Pearl Bailey has heart condition, not in danger

HOLLYWOOD, (UPI) — Singer Pearl Bailey, under treatment for heart strain, was removed from the intensive care unit to the regular part of Mt. Sinai Hospital on Wednesday.

A hospital spokesman said the 46 - year - old nightclub singer and recording star was in no danger and her condition was good.

She was placed in the intensive care unit Monday night after returning from an extended engagement at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas, Nev.

The spokesman said the heart strain was caused by overwork.

MISS BAILEY stayed two extra nights at the Riviera because the succeeding performer, Debbie Reynolds, was ill. Miss Reynolds was stricken with a viral ailment.

"Pearly Mae" as Miss Bailey is known to her fans, will probably remain in the hospital for as long as two weeks, the spokesman said, and will continue to undergo various tests.

MISS BAILEY began her entertainment career at the age of 15 when she won an amateur contest.

She made her stage debut in "St. Louis Woman" in 1946 and rose to greater fame in movies and on television.

In 1947, she made her screen debut in "Variety Girl."

She is married to Louis Bellson Jr., a drummer in Duke Ellington's Band.

RECORD-BREAKING BEARS—Morgan State College's freshman mile relay team which last week set a new Millrose Games meet record at Madison Square Garden, New York. Left to right, they are Fred Hunter of Camden, N. J., Bill House of Boston, Raymond Pollard of Newport News, Va., and Maibert Brown of Baltimore. The fleet young four-some covered the distance in 3:24.3 clipping the old mark of 3:25.5, set by the Morgan frosh team of two years ago.

Hightower deal lifts Bullet hopes

Wayne Hightower, whom the Baltimore Bullets purchased from the San Francisco Warriors for an undisclosed amount of cash and a draft choice to be agreed upon at a later date, could be a key man in the Bullets stretch drive towards the Western Division championship.

Last season the 6-9, 200 - pound former Kansas University All - American was a starting forward on the San Francisco club which moved from fourth place to capture the Western Division crown. He will be in Bullet gear tomorrow (Saturday) night when the Los Angeles Lakers invade Civic Center.

A NATIVE Philadelphian, he played high school basketball with Wilt Chamberlain and the Bullets' Wally Jones. Wayne was the Warriors' third leading rebounder, grabbing off 247 rebounds.

Known as "Spain" to the players around the league, Hightower is a fine outside shooter and tough around the backboards. He was a leading rebounder last year, behind Chamberlain and Nate Thurmond.

WAYNE WAS the Warriors' first draft choice three years ago, after one of the most unusual careers in amateur basketball history. He had been a prep All - American selection at Overbrook High School before he followed Chamberlain to Kansas.

At the end of his junior year he left the Kansas campus to join the Spanish International team, and led his club to the European championship.

X-ray machine for J. C. Smith

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — A 250,000 X-ray therapy machine for teaching and research purposes will be installed his year at Johnson C. Smith University here, President R. P. Perry announced.

The X-ray unit, commercially valued at almost $15,000 is being provided through the special cooperation of the General Electric Co. under its Equipment Assistance Program for institutions of higher education.

This is part of a commitment on the part of G.E. to contribute $100,000 over a three - period to member colleges of the United Negro College Fund, Dr. Perry said.

'Hand injury made me win,' says Floyd

NEW YORK (UPI)—Floyd Patterson this week credited his spectacular victory over George Chuvalo to his own injured left hand while promoter Harry Markson opened negotiations for a return match at Madison Square Garden March 30.

Patterson, only heavyweight ever to earn the crown twice, said, "I had to change my style because of my left hand, while he was hammering out a unanimous 12 - round decision over Canadian champion Chuvalo.

Thirty-year-old Patterson disclosed that he had suffered a bone separation in his left fist last December while training in San Juan, Puerto Rico, for is fight there with Charley Powell. Despite the injury, Floyd knocked out Powell in the sixth round.

WHEN HE returned to his training camp at Marlboro, N.Y., and began preparations for the Chuvalo match, he said the hand injury began troubling im again and he had weekly treatments from Dr. Michael Blatt of New York.

Patterson said he didn't want to call off the fight or disclose the injury because he knew the public would not like "any more excuses from me."

