Lutherans set rights seminar

The Baltimore Chapter of the Lutheran Human Relations Association is sponsoring a Human Relations Seminar on Sunday, March 14, from 3 to 8 p.m.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Lee Drive and Old Frederick Road, Catonsville, will host the meeting.

The theme of the conference is "Let the Church be the Church," and its purpose is to mobilize Christian people for the cause of better understanding, and cooperation between people of all cultures and backgrounds.

Main speaker of the afternoon is the Rev. Dr. David S. Schuller, director of Urban Seminars for the National Council of Churches and professor at Concordia Seminary St. Louis, Mo.

Richard K. Fox, special assistant to the deputy undersecretary for administration, U. S. Department of State, will be the after dinner speaker.

Sharp St. Clean-Up Conference

Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church is holding a conference Sunday at 5 p.m. to deal with the problem of beautifying inner city areas.

Sponsors are members of the Commission of Christian Social Concern who have initiated a "Year Round Litter and Trash Clean - Up Campaign.

The panel of interested citizens who will present pertinent questions is led by Mrs. Jeanette Leath, director of the AFRO's Clean Block Campaign.

Monsignor Griffith led in integration

The Rt. Rev. John C. Griffith, who was buried on Thursday, was the kind of churchman who practiced the Christianity he preached.

"His death is a great loss to colored people, to the city and to the Diocese . ."

Frank Sewell, a third generation Catholic lay leader, recalled for the AFRO that it was Monsignor Griffith who led in integration of the Holy Name Society.

MONSIGNOR GRIFFITH was archdiocesan director of the Society and pastor of St. Ambrose Catholic Church in the 4400 block Park Heights Ave., at the time of his death on Sunday. He was 54 years old.

He was also director of the archdiocesan Council of Catholic Men.

BECAUSE of Monsignor Griffith's leadership, Mr. Sewell recalled that in 1952 he and Toledo Moseley and Bowie State's Dr. Wilson were elected officers of the Holy Name Society.

"There was a good bit of criticism, this was back in 1952 remember, but he insisted that we have an opportunity to serve, we had been attending for 35 years.

"In fact, Monsignor Griffith saw that no meeting was arranged which did not invite us to participate."

Mr. Sewell also remembered that Monsignor Griffith integrated the school in his parish without fanfare.

"A father came to the school and asked could his child enroll. Father Griffith asked him, 'can the child walk?'

"When the father said, 'yes,' he said, well bring him in."

middle of Edmondson Ave.

According to his statement, he admonished the youths to "step off the island —you'll get hurt," to which the retort was "Go to H——!"

Following this, the officer told of pulling his car over, getting out and approaching the two youths on foot.

"Hightower dropped a straight razor on to the ground and I placed him under arrest, put him in the car and called for the wagon," the officer reported.

The Southwestern District patrolman said that Mackel began to agitate and interfere with his prisoner. Warning him to go away or be subjected to arrest, Mackel is said to have replied, "No police is going to arrest me."

"I arrested him and he turned around and hit me with his fist," said Oneto.

POLICE WERE reluctant to give the AFRO an account of the events and Officer Oneto's written report was withheld from a reporter who spent more than three hours in an attempt to gain information concerning the case late Monday night. An interview with Oneto was denied and the information from him was relayed through his superior officer.

THE AFRO reporter, at first told to wait because Officer Oneto was busy making out his report, was told three hours later that he had left the station.

Some fifteen minutes after, Lt. McCarran, when asked questions about the incident said, "Wait a minute, I'll go back and ask the officer (Oneto)."

When again asked to see the officer personally, the Reply was that he was busy signing the reports. A number of school students, some of the girls in tears, witnessed the AFRO about the incident.

In Memoriams

BANKS — In loving memory of my mother, ELIZA JONES, who passed away March 13, 1962.
A wonderful other, woman and aid.
One who was better God never made.
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true.
One in a million — that mother, you.
Just in your judgment, always upright.
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you know.
Wonderful mother — that, mother, was you.
LOVING SON.

BARTON — In loving memory of my mother, MARY M. ... who passed away Mar. ... 1964.
God made lots of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and stars and light and loyal friends.
And, after he made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and kind than all.
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare,
A mother as dear as you.
DAUGHTER and GRANDCHILDREN.

BOST — In memory of our loved one, ALBERT, who passed away March 9, 1963:
If we had seen you in the last and held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your heart,
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had,
We did not see you die,
We only know you went far away,
And never said good-bye.
THE FAMILY

BRADSHAW — In loving memory of my beloved daughter, grandaughter, sister and aunt, BESSIE M., who passed away March 16, 1956:
If I had all the world to give,
I'd give it yes and more,
To hear your voice and see her smile,
And greet her at my door.
But I can't do dear daughter,
Is go and tend your grave,
And leave behind tokens of love,
To the best daughter God ever made.
I'd like to think when life is done
Wherever Heaven may be,
That she'll be standing at the door
Up there to welcome me.
LOVING MOTHER, GRANDMOTHER, SISTER, BROTHERS AND NEPHEWS.

BRADSHAW — In loving memory of my beloved wife, BESSIE M. who passed, March 16, 1956:
I seem to sep in the soft, dim light,
A face I love the best.
And think of her when the sun's last ray,
Goes down in the far-off West.
I miss you so like as the time passes on.
Than I did on the day of your going.
For absence can never close the door of my heart,
And the lamp of my love is still burning
Your heart was the truest in all the world.
The sweetest I ever had to recall,
For no one on earth can take your place,
You are still the dearest of all.
LOVING HUSBAND

BROWN — In memory of my mother, ... BROWN, who passed away, Mar. 16, 1964.

Our hearts shall be true.
DAUGHTERS CATHERINE.

CHAMBERS — In memory of my husband and our father, ... who passed away March 8, 1962:
When the evening shades are falling,
And we're sitting all alone,
In our hearts there comes a longing,
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft our thoughts do wander,
To your grave so far away,
Where we laid you, dearest loved one,
Three years ago today.
LOVING WIFE - CARRIE
CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

Loving the good and happy things,
Trusting in God always.
