Miss Anita Williams is home from Eternal City

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

Miss Anita Williams returned to Baltimore from Rome Tuesday with many exciting stories to tell about the elevation of the new Catholic Cardinals.

Highlighting her moving spiritual experiences in the Eternal City are her accounts of the crowning of Baltimore's own Catholic leader, His Eminence Lawrence Joseph Cardinal Shehan, as a Prince of the Church.

Miss Williams was called to Rome to attend the ancient religious rites through transoceanic telephone call from the new Cardinal the last week in February.

She arrived there on her 74th birthday, Feb. 22, as official representative of the U. S. Catholics of her race.

• • •

FOR 40 YEARS, Miss Williams was associated with the former Archbishop of the Baltimore Archdiocese. In 1958 she received the Papal Cross to become "Lady Williams," a member of the Papal household and entitled to a special place at all Vatican ceremonies in Rome.

From her place of honor at all the elevation ceremonies, Miss Williams witnessed Cardinal Shehan, the only American to receive the Red Beretta, as "The happiest man alive."

"He was the symbol of all the Catholics in the United States," she said, following her 7 - hour non - stop jet flight to Friendship Airport.

Cardinal Shehan, she said, will return to Baltimore next week.

• • •

WRAPPING THE occasion up as one that "brought the whole world together," Miss Williams related the presence of the African prelates and representatives as the most significant event of modern times.

His Eminence, Paul Cardinal Zoungrana of Ouagadougou, Upper Volta, was the African who received the Red Hat along with the other 26 newly created Cardinals.

The huge delegation of high African churchman who sat in a brilliant colorful array at the left of Pope Paul VI, was escorted to St. Peter's Basilica by the Papal Guards, she said, adding, "It was a sight no one will ever forget. They were so dignified, so tall and so wonderful"

• • •

IN THE RAIN and chill of the early Roman spring,Miss Williams attended the Baltimore delegation's private audience with the Pope at 1 p.m. last Friday.

She states: "Pope Paul VI referred to Cardinal Shehan as 'My Son' and as he covered the history of the Baltimore Archdiocese, the honor he gave us and our city brought tears to my eyes."

Miss Williams met Cardinal Shehan at the Sacred American College of Cardinals just prior to the auspicious public elevation ceremonies on Feb. 28. There she noted that he proudly walked behind the new African Cardinal as the procession formed to go to St. Paul's Basilica.

She was also a guest of honor at the banquet Cardinal Shehan held at the Grand Hotel for the Baltimore delegation.

All Protestant churches were represented by the American Council of Churches, she said. On Thursday, she attended Ambassador Rinehart's reception for Cardinal Shehan at the American Embassy in Rome.

MISS WILLIAMS dined as a guest "on Rome's highest hill" with these members of the Baltimore delegation:

Herbert R. O'Connor Jr., official representative of Gov. J. Millard Tawes; the president of the Baltimore Federal Bank; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Irr; Monsignor David I. Dorsch, head of Catholic Charities; Father Joseph Connally; the Rev. Joseph Gallagher, editor of the Catholic Review, his brother and sister - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis X. Gallagher and others.

Country boys eye city title

Two rural grapplers with big-city aspirations, Haystacks Calhoun and Don McClarity, will attempt to lift the U.S. tag team title from Waldo Von Erich and Gorilla Monsoon, March 10 at the Civic Center.

Von Erich and Monsoon, who recently took the title from the Graham Brothers, have adopted a haughty manner of their predecessors, calling Calhoun and McClarity "country cousins."

Far from pushovers, Calhoun and McClarity outweigh the rival duo by 200 pounds. They have a combined tonnage of 900 pounds.

Furthermore, the country-boys have also beaten the Graham Brothers. They took the former champs in two straight falls February 10 at the Civic Center.

A GOOD citizen is registered and Votes. Do so TODAY at Supervisors of Elections, Fayette and Gay Sts.

Poets take opener of MSA playoff; both eye 2nd tilt

By SAM LACY

Coach Sugar Cain's Dunbar High School quint took the first leg on their second consecutive Maryland Scholastic Association basketball championship Thursday night, with a 50-44 victory over Sodie White's Carver High five at Civic Center.

