N.C. College, Morgan face tests in Relay defenses

PHILADELPHIA — Five college championship individual events will have the defending champion in competition at the 71st annual Penn Relay Carnival next weekend at the University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field.

This means there will be eight individual championship events that will have a new titleholder.

* * *

HEADING THE list of returnees is Norman Tate of North Carolina College (Durham), who will defend two individual titles. Tate captured the triple jump and broad jump championships last year, ran the anchor legs on both the 440 and 880-year relay teams that captured Championship of America titles last year and then was named the Carnival's Outstanding Collegiate Athlete.

Another North Carolina College (Durham) defending champion will also be back, Edwin Roberts in the 100-yd. dash. Roberts finished second in the NCAA championships last year and will be the favorite at the Pen Relays.

* * *

FOUR RUNNING events will not be defended this year. Vince McArdle of Manhattan winner of the 400-meter hurdle is graduated along with 120-yd. high hurdle winner John Bethea of Morgan State. Army's Bill Straub set a new mark in the two-mile run last year but he too is graduated along with 3,000-meter steeplechase winner Vic Zwolak of Villanova.

Three of the field events also show graduated defending champions. Ernie Soudek, Michigan, in the discus throw, Len DeFiore, Columbia, javelin and Mike Berkowitz Navy, in the shot put.

* * *

SOUTHERN (LA.) defending champion Richard Ross will not return for the high jump but the competition in this event could be the best in many years.

In recent years defending champions at the Penn Relays have had trouble keeping the crowns they won the previous year but this year's crop appears to be a strong group and one that will give contenders a run for the money.

Western District Little League set

The Western District Police - Community Relations Committee, in cooperation with the Department of Recreation, will sponor an eight-team baseball Little League, Sgt. Randolph Wilkins, announced today.

Sgt. Wilkins, chairman of the group's athletic committee, said the project is designed to create a better relationship between police and youths of the District.

A team will be located in each of the eight baliwicks and will be supervised jointly by policemen, recreation workers and team members.

Application blanks will be distributed to drug stores in the various baliwicks, Sgt. Wilkins reported, and boys between the ages of 9 and 13 should pick them up at stores in their neighborhood.

After they are filled in, applications should be given to the patrolman on the beat who will make arrangements for registration.

* * *

SGT. WILKINS said all boys between the specified ages are eligible and will be signed with the understandir that they cannot become ing that they cannot become involved in trouble while holding membership of a team.

Further details on club houses, meeting times, and opening games will be announced later, he said.

'There Was No Joy In Mudville'

MIGHTY BOOG HAD STRUCK OUT —Baltimore suffered the pangs of Mudville in the legendary "Casey At the Bat" dramatization, Tuesday afternoon, when the Orioles' own "Mighty Casey," Boog Powell, fanned with 2 men on in the bottom of the 9th, to wrap up a 5-3 Opening Day loss to the Chicago White Sox. A crowd of 39,455 faithful (upper photo) watched Sam Bowens fail in clutch, and Herbert Rice, Harold Moore and Walter Richard (lower, left to right) gritted teeth and hit lips in dismay as slugger Powell swung mightly, but futilely at pitch by White Sox reliefer Tommy John to halt Bird rallying effort. Lower right shows Oriole rookie Paul Blair and pitcher Robin Roberts sharing gloom. Blair at 21, and Roberts at 39, carried youngest and oldest miseries in Baltimore dugout.

Ethiopian Olympic champ in World's Fair marathon

ADIS ABABA, Ethiopia (UPI) — Olympic marathon champion, Lieutenant Abebe Bikila, and Sergeant Mamo Wolde arrived in New York this week to compete in the World's Fair Run.

The pair will run from midtown Manhattan to Flushing Meadows, site of the Fair on April 21, when the Fair reopens.

Abebe said on his departure that he was carrying a message from Emperor Haile Selassie to officials of the World's Fair calling for world peace.

After competing at the World's Fair, Abebe and Wolde, who are both members of the Imperial bodyguard, will continue to Japan, where they will compete in an international track event.

Morgan students learn self defense

Some 28 Morgan State College students are taking a two-hour credit course each Saturday morning to learn "strictly defensive judo against personal attacks."

Kenneth E. Brown assistant professor of health and physical education, states the main purpose of the course is "to give young men and women a means of defense against any type of sneak grabs such as muggings and yokings."

Women students in the 115 pound class now have no trouble tossing about their fellow male students whose weight ranges from 180 to 200 pounds," Mr. Brown said. In the present class, which is the first one on the campus, there are 20 men and 8 women.

