BISHOP CROSSEN, 52, resided at 1231 Bayard St. and founded the Sunlight Holiness Church, 1500 Argyle Ave., here in Baltimore.

The accident, that instantly caused the death of the highly respected clergyman and his two sons, occurred as the three were driving home in his Cadillac car from the week-end round of his churches.

Virginia State Police authorities report the Crossen car struck a parked truck on the shoulder of Interstate Highway 95 in Caroline County, Va. about 2:40 a.m. Monday.

The sons, also pronounced dead on the spot about four miles South of Thornburg, Va., are:

The Rev. Herman B. Crossen, 27, 2234 W. North Ave., eldest son, driver of the car; husband of Mrs. Saunders Crossen and father of one son.

James Bernard Crossen Jr. 23, 2136 Hollins St., passenger in the car; husband of Mrs. Alice Crossen, father of two small children.

Injured was a third son, the youngest, Joseph Crossen, 13, who resided with his father on Bayard St. and is a Harvey Johnson Junior High pupil.

Young Crossen sustained a fractured lower left arm and other injuries. Treated at Mary Washington Hospital Fredericksburg, Va., he was released and returned home to Baltimore.

The truck driver, William L. Warren, Richmond, Va. was not injured.

Among survivors accompanying the bodies to the last rites in North Carolina, where Bishop Crossen was born, are his young son, Joseph; two daughters, Mrs. Esther Wardlaw and Mrs. Juanita Mims, all of Baltimore.

Body mix-up was, and is, hale and hearty and is showing no signs of being ready for the final ride. At first precise moment he was serving out a 10-day jail sentence for being drunk on a public street.

The corpse being taken to Wilmington was that of Willie Richardson, 39, 1415 Edmondson Ave. His family lives in Sumter, S.C.

The quick action of the Trooper and Baltimore police halted further complications of an already mixed - up situation.

Capt. George H. Deuchler of the Central District was notified Saturday by Capt. James Craig of City Jail that Smith had died in his cell.

Mr. Smith's family was notified in Wilmington and made funeral arrangements with Marshall P. Hayes, funeral director who prepared the body and turned over to the Gray Funeral Home for the trip to Wilmington and burial.

LATER, JAIL officials learned that they had identified the wrong man as being dead and relayed this information to Capt. Deuchler.

New Mr. Hayes is awaiting word from relatives of the late Mr. Richardson to ship the body to South Carolina.

Captain Craig is unable to explain the mix - up.

An effort to reach the family of Mr. Smith proved futile.
