John Sembly Sr. is buried today

Funeral services were held today (Friday) at Asbury Methodist Church, Annapolis, for John Sembly Sr., 525 Brenton Dr., Admiral Hts., who died May 11. He was 68.

Mr. Sembly was born Feb. 15, 1897. Skillful at pitching he participated in the Public Athletic League Maryland meets and was the Annapolis State Horseshoe Tournaments and was the Annapolis champion from 1929 to 1931.

A seaman 2nd class during World War I, he was a member of the American Legion. He was married to Mrs. Harriet Brown Sembly who survives. Also surviving is his son, John Jr., who was also born on Feb. 15.

The Rev. Isaiah Bailey presided at the church services and at graveside rites at Baltimore National Cemetery.

George Johnson

George B. Johnson, 74, 2715 W. LaFayette Ave. died Monday at Lutheran Hospital.

Funeral services were held today (Friday) at the Williams Funeral Home. Burial was in Baltimore National Cemetery.

The World War I veteran was a retired Baltimore National Bank employee.

He was a member of the Jolly Seven Pleasure Club and the Benefit Club.

Born in Washington, Mr. Johnson's parents were Arthur and Julia Johnson.

Surviving are a son, Raymond Johnson; five grandchildren and two great grandchildren, all of Baltimore.

Women realtors

WASHINGTON — Many opportunities for women to enter the real estate field are expected each year during the remainder of the 1960's, reports the U. S. Labor Department.

The usual commission on the sale of a moderately priced home was 5 or 6 per cent. Thus, the sale of a house for $20,000 brings a commission of $1,000 to $1,200 to be split 50-50 by the broker and the salesman.

2,000 party raid

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — A party raid demonstration Sunday night and Monday morning in Harvard Square caused a massive traffic jam.

Dean John Monroe of Harvard immediately ruled out of order any future spring fever demonstrations. "If we have to fire people to make our point,

Ministers' Wives benefit theatre party on Saturday

A benefit theater party will be the final activity of the Washington Conference, sisters' wives Association, of the Washington District Minthe Methodist Church.

The husbands of the organization membership are colored Methodist ministers who will become a part of a newly-integrated Baltimore Conference when the latter convenes at the American University in June.

Traditionally, the ministers' wives have held a benefit theater party each year to add to the pension fund for retired ministers, widows and orphans of the Washington Conference.

IN THIS final activity, members and patrons will attend a performance of "A Raisin in the Sun" presented by the Arena Players of Baltimore. It will be held at the Lisner Auditorium of George Washington University, on Saturday, May 22, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Edward G. Carroll, wife of the district superintendent of the Washington District, is president of the association.

DR. W. MONTAGUE COBB

Dr. Cobb to be YMCA honoree

WASHINGTON

Dr. W. Montague Cobb, professor and head of the Department of Anatomy at Howard University and president of the National Medical Association, will be honored by the Twelfth Street YMCA on Monday, May 17.

Dr. Cobb, who spent a great deal of his youth at the Twelfth Street YMCA, will be the recipient of the Y's Citizen Award of 1964 at the organization's annual dinner to be held at the National Press Club. He also will be the main speaker at the dinner.

his "long record to continuous activity and generous contributions to this community and nation."

In addition to his work at Howard, Dr. Cobb serves as editor of the Journal of the National Medical Association, Secretary of the District Anatomical Board, chairman of the National Health Committee of the NAACP and is a member of the Public Health Advisory Counsel of the District and the District Advisory Committee on Poliomyelitis Vaccine.

Dr. Theodore Shell is chairman of the YMCA dinner committee.

Take ½ million from bathroom

GREENVILLE, S.C. — Mrs. Theo (Ducky) Kuper, 62, missionary, and Mrs. John D. Hollingsworth, 48, the estranged wife and blonde daughter of a Greenville industrialist, were arrested Wednesday in a bizarre case involving the theft of more than a half million dollars in cash from the industrialist's bathroom.

Thieves unload Eisenhower's car

WASHINGTON — Police today recovered former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's $400 emergency oxygen kit, stolen Monday from the trunk of his car.

Still missing was a $10 box of candy, a $170 portable radio, and a .38-caliber revolver which belongs to Eisenhower's aide.

He made the Washington visit to undergo an overnight checkup at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

Plan rival UN

TOKYO — Communist China has renewed its threat to create a rival United Nations if the present world body is not thoroughly reorganized.

Liao Cheng - Chih, Peking's delegate to the fourth Afro-Asian People's Solidarity Conference currently in session in Ghana, condemned the crimes perpetrated by the United Nations against the Afro - Asian peoples.

Hoffa appeals

CINCINNATI, Ohio — Teamster President James R. Hoffa asked the U. S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals Wednesday to overturn a ruling by a Chattanooga, Tenn., judge denying him a new trial on his jury tampering conviction.

He has been in an eight-year sentence.

