.
We miss you at your side and hear you think
And speak of how you died.
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes forever
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God, grant your eternal rest.
Devoted Sister, CLARA
Loving Friend, COLONIA

WEAVER — A tribute in memory of a beloved husband, son and brother, J. EDWARD WEAVER, 428 Jr., who passed away two years ago, January 21, 1963:
You did so much from year to year
For all of us whom you held dear.
While we had you we took for granted
You did your best to allay each fear,
Now we long so much, you still seem near
Oh how we wish we had you here.
DEVOTED FAMILY

WILSON — In loving memory of my mother, SYLVIA J. who passed away January 18, 1955:
Although God has you in His care
I still have you in my heart.
MAGGIE W. PATTON
