TO LECTURE IN AFRICA James Lewis, head of the Morgan State College art department, leaves for Africa next Friday, March 19, on a lecture tour sponsored by the American Society of African Culture.

Morgan adds institute on reading

Two new summer institutes, one for elementary school teachers in urban areas and another for secondary school teachers in reading, will be held at Morgan State College in addition to the five institutes already announced.

Grants to institutes at Morgan now total $312,822.

The six - week summer Reading Institute, Dr. Maurice A. Lee, director, will be held from June 21 to Aug. 2.

A $42,000 grant from the United States Office of Education under the National Defense Education Act will allow stipends of $75 per week plus $15 per week for each dependent.

The institute is designed for junior and senior high school teachers who are presently engaged or about to be engaged in teaching reading but have little or no professional preparation in the reading field.

PARTICIPANTS in both institutes may earn six hours of graduate credit.

The six - week program of advanced study, June 21-July 30 ,for elementary teachers from grades 1-6 offers intensive study of socio-psychological factors. Dr. Regina M. Goff is director.

Stipends are $75 per week plus $15 for dependents under a $31,019 grant from the U.S. Office of Education under the National Defense Education Act.

Mosley to administer estate of Mrs. Jones

James Mosley of 3603 Callaway Ave., has been named to administer the estate of Mrs. Ethel Mae Jones, who died on Sept. 21, 1964.

Mrs. Jones' estate consists of her home at 1911 W. Franklin St., estimated to be worth $4500.

The deceased left a will in which she bequeathed the estate remaining after debts and expenses to two nieces, Mesdames Gladys M. Mosley of 1911 W. Franklin St. and Helen Gaines of pleasantville, N.J.

MRS. LUCY BANKS of 1312 Linden Ave. will receive $300 from the estate of William H. Preston, white, of 801 Park Ave., who died Feb. 15.

Mrs. Banks once served as a maid in the Park Ave. home. Other beneficiaries under Mr. Preston's will were institutions, including the Children's Hospital and Kernan Hospital, each receiving $5,000; Little Sisters of the Poor, $10,000; and the Home for the Aged of the Methodist Church, the residue of the estate.

Area Links elect Mrs. Hiram Butler

By Lula Jones Garrett

As traditional with Baltimore women, another took an important office in a national organization, last week, as Mrs. J. Hiram Butler was elected director of the Eastern Area Conference of Links. She succeeds Mrs. Bessie N. Hill of Newark, N.J.

The Eastern Area includes chapters in Albany, Annapolis, Atlantic City, Baltimore, Boston, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Central Jersey, Connecticut Valley, Danville, Delaware Valley, New York City, Hampton, Long Island, Lynchburg, Newport News, Niagara Falls, Norfolk, North Jersey, Petersburg, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Portsmouth, Richmond, Roanoke, South Jersey, Syracuse, Washington, Westchester and Wilmington.

On Friday and Saturday the Petersburg chapter hosted the annual area conference in colonial Williamsburg. They sparked the days with an elegant luncheon, a banquet that was super, and a dance for the edification of Connecting Links and friends.

The conference will be in Syracuse, N.Y., next year; in Niagara Falls in 1967 and in Annapolis in 1968.

Mrs. Helen Burwell was delegate from the Baltimore chapter, and other Baltimoreans on the scene were Mesdames W. Leroy Berry, Lester Norris, P. D. G. Pennington; and Mr. Butler. Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Cardrew Perrin and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones.