ACCORDINGLY, the injury made him fight against Chuvalo "defensively for the first time in my 15-year career."

He explained, "If I had gone ahead against this strong, durable opponent, the result might have been different."

Patterson further disclosed his doctor was sitting below Floyd's ring corner in case the hand needed any treatment during the fight.

CLOSE ACTION, CLOSE FIGHT—Former champion Floyd Patterson crashes right to ear of Canadian contender George Chuvalo in 10th round of heavyweight elimination bout at Madison Square Garden. Capacity crowd saw Patterson gain unanimous decision in close fight and move step closer to another shot at title now held by Cassius Clay.

Big Cat Williams may box again says doctor

HOUSTON, (UPI)—Heavyweight boxer Cleveland (Big Cat) Williams, whose hopes for a championship attempt this year were dashed by a gunshot wound, has come along remarkably well in the past week, his doctor said Tuesday.

And he should be able to fight again.

Williams, the "Big Cat" who was to have vied for the vacant heavyweight crown, was critically wounded in a scuffle with a highway patrolman last Nov. 28.

The pistol shot tore through his lower abdomen, causing much damage to his bowel and hip.

Dr. Don Quast said one more operation will be done on Williams, probably in the next two weeks, to hook parts of his bowel together that were severed.

"That should be the last operation. After that, it will be weeks before he can get out of the hospital," Quast said.

"He has the desire and capability to fight again. I think he should be able to box again."

Quast said the hard-hitting fighter's strong physical conditioning is carrying him through the ordeal well. Williams has lost 25 pounds, however, and looks weak as he hobbles about on crutches.

Willie Mays opens agency in insurance

LOS ANGELES, (UPI)—Willie Mays took a step Tuesday to insure an income when his baseball playing days are over by forming a corporation with an insurance company.

Announcement of the formation of Willie Mays Agency, Inc., was made at the headquarters here of the Pennsylvania Life Insurance Co. The agency will be based in San Francisco with branch offices in Los Angeles and Chicago.

JOE D. BAIN, president of Pennsylvania Life, explained that the average professional player does not make a fabulous salary and that his career usually ends when he reaches the age of 50.

He said his company through the new organization could expand its sales force and at the same time provide a financial reward ing second career to players.

MAYS in the San Francisco Giants' organization since 1950, said a select group of pros would be brought into the company from the ranks of baseball, football, hockey and basketball.

"We will be talking with fellows who are representative of their profession and respected in their home towns," Mays said.

Henry Armstrong injured in crash

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Henry Armstrong, known as "Hammerin' Hen ry" when he held three world boxing titles in the 1930s, sustained minor injuries Tuesday in a four - car traffic accident at a fog - bound intersection.

The 53 - year - old former boxer was driving in suburban Pacoima when he rammed into a car that had stopped for a signal, police said. Visibility was less than 50 feet.

Other vehicles became ensnarled in the chain - reaction crash although their drivers were not injured.

Armstrong was treated at for minor cuts and bruises Pacoima Lutheran Hospital and released.

During his ring career Armstrong once held titles in the featherweight, lightweight and welterweight divisions simultaneously.

IN "TWO BY FIVE"

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. —Kaleidoscope Players, a small company which gets big results by placing emphasis on the spoken word rather than stage sets, will present two of Edmond Rostand's best-known plays performed by five actors on the Knoxville College Lyceum Series Feb. 8, at 8:15 p.m., in Giffen-Alumni Auditorium on campus.

Wheel operator gets appeal stay

CHICAGO (NPI) — The U.S. Court of Appeals has granted Fred T. Mackey, convicted reputed Gary policy wheel operator, an extension until March, on his appeal from a five - year sentence for failure to pay more than $730,000 in income taxes on undeclared income of more than $1 million between 1956 and 1960.

The Miller Brewing Company of Milwaukee takes great pleasure in announcing its
110th ANNIVERSARY IN AMERICA
In 1855 Miller High Life was first brewed in America. Today, this beer is enjoyed in all 50 states and in over 50 foreign countries.
As always, Miller High Life is brewed in the great tradition, only in Milwaukee, and its famous quality . . . unequaled, unquestioned, unchanging . . . has become a living heritage for 110 years.
