One-man show

A one-man show of paintings is being held by Jerome P. Witkin at the International Gallery, 1026 N. Charles St., through May 19. Mr. Witkin, instructor in illustration and graphic design at the Maryland Institute, College of Art, has been given several one-man shows in New York City and will have another at Gallery 845 in Amsterdam, The Netherlands in the fall.

Joint graduation scheduled for adult students

Dr. Wilmer V. Bell, director of adult education, has announced that joint commencement exercises of the adult Schools will be held at the Baltimore Polytechnic Auditorium Thursday, May 27, at 8 p.m.

This joint commencement marks the 125th anniversary of Adult Education in Baltimore. The diplomas and certificates will be presented by Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin, and the presentation of the graduates will be made by Sidney N. Chernak, assistant superintendent secondary, vocational and adult education.

May 21-22

At the Emerson Hotel the 46th Annual Meeting of the Maryland State Department of Health.

Senior citizens being honored

Governor Tawes has proclaimed May as Senior Citizens Month.

Special events highlighting the month include a senior citizens hobby show at the Civic Center on May 14-16, co-sponsored by the Junior League and Baltimore City Commission on the Aging.

Also scheduled is the annual spring assembly of the State, City and County Commissions on the Aging at the State House in Annapolis, on May 25.
