Shy Patterson awaiting 2-pike pitch in Garden

NEW y (UPI) — oyd Po has two ikes a him already. ining ge and he's t, and by you spell at is Ed-E-D.

The gri lipped ex- amp bother an- uncing P retirement ould heals one com- t up wiege Chuvalo nday fiXcept for immediately, no- dy realPare wheth- he eves again or t.

heavyw champion sius Cl be at the te t the color nmental patterson rather pa- tic figu le the fact t he ned more n $7 m d has held world eight title ce.

le said me ago he nned t ing at age 0's 30 now perst pedges on questi ether he'll g up his if Chuvalo ts him.

here's t cracker - rel sa t if three different parties tell you you're dead, lie down. Some of Floyd's best friends began hinting he had little fistic future after Sonny Liston put him away in one round in their first fight.

EVERYONE, naturally felt Patterson got the message after Liston performed an encore during their second fiasco, and even his best friends won't bother telling Patterson anymore in the event Chuvalo knocks him off.

Patterson pictures himself as a man with a purpose.

"I want to change the public's image of me," he says solemnly.

THE SAD truth of the matter is that Patterson is beating a dead horse. Once a guy gets a reputation, he's stuck with it the rest of his life, particularly in the sports world.

Fred Merkle was a stickout ballplayer in the majors for most of his 18 - year career but people always remember him for the boner that cost the Giants the pennant when he neglected to touch second base.

Similarly, Gene Tunney was one of the great heavyweights of his day but he's still best remembered for his "long - count" victory over Jack Dempsey at Chicago.

EVEN IF Patterson goes on to win the heavyweight crown a third time, and don't hold your breath waiting, he'll inevitably be remembered as the guy Liston flattened twice inside the time it takes for two three - minute eggs.

Nor can the public ever forget how, after that first loss to Liston, Patterson stuck an outlandish moustache and goatee on his face and sunk out of town in abject shame.

"I would retire right now," said Patterson last August, "were it not for the fact that I'm determined to change the image people have of me on account of those two knockouts by Liston. I'm going to do that no matter how long it takes."

POSSIBLY, but not probably, Patterson might manage to beat Clay if they ever met. Clay calls him "the rabbit" and although Patterson professes indifference, it burns him.

There is even less likelihood of Patterson ever meeting Liston again.

If, by some weird long - shot such a bout ever was foisted on the fight - going public again, the result would be no harder to predict than the outcome of a movie you've already seen twice before.

Liston will be able to beat Patterson even when both have grandchildren.

Arrest Vic Power for speeding

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — (UPI) — Los Angeles Angels infielder Vic Power was arrested early Wednesday and charged with speeding and driving after revocation of his driver's license.

Police said Power, 33, was driving 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile-an-hour zone when he was stopped after a four-block chase shortly after 12:30 a.m.

He was released after posting $200 bail. A city jailer said the ball was furnished by Tony Oliva, Minnesota Twins' outfielder and American League batting champion and Rookie of the Year.

Power, who was traded by the Twins to the Angels during the 1964 season, makes his home in suburban Edina.

BREAKS ALL MARKS — Bill McClellon, DeWitt High School high jump star of New York City, broke all national interscholastic records last Saturday, with a leap of 6 feet, 10¼ inches at St. Francis Prep Indoor Games at 102nd Engineers Armory. The new height topped his own national indoor schoolboy mark of 6 feet, 9½, and the scholastic outdoor record of 6 feet, 9¾ inches.

Concert to benefit CORE slated Sunday

The Etude Octette announced that J. Spencer Hammond, organist, will be featured in a benefit concert the Octette is giving for the benefit of the Congress of Racial Equality at the First Unitarian Church.

The concert, which is open to the public without charge, will begin at 4 p.m. this Sunday, Jan. 31.

Mrs. Adah Jenkins, program director of the Congress of Racial Equality and local music critic, said "the concert is being offered free of admission because this offers an excellent opportunity to treat the total community with one of the richest expressions of the colored community, in the Etude Octette."

