Ivy Leaguer to replace Murphy

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Vincent L. Broderick, an ivy league - educated assistant U. S. Attorney, was named Wednesday to succeed Michael J. Murphy as head of the nation's largest police force.

Mayor Robert Wagner chose the 47 - year - old chief assistant to U. S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau as New York police commissioner.

Murphy, a target for months for civil rights and minority groups who charged police officers with unfair treatment announced his resignation Tuesday.

A graduate of Princeton and Harvard Law School, Broderick served for two years as deputy police commissioner before becoming a hearing officer for the Waterfront Commission, general counsel for an Investment Securities Association and, in July 1961, chief assistant to Morgenthau.

ouster upheld

WASHINGTON, (UPI) — —The dismissal of a West Point cadet just before his scheduled graduation last year was upheld today by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

The cadet, John H. Dunmar of Los Angeles, had claimed that he was denied "due process of law" because the same academy officers who tried his case reviewed it on appeal there.

Zetas to fete grand basileus

When the members of the Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority held their meeting this week, plans were made to entertain Dr. Deborah P. Wolfe, Grand Basileus of the sorority, on Saturday.

This affair will be held at the home of Soror Isolene Crowner who is the chairman of the committee arranging this activity.

Dr. Wolfe will be in the city this weekend as special guest of the Douglas Memorial Community Church where she will serve on Sunday at the 11 a.m. service as speaker for the Annual Women's Day Service.

The members selected Soror Mary B. Hurt, Basileus, and Soror Beatrice G. Pitts to serve as official delegates when the sorority holds its annual Boule at the Waldorf Astoria in New York, July 11-15.

Soror Mary Adams, Chairman of the Inter - Cultural Activities for the chapter, will embark for Liberia for service in the Peace Corps after a training period which begins on June 18. Soror Adams has also served as advisor to the Youth Service Corps which has had as one of its projects during the year - collecting children's books to be sent to Jamaica.

THE I. E's., another of the chapter's youth groups, recently held its Mother-Daughter Dinner. Soror Sandra East, Third Anti-Basileus, serves as advisor to this group.

Sorors Althea S. Cornish, Gwendolyn deCecilio, Mary Horsey, Mary B. Hurt, Ruth Russell, Bernice Shorter, Catherine C. Neal, Marguerite Barland and Joan McCready served as hostesses during the meeting.

Others in attendance were: Sorors Mary Adams, Thelma C. Ashe, Catherine B. Dixon, Catherine Brown, Eleanor Colvin, Isolene Crowner, Elizabeth Demby, Eva W. dra East, Mary Fields, Goldi Dowd, Emma Dudley Sania Ford, May Fortune, Mary Frazier, Alice Hall, Beatrice Hall, Jane Harrison, Doris Howell, Edna G.
