'Favorite Teacher' votes pick up steam; totals up

Voting picked up steam among junior high school students in the AFRO's "My Favorite Teacher" contest this week.

Heading the list of junior high nominations was Miss Bernita Chisholm of Gwynns Falls Park, who rolled up a booming 1,300 votes.

Mrs. Pauline Wilson of Baer Junior High and Miss J. Thomas of Hampstead Hill Junior High each added 400 votes to bring their totals to 700.

* * *

OTHER JUNIOR High teachers nominated this week were: Mrs. Frances Lucas of Booker T. Washington, Mr. William M. Birche of Robert E. Lee, Mrs. Doretha Carr of Lombard, Mr. Alonzo Kelly of Harvey Johnson and Mrs. Mildred Forehand of Harlem Park.

Worth mentioning is the fact that the first nominee from Douglass High School, Miss Isabelle Waters, was received this week.

Leading the pack in the voting from all schools is Mrs. Hazel Bryant of James Mosher Elementary School with a whopping total of 2,400.

Which goes to show that the elementary youngsters are taking their reading and writing classes seriously, having obviously found out about the contest by reading the AFRO and then writing to nominate their favorite teacher.
