MISS MYSTERY, babies are too precious to die like this.

Even worse, their killers should not be able to go about their merry way content that their dastardly deed will remain a deep and dark secret.

I don't believe you want this to happen, Miss Mystery Don't let it happen.

If you know anything about the person who killed little Kris, call me right away at Mulberry 5-6015 and ask for Mr. G.

I'm banking on you—and other, including that caller who can't sleep—to help me find the killer of little Kris.

Babies shouldn't die that way.

I'll be waiting for your call.

Yours turly,
Mr. G

P.S.—There now is a total of $750 reward money up for information provided the AFRO that leads to the arrest and conviction of the guilty person. The AFRO has offered $500 and the Mitchell-Johnson Realty firm has put up $250.

Postal men will meet on Sunday

WASHINGTON

The Executive Board of District II, of the National Alliance of Postal Employees meet at the Gramercy Hotel Inn, on Sunday, Jan. 31 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Special invitations to attend this meeting have been sent to Senator Robert E. Kennedy of New York, Senator Joseph D. Tydings of Maryland, and Congressman John Conyers of Michigan.

On the Agenda will be final plans for the District II Convention, which is to be held at the Gramercy Hotel Inn, on June 12, 13, 1965

Also a good portion of the meeting will be devoted to the very small number of colored empoyees employed by the Washington Regional Office.

A MOST IMPORTANT function of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority is its work with young women. This group of bright-eyed teen-agers were guests of the sorors on Saturday. They are, left to right: Misses Marthann Warner, Deborah Robinson, Gayle Johnson, Vonzella Comegys, Juris Sembly and Brendenia Garrett.