A crowd of some 5,000 shouting spectators saw the classy Poets pull away in the final quarter to rid themselves of a harassing cub aggregation that twice fought back from sizeable deficits.

• • •

THE WIN marked the start of what could be the acquisition of Dunbar's fifth city title in eight years.

Afterward, both coaches told the AFRO they were looking forward to the second game of the best-of-three series, scheduled for Monday night.

• • •

"IT SHOULDN'T be as hard for the next one," declared Cain. "This isn't to say that we'll have an easier time with Carver. We expect them to be on edge to get even, and it can mean trouble.

"What I'm trying to get across is that we'll know better what to look for Monday night. They've improved since we played them early in the year, and nnow we're in a better position to set our patterns."

• • •

WHITE TOOK the opposite approach.

"I don't see how we can make any major changes or adjustments at this late stage.

"Our aim will be to stick to what we do best and work at it. I don't plan to do any coaching this weekend.

• • •

"IF WE can get rid of the mistake that plagued us in this one, and make some of the shots we missed, I'll be satisfied." White continuued.

"These kids don't quit, so the series isn't over yet. You can be sure of that."

AS FOR the opener, the Poets leaped into an early lead and seemed destined to pull out of reach before the Cubs could get started.

Quick baskets by Dickie Kelly, Alex Bennett and Alton Ervin shot Dunbar into a 7-0 advantage in the first 2 minutes.

• • • •

BOB GRAVES put Carver on the scoreboard, but Kelly and Jimmy Files ran it to a lead of 11-2, Dunbar.

Carver got a basket from Bernard White, another by Graves and one by Reggie Bolling to close to 15-12. Then Bolling stole the ball and hit to bring the Cubs within a point at 15-14.

• • •

FILES AND Cyde Parker traded baskets and then Ron Epps tallied a follow up to knot the count at 18-all. He was foul as he sank the basket but missed the free throw that would have put his club in front for the first time in the eveninng.

With only 1:10 showing before intermission, the Poets got two cagers by Files and a free throw, plus a 2-counter by Nat England for 7 straight points and a 25-18 halftime bulge.

• • •

HAVING come from a 9-point disadvantage in the opening stages, Carver again rallied as the second half got under way.

After Ervin put Dunbar ahead 26-18, with a foul shot, the White forces drove to within 2 points, at 32-30, on a pair of sinkers by Tyrone Gray, one by Bolling and another by Graves.

• • •

HOWEVER, England racked up two field goals for the Poets, then Bennett hit and Ervin added one.

• • •

AT THE point where Dunbar was enjoying a 46-37 margin, they appeared to get careless.

CARVER netted a pair of quick baskets on steals and Cain ordered a time out to jack up the irresponsible play.

Settled down once again, the Poets went on to increase the margin to one of safety.

In the second game between the Junior Lakers and the Junior Warriors, the Warriors won by a score of 30 to 19. Allen Meacham scored 12 points for the Warriors and Michael Forte scored eight points for the Lakers.

Baltimore Tennis Club opens youth fund drive

The Baltimore Tennis Club has begun a vigorous drive to acquire funds for its extensive junior development activities.

One of the key events in the club's drive for funds will be a cocktail party and dance Sunday evening (5 p. m. - p.m.) at the 22 East Cocktail Lounge, 22 E. Centre Street.

Since the BTC is strongly committed to the development of future tennis stars in the Baltimore area, junior development activities represent the club's biggest expenditure every year.

Last year, for example, the club subsidized the expenses of four promising young players to the American Tennis Association's national championships in North Carolina.

This year's plans call for the sponsorship of other talented young tennis players to the ATA nationals and possibly other ATA tournaments in Washington and Philadelphia.

In addition, the Baltimore Tennis Club offers free tennis lessons regularly in Druid Hill Park to youngsters and oldsters alike once they establish memberships in the club.

Charles Carroll and Irvington (Rip) Williams are the tennis instructors.
