Dr. Clinton wins cruise to Bermuda

Dr. Shirley Clinton won the cruise for two to Bermuda and prizes went to a number of others at the Charity Ball which the Auxiliary to the Maryland Dental Society staged, Friday evening.

Held in the Bluecrest, North, funds garnered from the $25 - per - couple gala will go to the Provident Hospital Development Fund, and will mark the second time the group has used this means to add to the building fund.

The Ball was executed on a grand scale, with fashion reaching a high note. Guests, upon arriving, were pinned with corsages or hung with leis. From there they drifted to tables with champagne, cocktails, etc. and hot hors de'ouvres to break the lulls between dancing.

• • •

SETTING a style high was Mrs. Olga Rodney in pale pink all - over crystal beaded sheath. A white beaded sheath, with interesting cowl neckline was worn by Mrs. Bernard (Vashti) Christmas, and Mrs. Frank R. Meade, who heads the Washington chapter of the Dental Auxiliary chose a stark white sheath, slit high at the sides and worn over aqua satin under skirt.

Mrs. Edward McDaniel's sleek champagne satin frock had a sequin top. Mrs. Raymond Hunt chose a two - piecer—in beige—lace. Miss Ann Gardner was chic in black, and that attractive splashy printed pique (in red, black and pink on white background) was not only worn by, but made by Mrs. Bob Watts.

• • •

THAT CREATION worn by Mrs. Emerson Walden has quite something, too. The fitted white frock had a wide green cummerbund, and was draped with a white fox cape. Embossed cotton, scooped low at the back, and highlighted with a hugh medallion of brilliants at front was the choice of Mrs. Robbie Chissell. Her touch of color was in the green shoes. Mrs. Charles Watts was in soft blue, sprinkled with brilliants, and Mrs. Bernard Harris Jr. was in a short frock of black sequins.

• • •

MRS. ROBERT PHILLIPS' champagne lace gown had two adorable rows of ruffles at the hem and a sweetheart line to the neck shape. Mrs. Charles Howard was elegant in a skirt of red and gold metallic brocade, with a gold sequin shell, and Mrs. John King attractive in a frock evolved from an Indian sari.

Among others than Dr. Clinton who won door prizes were Mrs. Edward Mosely, Mrs. Palistine Anderson, Dr. R. G. Chissell, Mrs. James Finney and Mrs. Vera Butler.

• • •

THE MAJOR affair was staged by a mere 15 of the dentists' wives.

They included Mesdames Cyril Ashby, Sidney Burnett, B. N. Christmas, B. H. Christmas, Walter Davidson, Billy Davis, Benjamin Gord Billy Davis, Benjamin Gordon, Raymond Hunt.

Mesdames Edward McDaniels, Robert M. Phillips, Martin Rodney, George Taylor, Dennis Tribble, Charles Watts; and Dr. Maybelle Weaver.

Says children need laughter, beauty

MRS. ROSALIE McQUIRE, left, presided and Miss Lillie G. Patterson was speaker at the Founders' Day celebration which brought Phi Delta Kappa sorors from three cities, together in Baltimore, Saturday.

Beauty is as necessary as bread, Miss Lillie Patterson told the more than hundred sorors gathered to celebrate the founding of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, here, Saturday.

The group, all of the teaching profession, heard Miss Patterson urge them to introduce books into the lives of children so that their imagination will grow, hand in hand, with vision; that they may know men who have learned to square their shoulders in the face of adversity; that they may look beyond the trash heaps of reality, and that they may develop second eyes to see and understand themselves.

• • •

THE PROGRAM, over which Mrs. Rosalie McGuire presided, was one centered on insight. Quoting an unknown autnor, Soror Electa Holland, who brought greetings from the Baltimore chapter read "I Must Go Shopping."

• • •

SAID THE author:

"One of these days I must go shopping. I am completely out of self - respect. I want to exchange the self - righteousness I picked up the other day for some humility, which they say is less expensive and wears better.

"I want to look at some tolerance which is being used for wraps this spring. Someone showed me some pretty samples of peace. We are a little low on that, and one can never have too much peace.

"And by the way, I must try to match some patience with that my neighbor wears. It is very becoming to her. I think it might look well on me.

"I might try on that little garment of long suffering they are displaying. I never thought I wanted it, but feel myself coming to it.

"Also I must not forget to have my sense of humor mended, and I must look around for some inexpensive everyday goodness. It is surprising how quickly one's stock of goodness is depleted. Yes, I must go shopping soon."

• • •

THE LUNCHEON meeting, which was headed by Mrs. Rosalie McGuire and Miss Gladys Wallace, had as members Mesdames Catherine Adams, Ethel Brewington, Mabel Butler, Alice Catlin, Alice Ford.

Also Dr. Delores Hunt, Mesdames Fannie Lawson, Beatrice Rawlings, Betty Sears and Dorothy Washington.

Attending the celebration, which was held in Emerald Gardens, were:

From Baltimore: Sorors Catherine Adams, Ethel Brewington, Rebecca Brown, Elsie Carter, Alice Catlin, Sinets Chaney, Ethel Clarke, Elmira Collins, Mattie Connor.

Widow will become nun

CINCINNATI (UPI) — A former school teacher and step-mother of six children will profess her vows June 9 to become a Catholic nun at the age of 71.

She is the former Mrs. Edward A. Foy Jr., now mother Edith Foy of the Religious Society of the Sacred Heart.

The professed nun started her training November, 1962, two years after her husband died.

WIDOW - Mrs. Estella Green, above, is the widow of the Rev. William L. Green, pastor and founder of one of Baltimore's largest and newest churches, Mt. Moriah Baptist Church at Garrison and Windsor. A photograph published recently, incorrectly identified Mrs. Green. The AFRO regrets the error and extends deepest sympathy to Mrs. Green and church upon the loss of their minister, a great church and community leader.

10 more inducted in Girls' Corps

Ten young women were promised a new start in life as they were inducted into the Girls Job Corps Thursday evening at Mondawmin.

The girls, all of whom are from the metropolitan area, were sworn in and congratulated by Maryland's Congressman-at - large Carlton Sickles during the official ceremonies.

The new recruits bring the total of local Job Corps members on the distaff side up to 16.

• • •

Last week, the first class of six was sworn in by City Council President Thomas D'Alesandro and Judge Robert Watts and then headed for the Corps' two training Centers in Cleveland, Ohio and St. Petersburg, Fla.

The new class is tentatively scheduled to fly to the Florida site and "a second chance in life" next Thursday.

Inducted at last night's ceremonies were: Susan Bowen, Sylvia Curtis, Margie Paul, Mary Errowood, Florence Hart, Irene Patras, Juanita Harris Jessie Anderson, Willie Mae Barker and Dorothea Brown.
