113th birthday for La. woman

MONROE, La. — (NPI)— Living 40 years beyond the alloted three - scores - and - ten, Ida Goins recently celebrated her 113th birthday at a party attended by relatives and friends.

Born in 1852 on a plantation in Morehouse Parish (county), Mrs. Goins has lived here for the past 50 years.

$5 million loan to Ivory Coast

WASHINGTON (NNPA)— A $5 million loan to the Ivory Coast Development Bank by the U.S. Agency for International Development will spur industrial progress in the Ivory Coast Republic.

In announcing the agreement last Thursday, AID said the loan will provide financing for goods and services supplied by United States firms, and up to $500,000 worth of local cost financing for sub-loans that the bank proposes to make.

Bill to ask new voting measures

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Jacob H. Gilbert, D-N.Y., said Sunday he will introduce in Congress a voter registration bill which would permit courts to be bypassed in disputed registration cases.

His bill would prevent delaying tactics by state registrars, Gilbert said, by creating a Federal commission which could appoint its own racial discrimination was found.

Gilbert said in a statement he prepared the bill in conjunction with the legal staff of the Rev. Martin Luther King, who was jailed recently in a voter registration drive in Selma, Ala.

S.C. vote registration project presses campaign

CHARLESTON, S.C. —The Second Congressional District organization of the South Carolina Voter Education Project this week declared its intention to increase efforts to raise the low percentage of registered voters.

The Rev. I. DeQuincey Newman, chairman, Second Congressional District, and Richard Miles, State field director, emphasized in a news release, the support of the constitutional principle of one vote for every man.

They urged the South Carolina Legislature to redistrict the congressional districts of the State to reflect the current population makeup.

• • •

THE VEP officials stressed that the organization is nonpartisan and does not recommend candidates for either party, Republican or Democrat, but pointed out that the colored population of the Second District is 47 per cent of the total.

On this basis, the VEP urged both parties to "lay aside the racial issues which divide the people of South Carolina and to nominate candidates who will run on legitimate political issues of importance to all people."
