They Peeped, Piped to a grand ole time

By Lula Jones Garrett

The Peepers and Pipers' formal party built up momentum Friday night from the moment the first guests arrived to sip a cocktail until the early morn when the last guests, having had their breakfast coffee, plus, departed . . . and in the interim the hostesses and guests had themselves a hi ole time!

They held forth in Forest Manor, had scores of long-term friends about, had the Rivers Chambers' Orchestra in the early evening for dancing, the Chambers Serenaders in the early morn for fun participation and breakfast music. Yeh, they really had a hi ole time!

What can one write about an evening of such soul satisfying fun, except that everyone had a hi ole time? One can talk about the elegantly gowned ladies . . . but wouldn't such high-style gals as the Peepers and Pipers be expected to have equally high-style guests . . . and they did, as for example the lovely Gloria Thompson of Frederick, Md. in a pale satin affair with a sequin blouse; and Mary Pitts in the best-looking cream wool, crystal sprinkled and featuring a blouson, low, square-cut back.

Or the lovely Mrs. Theodore Brown, whose pale blue two-piecer had an overblouse, intriguing by shaped at bottom, and paved with bugle beads, or Tomi White in a soft coral two piece gown, crystal sprinkled; and Helen Odom in white, an empire affair, the chiffon flowing in a panel at back; Mrs. William Burghardt in stark white and stunning . . . and Ronnie Carr, cute in soft blue topped with a gold evening coat . . . all in the new short length.

Mrs. Charles Covington wore blue lace, with satin bows and panel at back, and Mrs. William Russell in rose and pink brocade; Gaynelle Spaulding in chic black velvet; Mrs. Harvey Joyce in blue, and the hostesses, from Gertrude Urquhart in soft pink organza, bow spattered, Agnes Patterson in red lace and satin, to Olga Chambers in two-toned sequins in the blues.

The hostesses also included Elizabeth Brooks, Marguerite Ewing, Verna Gosnell, and Edna Stanford, who, with their husbands assisting, kept that party at a

THE ALPHA WIVES little party paid off in big dividends for the Provident Hospital Development Fund, Saturday night.

The feminine contingent of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity presented a check for $1007 to Earl L. Hagan, co-chairman for clubs and organizations of the hospital's fund raising drive. 'Twas the second check of more than a thousand dollars which Alpha Wives have given to the program.

The party in the Forest Manor was gay and informal, designed to honor their husbands . . . and did those guys take advantage of the occasion! They waited to have their coats checked (and paid for) . . . had the girls begging, borrowing, etc. to get the money to take care of the obligations! Each husband was given a boutonniere, and then the girls got another shock. They hadn't noticed that coats no longer have holes in the label, and there was a rush for pins.

But the dancing was on the level, with music by Zane Cypress and entertaining by Dot Kelly. And the dinner was delicious, so that the party went on and on and on . . . with such delightful interspersions as serenading Ruby Walker, who had a birthday.

Ruby Smith served as chairman of the affair, and other committee members included Ada Veney, Arnetta Hargrove, Catherine Adams, Susan King, Mildred Young and Barbara Bagwell. Audrey Davis is president of the local chapter of Alpha Wives.

Attending the party were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Walker, Pierre Davis, Chuey Hargrove, Glendi Johns, Paul Reese, Charles Anderson, Edward Young, Robert A. Smith, Joseph Press,

Messrs. and Mesdames Donald Bagwell, Frank Veney, Arthur Spencer, Cardrew Perrin, Charles Howard, Elton Higginbotham, Marlin Pinkett, Herman Signor, Drs. and Mesdames Maurice Adams, Allan B. Harris Nathan Pitts, Vernon Pennington, John W. King, Lionel Desbordes, Benjamin Kimbers, Welford Holmes, Louis B. Randall.

Auxiliary at Provident sets dates for tea

Edgar Allen, director of dietetics at Provident Hospital, met with the steering committee of the Womens' Auxiliary to formulate plans for the eighteenth annual Provident Hospital Tea.

The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Muriel Cousin, vice president and tea chairman.

Proceeds from the tea will be earmarked for the dietary department of the hospital, in order to purchase a new type of "Hot Pak - Food System," which will keep food either hot or cold - at serving temperature.

The tea, traditionally held on the last Sunday of April, will be held at the Douglass High School on Sunday, April 25. The tea will feature a fashion show by the Pinnie Ross Models, under the direction of Mrs. Willia Bland and special music by the Student Nurses' Chorus of the hospital.

Members of the steering committee include Mesdames Martha Holmes, president of the Womens' Auxiliary and ticket chairman, Floree Montgomery, tea co - chairman and Madie Mitchell, chairman of hostesses.

Henry Whyte, hospital administrator, will serve with Mrs. Virginia Brown, as program directors.

Mrs. Bland will handle publicity; Mrs. May Thomas will secure door prizes.

Mesdames Mary Moody and Geneva Hicks are the other members of the steering committee.

The committee next meets Thursday, Feb. 11 at 8 p.m. at the Hospital Annex.

THE FORMAL AFFAIR that pushed Provident Hospital nearer its goal witnessed such elegant couples as Mr. and Mrs. William Cohen(Vera Tilghman) of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, guests, and Mr. and Mrs. William F. Henderson of Baltimore.
