$4.7 million grant to retarded children

WASHINGTON (NNPA) — The U.S. Office of Education has made grants of more than $4.7 million to 152 colleges and universities to train teachers of mentally retarded children.

The money will be used during the 1965-66 academic year, beginning in September, to provide fellowships and traineeships to meet part of the cost of training new teachers.

• • •

THE FOLLOWING institutions (with amount of grants) were among those selected for the program: Alabama A. and M. College, Normal — $29,100; Alabama State College, Montgomery—$600; Tuskegee Institute, Ala. — $14,500; Atlanta University, Atlanta —$22,400.

Also, Central State College, Wilberforce, Ohio — $57,200. South Carolina State College, Orangeburg — $5,250;—Tennessee A. and I. State University, Nashville — $15,000; and Virginia State College, Petersburg — $21,150.

IN ANOTHER announcement at the weekend, the Office of Education said it had made a grant of $18,350 to Tuskegee Institute to train teachers of children who are crippled or suffering from other health problems.

Powell clears LBJ's bill

WASHINGTON — Chairman Adam Powell (D., N.Y.) made good his pledge to get House, Education and Labor Committee approval 21-10 to spend $1.5 billion in the "War On Poverty."

This is twice as much as President Johnson is spending this year.

This means $609.5 million for House programs, including the Job Corps, $250 million on adult training and loan programs, and $24.5 million to finance the anti - poverty volunteer corps.

Key victory for Adam was a repeal of the veto power given state governors over the community action and neighborhood youth corps programs.

Visit to Boston

BOSTON — Rev. Goldthwaite Sherrill, a white minister, has initiated the plan to bring 38 colored high school boys and girls from Selma, Ala. to the Boston area for a week's visit.