Brown also teaches a judo class on Tuesdays from 7:3 to 9 p.m. at the Madison Avenue YMCA. This class is opened to both men and women of all ages.

Why does Miss Beaux Arts buy Schaefer by the 6-pak?

She has 6 good reasons

Take a tip from Miss Beaux Arts—Baltimore's own Carolyn Dotson.

Next time you shop, be sure to pick up a couple of Schaefer 6-paks.

You'll find Schaefer delivers the most rewarding taste in this man's world—flavor that doesn't fade after one glass or two. Even after your thirst is gone, Schaefer still tastes great.

Bracing-cold, gleaming-gold Schaefer gives you all the pleasure of the first cold beer, every beer through.

SCHAEFER IS THE ONE BEER TO HAVE WHEN YOU'RE HAVING MORE THAN ONE

Baltimore youth battles injury as team loses

A pesky thigh injury he doesn't seem able to shake off continues to plague young Ivan Higgins and his Rutgers University teammates as they draw ever closer to their annual excursion into Ivy League Lacrosse competition.

Higgins, son of a prominent Baltimore family is the lone colored member of the Rutgers ten which dropped a 15-8 decision to Johns Hopkins at Homewood, Wednesday afternoon.

* * *

AS IN THE case of his school's only other loss of the season to date, Higgins had to sit out the better part of the game. A muscle strain in his right thigh, suffered shortly before the April 10, game with Army, refuses to heal.

The Army contest and Wednesday's tiff at Johns Hopkins are the two losses in five outings for the Brunswickians. Rutgers bowed to the Cadets, 11-3.

In previous games, Higgins and his mates scored over Williams, 10-9; Harvard, 11-4, and New Hampshire, 6-5. They play Hofstra tomorrow (Saturday), then take on Yale, Colgate and Penn State in succession. The traditional meeting with princeton is slated for May 15.

* * *

"I DON'T know why I can't get rid of this problem," an obviously disturbed but affable Higgins told the the field at Homewood. "I've had heat treatments and all kinds of therapy, and for a while I can move on it very well. Then it tightens again and I can't run.

"I'm convinced that the trainer is right. Complete rest is about the only thing that will get rid of it."

"HE'S A good player and a fine boy," said coach Bob Naso. "We miss him terribly when he's not in there as goalie, but the leg simply won't let him maneuver.

"I think much of his trouble stems from the fact that he's a high strung kid. He works up to a terrific pitch for a game and the nervousness draws him tight so that his muscles won't function normally.

"EVEN ON the bench, that competitive urge of his won't let him relax. On occasion, I send him to relieve at the cage just to try to give him some relief from the tension — of inactivity, I guess."

Against Hopkins, Higgins was used sparingly by Naso. He turned in one save during his brief sojourn on the field.

YOUSG IVAN is the son of Dr. and Mrs. I. Bradshaw Higgins of 3247 Powhatan Ave.

Before matriculating at Rutgers, he attended Andover Academy and was captain of the wrestling team which twice won the New England prep school mat championship.

He is an English major junior at the New-Brunswick (NJ) institution, and says he has his eyes on a future in medicine. . .LACY. .

Harlem Park youngster cops gymnastic honors

Willie Hawkins, a student at Harlem Park Jr. High School, captured the "Most Outstanding Gymnast Trophy" at the first annual Druid Hill Avenue YMCA Open Age gymnastic meet before 300 fans.

James Randolph of Booker T Junior High, was second and William Carlton from Harlem Park, placed third.

The meet was sponsored by the Druid Hill YMCA Gymnastic Committee and drew participants from the elementary and junior high schools in Baltimore. Members of the committee were Messrs. Wilbur Cooke, chairman, Ernest H. Brown, Douglass Camper, Franklin Belton, and A. Edward Franklin.

* * *

JOHN H. Henderson, executive secretary at the branch, told the fans and participants that "this meet demonstrates the fine job that the gymnastic committee has done in the neuro - muscular skills of the youth in our community."

Patrons for the meet were: Mesdames Thomasina Bowie, Ernest H. Brown, Ruth Diggs, Minnie Glenn, Audrey Jones, Brenda Watt, Wanda Williams, and Doris Wycher.

Messrs Terry Biller, Charles Brown, Ernest H. Brown, William Bracco, Douglass Camper, David Cincore, Wilbur Cooke, Jerry Fife, A. Edward Franklin, Henry Johnson, John Kennedy, John Nash, William Savage, James Williams and Melvin Wood.
