Mrs. Hilda Parker, Joseph Brown wed

By Lula Jones Garrett

MR. AND MRS. EUGENE OGLESBY of Baltimore announce the engagement of their daughter, Jo Ann, to Melvin A. Callaman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Callaman, also of Baltimore. A July wedding is planned.

Honeymooning in New York, this week, are the former Hilda B. Parker (she's vice principal of Houston Junior High School) and Joseph W. Brown. They were married in a quiet ceremony, witnessed by relatives and a few close friends on Saturday. The bridegroom is a postal clerk.

Sandra Jean Oliver and Virgil Sidney Perisee will be married in Grace Presbyterian Church on the 24th. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Otis Oliver. The reception will be in the Me-De-So Club.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. C. Hughes, Jr., will receive in honor of their daughter, Faulkner Mary, and her husband, Arthur Owend Walter, Jr. on the 25th. Miss Hughes and Mr. Waller were married on January 15th.

The reception will be in the Morgan Christian Center.

I'M I-I-V-I-n-g, these days . . . but merely by proxy.

The most interesting letters are coming from far-flung places from friends who are doing exciting things.

The E. Everett Lanes posted a note from Turkey. They were in Istanbul on the 2nd., having come from Athens. Says they found the Greeks charming, robust and the food excellent . . . with coffee "strong enough to power a motor."

They cruised islands in the Aegean Seas, including Santorini, which has its town perched atop a mountain. The only way, says Kitty, to get to the town was by burro, and since she has no affinity for donkeys, she stayed below while Everett made the trek.

But then Everett hadn't wanted to climb to the top of the Acropolis, but Kitty, declaring that she had come 4000 miles to see the Parthenon, had insisted. She says the sheer beauty was a moving experience.

Alabama, she says, continues to make head lines throughout the world. Vivid pictures, says she, crowd the front pages of foreign press. These they saw in both Athens and Istanbul, Turkey, from where her letter was posted.

Istanbul, which they term an exotic place, fascinated Kitty. Their hotel room faced the Golden Horn, with gleaming mosques in the background. They visited several of the 100 mosques there including the Blue Mosque. They crossed the Bosphorus and entered Asiatic Turkey.

The most astounding sight say they, is the Grand Bazaar with its 1,000 shops. Jewelry with precious stones, exquisite antiques, Bursa silks, Oriental rugs, sueded coats and magnificent copper ware were the items that especially caught Kitty's eye. From Istanbul they fly to Rome, where they hope to run into some good old American faces.

SENATOR VERDA WELCOME writes that Hawaii is a perfect paradise. She and Dr. (Henry C.) Welcome were visiting there on the seventh . . . and on their way to Tokyo, next day. Traveling with them is Helen Howard, wife of Dr. T. R. M. Howard of Chicago . . . all three of whom will be scooting around the world for the next month and a half.

Hawaiians are such beautiful people, with their racial mixtures . . . that commercially the Island is being taken over. This, says she, she can stand, so long as the democracy there isn't corrupted.

There were ensconsed in the Princess Kaiulani, a Sheraton Hotel in Honolulu, had fun at Michael's, an ultra restaurant, Verda was tempted to visit the Legislature, then in session. But the party ruled that Senator Welcome was on no busman's holiday . . . so they saw Pearl Harbor and the Oceanic Sea-life Park instead.

Iona Collins, Dorothy Wood and Lillian Ross are spending their Easter break in the Islands.

Among Baltimoreans who wended their way to Philadelphia on Saturday were Miss Lillie A. Ross and Mrs. Ruth M. Cleaver. Their mission was to attend the Regional recognition luncheon of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority held on the roof garden of the Adelphia Hotel. Both Miss Ross and Mrs. Cleaver were recipients of the much coveted Regional Recognition Plaques which are given for service beyond the call of duty to now more than four persons from each chapter of the region.

THIS BEING Holy Week, Baltimore, with its Catholic and Episcopal traditions, slowed down to a halt on the social front.