Mrs. Jenkins said that this is our sophisticated effort to spark the free exchange of cultural events between the two communities in Maryland at all levels.

McCovey signs 1965 pact with Giants

SAN FRANCISCO, (UPI) — Willie McCovey has signed his contract for the 1965 baseball season, the San Francisco Giants reported this week.

McCovey, plagued by recurring injuries to his feet and legs in 1964, was reported to have taken a cut in pay from last year's contract. Amount of his contract was not disclosed.

In 130 games last season McCovey batted .220 and hit 18 home runs.

In the off-season, he has undergone treatment for his leg and foot injuries, the club said.

Time clock JC's Millrose classic

NEW YORK — The speed of colored college mile relay teams is working against the civil rights program.

Thursday night's main event at the Millrose games in Madison Square Garden turned out to be an all-colored affair. It was the mile relay, won by Southern University over Maryland State, Morgan and Texas Southern in that order.

UNDER QUICK glance, the all-tan field may have suggested that a jim-crow policy was in order, but this is not the case. The four quartets from predominantly - tan schools got bracketed together only because they are showing the best time for the mile relay in the nation as of this moment.

In other words, the Million Gone Games officials made up the main field with the four fastest teams available. It came up with the Southern University foursome of Webster Johnson, Grundy Harris, Robert Johnson and Theron Lewis covering the distance in 3:16.8, comfortably ahead of the Maryland State contingent.

ON THE individual front, Sam Perry of Forham, was the star of the affair. The sophomore flash turned a world record equalling time of 5.9 seconds in winning the 60-yard dash. It matched the clocking of the "world's fastest human," Bob Hayes, set in the Garden last year.

Perry led an all-colored finish that saw Ed Roberts of N.C. College, Mel Pender of the Army, and Paul Drayton following.

ALSO SHARING the limelight was Wyomia Tyus, the fleet Olympic 100-meter champion from Tennessee State University.

Miss Tyus captured the woman's 60, in 6.9 seconds, tying the meet mark set by the great Wilma Rudolph in 1961.

Last La, vote pleas heard

WASHINGTON — (UPI)— The Supreme Court Wednesday heard a final government plea that Louisiana registration laws, requiring oral essays on the constitution be struck down as a device to keep colored Americans from voting.

Louis F. Claiborne, assistant to the U. S. solicitor general, said that, even though another allegedly easier test has now been substituted, prospective registrants never know when the tougher essay requirement will be reimposed.

Under the earlier procedures, in some parishes, (counties) a colored person might be asked to read and interpret any section of either the state or U.S. Constitution as a qualification for voting. While applicants were said to be treated more favorably.

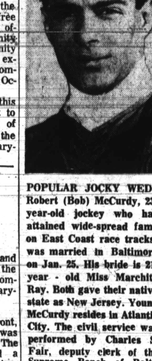
IN ARGUING for the state yesterday, Larry J. Kron Jr., assistant attorney general of Louisiana, did not defend the constitutionality of the "read and interpret" requirement. He said it is no longer a problem since it isn't being used.

But Claiborne said registrants should be assured that it never will be.

The Supreme Court took the case under advisement along with a similar challenge to Mississippi voting laws which was argued Tuesday. Opinions are expected sometime before the end of the term in June.



POPULAR JOCKY WEDS Robert (Bob) McCurdy, 23-year-old jockey who has attained wide-spread fame on East Coast race tracks, was married in Baltimore on Jan. 25. His bride is 21-year - old Miss Marchita Ray. Both gave their native state as New Jersey. Young McCurdy resides in Atlantic City. The civil service was performed by Charles S. Fair, deputy clerk of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore.

IN SHORE MEET — Arthur Ashe Jr., of Richmond, this week entered the National Indoor tennis championships scheduled for Salisbury, Md., Feb. 15-21. The young UCLA star, first colored member of U. S. Davis Cup squad, reached quarter-finals of event last year.
