Miss Carter, Sharon member, auto victim

Miss Emily F. L. Carter, 76, 550 W. Lanvale St., died early Thursday at Provident Hospital of injuries suffered in a Sunday morning auto accident.

She was a veteran member of Sharon Baptist Church, where for over 50 years she held a Sunday School teachers' training class.

Miss Carter was en route home from church when the car in which she was riding collided with another at Druid Hill Ave. and Mc-Mechen St.

DRIVER of the car was her brother, Howard Carter, retired school teacher of 2040 N. Bentalou St.

He told the AFRO his sister suffered what was thought to be just 'a bump on the head,' and she was treated at two hospitals and released.

she was later admitted to Provident, where she died.

Another passenger in the car, Mrs. Dancy Billups, McCulloh Homes, was treated at Bon Secours Hospital for minor injuries.

ON DECEMBER 15, 1964, Miss Carter retired as seamstress at Provident Hospital, a job she had held since March 5, 1943.

Prior to that as he was employed at the Mutual Benefit society for 24 years (1919-1943.)

Her brother is her sole survivor. The Herbert Nutter Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.—B.M.M.

The car you see on this page is the proud recipient of the hardest won award in the automobile business.

Receives Car Life honor.

Car Life Magazine is very particular about its Annual Award for Engineering Excellence. So much so, in fact, that last year they didn't give it at all.

In selecting Mercury for 1965, the magazine stated, "The 1965 Mercury shows a quality of concept, design and engineering far above the ordinary."

Car Life goes on to describe "the comfort and the quiet" of Mercury. Then the "briskness, the massive handsomeness, and the good road manner."

Car Life isn't the only authority in the automobile field that's been praiseful of the 1965 Mercury.

Wide press acclaim.

The New York Times called Mercury "the surprise hit of 1965 in the medium-price field." Automotive News says it's "probably the most changed car in years." Life Magazine, the Miami News, the Pittsburgh Post Gazette have noted these sentiments.

But what counts most, really, is customers — people who come in and say, "I like" — and then buy.

Right now, the 1965 Mercury is getting the greatest customer acceptance in its history.

Production up 83%.

To assure meeting the increased demand, production schedules for Mercury have been increased 83%.

Credit for all this, of course, goes to the car itself. An entirely new kind of Mercury — built in the Lincoln Continental tradition. Beautifully proportioned. Solid, substantial and quiet. And with a long list of luxury features and options once reserved only for the most-expensive cars. No medium-priced car has ever come so close in luxury to the high-price class.

Come see what all the talk is about. Drive the new Mercury — in the Lincoln Continental tradition — today.

Mercury year's most successful car, awarded year's top honor

MURPHY, DANIEL H.—In loving memory of our father Daniel H. Murphy, who departed this life February 28, 1952.
Moon and stars are shining
Upon a lonely grave.
There sleeps our dear father
We miss so hard to save.
We often sit and think of him
And speak of how he died.
To think he could not say good-bye
Before he closed his eyes.
For all of us, he did his best;
May God grant him Eternal rest.
Sadly missed by his children,
MRS. CLEMENTINE E. KNOX
JOHN H. MURPHY, III
MRS. JEANNE M. QUEENE

Birthday Tributes

ARMSTEAD — A birthday tribute to our loved one, JAMES LEWIS, on his birthday, March 3rd and who passed June 16, 1962.
If I could have my fondest wish,
The most-wonder in the world to be,
I'd wrap it up in loving words
And send it on its way.
Then I would pray a birthday morn
Will dawn
Where loved ones meet and joy.
Please God let me have my loved one back.
Because I miss him so.
MOTHER, WIFE
AND CHILDREN

SEAY — A NATIVITY tribute to my wife, NANNIE SEAY, whose birthday was March 4 and who passed away April 3, 1960.
When one your care for has died,
And you all alone and broken-hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind.
O true companionship, I know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory outlasts everything.
The grave its victory — death its sting.
I who loved you, sadly miss you;
I will hold you very dear.
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with me every day.
Loving Husband, BAXTER