CORE leader heads teacher union here

Dennis C. Crosby, 38, Dunbar High School teacher and leader of CORE's fight for a new building, was unanimously elected president of the Baltimore Teachers Union local 340 AFL-CIO, Wednesday night.

Mr. Crosby, by this victory, becomes the first of his race to serve as an AFL-CIO teachers' union local president in a city the size of Baltimore, sixth largest school system in the nation.

In 1948, he set another precedent by becoming the first Dunbar High School graduate to return to the East Baltimore school as a teacher

Baltimore school as a teacher. He had finished Dunbar three years before (1945).

And most recently, as a member of Baltimore CORE's education committee he became the first local teacher to publicly align himself with the civil rights organization's direct action program to equalize school facilities.

MR. CROSBY, with students and other CORE members, was among demonstrators for a new Dunbar who staged a 36-hour sleep-in in the Department of Education headquarters several weeks ago.

Mr. Crosby assumes the out-going president Milton Goldberg for six years. Previously, the new president had been union vice-president for two years, and amember of the organization for ten.

"My first step as president," Mr. Crosby told the AFRO today, "will be to concentrate on a membership drive. We will also be concerned with campaigning for higher teachers' salaries and the up-grading of educational opportunities and facilities in inner city schools."

He said he would not comment beyond this until after his first executive committee session next week. The union has upwards of 1500 members.

Mr. Crosby ran on an unopposed slate. Elected vice-president was Charles Lautheim, City College instructor. Other new officers include: Henry B. Wasko, executive secretary, Mrs. Thelma B. Cox, recording secretary; and Hymanie Sachs, treasurer.

A 1948 graduate of Hampton Institute, Mr. Crosby received his master of arts degree from New York University in 1961, and has pursued further study at NYU and Temple University.

He is married to the former Frances Lofton, who had also been a Dunbar High instructor. They have three daughters ages 3, 5, and 7.

He is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, the Holy Name Society.

The family attends St. James Roman Catholic Church.

Rev. Holbrook to be installed

The Rev. Albert Holbrook, newly elected pastor of the Wilson Park Christian Community Church, 446 Wrenwood Ave., will be installed Sunday at 8 p.m.

The Rev. George W. Baynard, president of the United Council of Community Churches of Maryland and Vicinity, will officiate at the installation services and will be assisted by clergymen of the Council.

A reception will follow under the chairmanship of Mrs. Geneva Jackson, member of the church.

Good employer asks 3% raise

WASHINGTON — Rights leaders have recovered former President Johnson defined a good employer as one who "practices no discrimination," demands excellence and rewards it, is fair and just, respects the dignity of his employees, insists upon ethical standards and sets a good example.

The President wants Congress to up Federal civilian salaries 3 per cent and uniformed service men 4.6 per cent.

McGee, Geographic Society aide, dies

William A. McGee, 61, supervisor o fthe National Geographic Society's cabinet shop, died Wednesday night of cancer at Freedmen's Hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday, May 17, at the Church of the Incarnation, 800 Eastern Ave. Interment may visit the McGuire Funeral Home, 1820 Ninth St. NW, where Mr. McGee rests after 1 p.m. on Sunday, May 16.

His wife, Mrs. Mae Pinckney McGee, is principal of Brooks Road Elementary School, Capitol Heights, Md.

MR. McGEE had been employed by the Society for 32 years. As a highly skilled cabinet maker, machinist, and draftsman, he had played an important part for years in the preparation of the National Geographic's widely-acclaimed exhibits for Explorers Hall.

He also was adept at making special furnishings and equipment needed by the society but not available on the general market.

MR. McGEE devoted much time to community work for the needy in the Fairmount Heights area. He was chairman and treasurer of the Elks Conservation of Sight Committee and the Prince Georges County chapter of Frontiers International. He was a former national president of the Alumni Association of Agricultural College, Rockcastle, Va.

Mr. McGee was born in Key West, Fla. He was educated at St. Francis Xavier School there, St. Emma's College, and Armstrong Technical High School, Washington, D.C.

In addition to Mrs. McGee, he is survived by three daughters, Natalie and Emmerly of the home, 608 60th Place NE., Fairmount Heights, and Mrs. Wilhelmina Curry, of Key West, and two grandchildren.

No federal funds for Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala.— The Alabama Senate gave Gov. George C. Wallace a 22-8 victory Wednesday by approving a controversial resolution urging schools to delay meeting federal desegregation demands. The federal government has decreed no federal funds for Alabama schools unless they desegregate.

Kids in garbage

CAMDEN, N.J. — Mrs. Rae Shinn, 22, and two male companions were arrested Wednesday after police found her two shabbily dressed sons, aged 2 and 4, sleeping in garbage cans.

West Germany,

BONN — West Germany and Israel established the diplomatic relations here just 20 years after the collapse of the Nazi regime and its campaign to destroy the world's Jews.

The decision angered Egypt and the Arab leagues which began breaking their own relations with Bonn.