The AGNN's (they are Alice Pinderhughes, Thelma Moore, Gwendolyn Seaborne, Anne Johnson, Ruth Robinson, Hermoine Weaver Mary Smalley, Faulibe Blackwell, Maxine Higginbotham, Bernadine Harrison, Hellena Edmonds, Millie Hall, Bertha Forte, Ruth Brown and Elise Clark) took a few friends along for a day in New York and an evening on the town, including seeing Sammy Davis in "Golden Boy."

* * *

THE WE WIVES met with Ruby Reid at Forest Manor for dinner on Tuesday night. Ruby had been out of town the past week due to the passing of her husband's brother.

Ruby's hostessing outfit was a 2-piece white brocade dinner suit with turquoise shoes and bag.

Marjorie Prout presided and the group heard Ruby's report on the Maryland League of Women's Clubs.

About were Josephine Brown (in plum a colored Susan Thomas suit); Agnes Reaves, who was lovely in pale violet; Priscilla Lenney, Ida Smith, Verniece Reynolds (who goes in Hopkins Hospital, Monday), Ada Weaver, Iris Mapp, Ivy Grinage, Adelle Foreman, Gwen Tarter and Margaret Armstrong.

THE FIRESIDERS sadly met with Eula Watkins last Friday to note the passing of their president, Inez Reed. The group attended the Monday funeral services.

* * *

IN THE OFFING, however, are a number of interesting items. On Saturday Mrs. Eva Marie Lassiter will be hostess at a brunch in the Elegante Room in honor of her daughter, Eva Marie.

Miss Lassiter is one of the debutantes to be presented by the Me-De-So Club at the cotillion on the 22nd.

On the 30th Alpha Phi Alphas will hold forth at their Spring Ball, this year, in Emerald Gardens. They have invited guests to dine, dance, sip and listen to the music of Damita Jo and Her Band, all for a good cause. Funds from the project go to their scholarship Fund. Wellington Ross is dance chairman, and the chapter is headed by Pierre H. Davis.

On Easter Monday, the Links of this city, and the ladies of Frontiers International's Auxiliary will be hosting luncheons.

The former's affair, now a tradition in Baltimore, will be at the Belvedere Hotel, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Proceeds will go to the Provident Hospital Fund.

Beginning at 1 p.m. on the same day, The Women's Auxiliary of the Frontiers, will be engaged at a bridge-luncheon at Carvel Hall in Annapolis.

The proceeds will be used to make donations such as tray favors or individual bouquets to the Anne Arundel General Hospital, refreshments and tokens to patient groups at Crownsville State Hospital, toys and other equipment to the Parole Day Care Center, the Parole Health Center, Sunny Acres, and Sunny Glen Schools.

Until Saturday noon, April 17, tickets are available from Mrs. George Phelps, Jr., the luncheon chairman; Mrs. Walter Mills, the president; Mrs. J. Alexander Wiseman, publicity chairman, or any of the members: Mesdames Norwood Brown, Thomas Baden, Francis Noel, Henry Holland, George Diggs, James Motley, Herbert Hilliard, and Carroll Hynson.

And while speaking of the Frontiers International, the Frederick, Md. chapter's cotillion is scheduled for the 30th. This affair will take place in the Francis Scott Key Hotel. Incidentally, this chapter has just given $2,000 to the Frederic Memorial Hospital, and auther 1500 to the YMCA.

Aide to King to speak here

The Rev. C. T. Vivian, aide to Rev. Martin Luther King in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, will be the featured speaker during Men's Day at Zion Baptist Church, 1700 N. Caroline St., on Sunday, April 25.

Rev. Vivian will speak at a special afternoon program at 3 p.m.

Men's Day, under the theme "Christian Men in the Struggle for Social Justice," will include a morning sermon by pastor R. Moses Williams, a musical program p.m. and a musical program at 5 by the male chorus at 8 p.m.
