Korean servicemen due certificates

A Certificate of Appreciation honoring Maryland servicemen who were on active duty during the Korean Emergency has been authorized by the Legislature.

The certificates are now being distributed by Governor Tawes through the Military Department of the State of Maryland.

All veterans who served honorably in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States between June 25, 1950 and July 27, 1953 are eligible to receive a certificate. Overseas service is not required for the award.

Woman assaulted on Lanvale St.

A 23-year-old woman reported to Western District police that she was criminally assaulted Sunday night in an apartment house in the 1000 block W. Lanvale St.

The woman, according to police, was found lying on the floor in a second floor bedroom with head and hip injuries.

Accused in the case is James Gaylord Jr., of the W. Lanvale St., address. A preliminary hearing has been set for March 6.

The youth is represented by Harry A. Cole, attorney.

The victim was taken to Provident Hospital where she was admitted in fair condition.

She was later released after being treated for a fractured right arm and lacerations of the head and lower parts of her body.

Police said they had been unable to question the woman at the time and did not learn of the rape until Monday.

* * *

WHILE AT the apartment waiting for the arrival of an ambulance, police stated a 20-year-old man walked into the apartment, and the woman cried, "That's the man who beat me up."

They said he had cuts on the back of his head and neck and scratches on his face.

The young man was arrested and taken to Franklin Square Hospital for treatment. Upon being released he was booked at Western Police Station on two counts of assault by cutting with a bottle.

Police later charged the youth with criminal assault.

The statuesque 43-year-old mother and lawyer, a newcomer to politics, took the oath of office at City Hall before Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

She was elected Tuesday at a special session of Manhattan's eight councilmen.

THE $35,000-A-YEAR position is another "first" for Mrs. Motley, who entered politics 13 months ago.

A year ago she became the first colored woman state senator. With the new office she becomes the first woman Borough President in the city's 300-year history. She also becomes the first woman to serve on the Board of Estimate.

A former lawyer for the NAACP, Mrs. Motley takes office in the midst of a tumult in the Borough sparked dent Black Muslim leader, Malcolm X.

UPON HEARING the news of her election Tuesday in her Albany office, Mrs. Motley, joined by her husband, real estate man Joel Motley and their 12-year-old son, Joel Jr., said she was "very pleased" with the outcome.

Her victory in the vote by Manhattan's eight members of the City Council had May or Wagner's backing and blessing.

NE couple robbed by fake salesmen

Two men and a woman posing as home improvement representatives robbed a northeast couple of $375 in cash and $600 in valuables in their home Tuesday.

The three robbers knocked at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Hope Kelsic of 832 21st St., and asked for Mrs. Kelsic who had answered the door.

The bandits stated that they were taking photographs of homes in the neighborhood and were invited in. Inside the house the two men drew guns on the Kelsics placed a blanket over the head of Mr. Kelsic and tied him to the stair railing.

They forced Mrs. Kelsic to give them $500 in bills from an envelope in a dresser, $60 in bills from a chest, and $15 from her wallet.

The bandits then took Mr. Kelsic's watch and ring. Mrs Kelsic's wedding band set and engagement ring, a fully loaded .38 caliber revolver and tied Mrs. Kelsic to her refrigerator before fleeing. Several minutes after the bandits left the Kelsics were able to free themselves and notify police.

The bandits were described as: (1) 27 years old, 5 feet 11, medium build and wearing a dark business suit; (2) 27 years old, 5 feet 9, medium build, wearing dark-rimmed glasses, a dark business suit, and a maroon scarf; (3) female, 21 years old, 5 feet 5, with brown hair.

The Kelsics were not harmed, police repoted.

Wife's cross-bill wins her divorce

Samuel Nelson of 920 S. Ridgley St. lost his bid for a divorce and a decree went to his wife, Mrs. Earlene Nelson, on a cross-bill.

The husband had filed, charging that Mrs. Nelson, of 770 W. Saratoga St., had deserted him. He asked that custody of three of their children be given to him. The fourth child, a son, is an adult and self supporting.

Mrs. Nelson did not ask for custody of the children, allowing them to go to the father, whose mother cares for the girls. The daughters range in age from three to 11 years.

The couple was married on Oct. 20, 1945 and lived together until Dec. 4, 1962. She is a domestic worker and he a career army man.
