Mrs. King bride of James E. Pratt

Mrs. Ruth Jones King, daughter of Mrs. Perry M. Jones, and James Edward Pratt were married in Sharon Baptist Chrch, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Pumphery of this city.

The Rev. James L. Moore officiated at the double-ring ceremony. A program of music was provided by Miss Mildred Williams, organist; and Mesdames Gwendolyn Daye and Naomi Seaborne and Delacy Peters, soloists.

• • •

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by a cousin, Louis Keaton, Mrs. King was lovely in an afternoon dress of silk shantung in shades of mauve pink and petal pink. The bateau neckline and petal sleeves were embellished with crystal beads, silver bugle beads and pearl drops. The bodice back featured a draped cowl with a petal pink rose tucked into the base of the folds. The skirt, tiers of petals, completed the dress. Accessories were pink, including a minute pill box of matching fabric adorned with seek pearls and beads, and veil in pink. She carried a Bible topped with a white orchid and pink streamers.

• • •

MRS. DELORES Y STOKES, matron of honor wore a dress of white silk chiffon over Nile green peau de soir, made with three-quarter length sleeves and lace. Her headpiece was of veiling and bows and she carried pink flowers.

The junior attendant, Paula Lee, wore lace over peau de soire. A ruffled back skirt featured the dress, which had puffed sleeves. Her headdress was also a arrangement of ribbon and veiling.

W. Randall Barham was best man for Mr. Pratt. Ushers included Melvin T. Scott, Alphonso Wiggins, John Holmes, Leon Squire, Paul Ellen and Joseph Bradford.

• • •

FOLLOWING the ceremony, guests were entertained in the reception hall of the church.

Guests were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Ovelia Queen. Other hostesses assisting included Mesdames Zelma Ridgely, Mamie Williams, Christine Fauntleroy and members of the N.N. Club.

• • •

FOR THEIR WEDDING trip to New York City and Niagara Falls, Mrs. Pratt wore a three-piece ensemble of nubby, boucle wool in mauve pink, with a Bali straw roller in romance pink.

The couple will be at home at 4208 Oakford Avenue.

• • •

MRS. GRAY, a graduate of Howard University, is a member of Sharon Church Senior Choir, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Morris Queen Chorale, Tots and Teens, and Guys and Dolls clubs. She is vice principal at School No. 164.

Her husband is a graduate of Douglass High School and the Auto Transmission Institute. He is a trustee of St. Paul Freewill Baptist Church, a 32nd degree Mason and a past potentate of Bolivia Temple, AAOMS. He sings with the Men's Chorus of St. Paul Church, and is employed by Bethlehem Steel Co.

• • •

PRIOR TO the wedding, the bride was given a personal shower by members of the N.N. Club.

Baltimore County News

By PINNIE L. ROSS

Thursday, April 8, marked the inauguration of a new fiscal year with a newly elected board of officers, a new proposal for action in our program and inspired determination to more actively approach the human relations in Baltimore County for the League for Human Rights - Baltimore County at the annual meeting at the New Shiloh Baptist Church in Turners Station.

The newly elected officers for 1965-6 are William A. Ross, president; Daniel I. Nitzberg, vice president; Mrs. Ann May, recording secretary; Johnson T. McChurkin, corresponding secretary; George T. Norton, treasurer; and directors Robert M. Latane, Mrs. Vernet Lindsey, Eugene L. King Sr., and Joseph H. Thomas Sr.

The league members were inspired by a talk by Norman Kilpatrick, president of the Prince Georges County Citizens Council - CORE.

Persons interested in affiliating with the League for Human Rights may secure information from Reginald Evelyn, 140 Barberry Ct., 21222; Charles Fleischmann, 401 Allview Ct., 21206, or William A. Ross, 354 Suter Rd., 21228, RI 7 - 2318.

AT THE request of a group of concerned colored parents the executive board of the Westowne Elementary School PTA presented to the general meeting and secured passage of a resolution asking the board of education of Baltimore County to place teachers in this and all county schools without regard to race, color, creed or national origin.

This move was taken with the hopes of having more colored teachers placed in the elementary schools in the county.

At the same meeting on April 4, the name of James R. Pennington was nominated for the post of second vice president, the second time in two years a colored person has been nominated to the post and defeated in the general election.
