Dearborn mayor trial date set

DETROIT — Dearborn Mayor Orville L. Hubbard and the suburb's two top police officials will be tried on federal civil rights charges June 1 federal judge Wade H. McCree Jr. ruled last week.

—Both sides agreed to combine two sets of charges against Hubbard, Public Safety Director George Lewis and Police Chief Garrison Clayton, and to try them as one case.

All charges stem from a 1963 incident in which a mob stoned the house of a man believed to have rented an upstairs flat to a colored American. It was charged that police stood by and watched as the man's house and car were damaged by the mob.

2 more vote suits filed in Miss.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department filed two more suits Thursday to halt alleged discrimination against voter applicants in Mississippi.

The new complaints involved Rankin and Sharkey counties. They were brought in U. S. District Court at Jackson, Miss.

The new suits charged that registration officials in the two counties, using literacy and understanding tests, disqualified colored applicants for "inconsequential errors."

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — Poet Vallière was presented in recital last Sunday at the Mt. Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, with Lessie Williams, Geraldine Jones, Prof. Peaman Lovingood, Mezie Williams and Hazel Marie Green as guest artists. Atlanta paper lauded on race

LONDON (UPI) — The London Times said Wednesday the Atlanta Constitution can claim "primary responsibility for the modernity and relative liberalism of Atlanta.

The London newspaper, which is running a series on the "newspapers of the World," cited the Constitution for its "editorial courage" and its publisher, Ralph McGill, for using and encouraging others to use its columns to preach "agricultural reform, industrial expansion and racial equality."

WASHINGTON — Virginia Union University, Richmond, has been authorized a $450,000 loan by the Community Facilities Administration of the Housing and Home Finance Agency for the construction of new student housing for 202 women, 210 men and four counselors, and dining facilities for 600.

Mich. Dems tap King for award

YPSILANTI, Mich. — Dr. Martin Luther King was awarded the second annual John F. Kennedy Award last week by the Young Democratic Clubs of Michigan at their state central committee meeting here.

The award is given to the person who has "fought most courageously to preserve American and democratic ideals," according to Jordan Rossen, the organization's president. Last year it went to President Johnson.

The presentation will be made to Dr. King or his representative at a dinner May 8 at the Lansing Civic Center.
