If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

About people and things . . .

Baltimore - girl bound for precedent - setting Peace Corps job is Miss Brenda Brown.

The 26 - year - old Morgan State College grad leaves June 7 for Tanzania in East Africa, where she will become a Peace Corps administrator — first.

Previously, she served as a volunteer in the Philippines for four years.

Miss Brown is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Durham of 3417 Springdale Ave.

Good Singing is what is done by the thirteen voices (8 girls and 5 boys), who make up the Towson State College group called "The Notables." They're terrific!

They performed four numbers and an encore at the YWCA's 82nd annual dinner meeting on Monday.

Prediciton: Baritone Ronald Phippis, a senior, is going places. His was the solo voice in the group's number, 'Gonna Build A Mountain.'

Charles Haslup is the faculty director, Tom Kocher, student diercter.

To look at Myrle E. Alexander, you'd never guess that he is director of the U. S. Bureau of Prisons, and that he has spent over three decades in the correctional field.

First of all, he is soft-spoken — in fact, he speaks so low one has to listen closely to hear him.

He has the appearance of a happy man — his white hair glistens. His dark eyebrows are a decided contrast.

Mr. Alexander came from D. C. on Tuesday evening to speak before the ninth annual prisoner awards ceremony of the Robert Lindner Foundation at the Sheraton.

He explained he scrapped his busy schedule when he received the invitation because he remembers the late Dr. Lindner (1914-1956), as a longtime friend and as the writer and psychoanalyst who pioneered in the program to reclaim prisoners by using their creative talents.

Because Dr. Lindner felt that men anh women in prison who draw, paint, sculpt, write and compose are expressing 'healthy emotional outlets,' and thus should know their efforts are appreciated, the Lindner Foundation was established shortly after his death.

This year, 1,1107 works in the various categories were submitted for judging from prisons in 36 states and Canada.

At the Tuesday evening meeting, winners of prizes ranging from $5 to $100 were announced, with residents of San Quentin taking the top awards.

One Maryland Penitentiary honorable mention prize winner is an inmate for a self portrait.

Warden Vernon L. Pepersack, who is also chairman of the Lindner board of directors, presided. He predicted that the rehabilitation programs which Dr. Lindner and others espoused are now becoming popular ('there is a complete ferment in this country'), and . . .

'Now today, prison can no longer be what it was 15 years ago . . . there is a new kind of emphasis . . .; and a transformation you never dreamed of will come in the next five years . .

Among guests in the audience: Thirty - year - old Samuel Morton, a West Baltimore man who has spent the past eleven years behind bars.

His was among the paintings on display.

He started painting five or six years ago, feels that his training has equipped him for work outside when he is paroled.

Seen in the audience: Du Bois Johnson, the teacher; Mrs. Viola Harmon, the crossing guard who is the Red Shield Boys' Club volunteer; and Mrs. Shirley Wilson, the nurse.

Also, Real Estate exec. Betty Feldmann; a member of the Board; and Mrs. Berri Hollander, the Hopkins Hospital exec.

More on people, things . . .

Can a thief invade your home while you're there and get out with your valuables?

Yes, indeed he can. Ask Mrs. Houston Jackson (Connie). A week back, a burglar entered her Prestman St. home and took two toasters and a radio, and she didn't hear him!!

Youngest CPA Certified Public Accountant in our city might well be the title of Benjamin L. King. He is just 37.

Mr. King has conducted his office at 1515 Pennsylvania Ave., since July, 1957, the same year he passed the Md. Certified Public Accountant's exam, a first.

He also maintains an office in Washington, with his associate, Arthur M. Reynolds. They operate under the name, King - Reynolds.

Mr. Reynolds, who is also a lawyer, is only 35.

More on Mr. King: He married his Va. State College sweetheart, the former Gloria Wood of Lawnside, N.J.

They have five youngsters: Benjamin Jr., 13; Anthony, 10; Pamela, 6; Kara, 4; and Martin, 15 months.

The baby has already been tagged 'Martin Luther,' because his name's the same as the famed Nobel Peace Prize winner.

White House guests next Saturday (June 5), will include Baltimore's State Legislator Clarence Mitchell 3rd and Mrs. Mitchell.

They've been invited for dancing by the President's daughter, Lynda Bird, and to meet the Swedish princess.

Twill be their second White House invitation in the past month. Two weeks ago, they were luncheon guests of President and Mrs. Johnson at a state affair for Denmark's princess.

Smile - a - while: Lewiston, Maine has been declared a disaster area! (get it? - this means since Cassius pulled that trick on Tuesday).

Looking good: Lovely - to look - at indeed was Mrs. Alverta Lee, who was among beautifully gowned guests at the Bon Coeur Friday evening formal at Emerald Gardens.

Her original acqua gown, unusual in design featured a flowing net bodice at both sides. The decolletage top, as well as the dress, was glistening with gold beads.

Pretty, pretty, pretty was the green and pink print worn by Mrs. Ruby Fields.

• • •

D. C. guest met: Mrs. Conelle Boothe Merritt, who conconfides she is a regular AFRO reader.

More this and that . . .

Cheer to Mrs. Elaine Stevens, 4332 Dewey Ave., She's the St. James PE Church member.

St. James members confined to Ft. Howard Hospital: John Johnson and William Ruffin.

Hellos to Catonsville's senior citizen: Charles Woodland. He's shut - in at 77 Winters Lane.

Mention above of St. James reminds this reporter how times have changed.

The parish is holding an anniversary ball on June 5, at Winchester Armory.

Father Donald O. Wilson advised his Sunday congregation the occasion will be one of fellowship and enterta tainment (supplied by talented members of the parish — (he will be in the orchestra), and there will be "no booze, no bottles, just plain fun."

Happy birthday time: May 29, remember, Dr. George Pendleton, the physician; Mrs. Edward G. Carroll, wife of the Methodist minister; and Mrs. Charles Covington (Ethel), the teacher.

One hppy birthday candle will burn on May 29 for Tony Darnell Thompson, 1004 Shellbanks Rd.

Four candles have already been blown by his sister, Monica Denise Thompson, who celebrated her birthday on May 16.

They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Thompson (Doretha). Mr. Thompson is a Provident Hospital employee. The family belongs to First Baptist Church, Cherry Hill.

• • •

Mrs. Walter Paige, wife of the Faith Baptist minister, birthday on May 30.

Ditto the Evans Triplets, (Wilbur, Warren and Wallace), who are 18 years old!

The Rev. Kelly Jackson, Sharp St. Methodist minister, gets candles on May 31.

Mrs. Douglass Sheppard (Gladys) has a birthday on June 1.

June 2 is candle - lighting time for Dr. Eugene Byrd, the dentist;

June 3 cards for Mrs. James LaForest; and Radcliffe Finney.

Special thinking - of - you cards to Miss Goldie Bailey, 2614 Auchentoroly Terr. She's the Morgan State senior who graduates next week.

It will not be a happy occasion for her because she buried her mother last Thursday.

She was Mrs. Emily Bailey, who was beloved as a kindly nurse at U.S. Public Health Hospital. She was just 40.

Fred Weisgal, the attorney is out of Sinai Hospital (ticker trouble). Your best wishes will reach him if addressed to 5740 Cross Country Blvd.

Mrs. Sarah F. Swann, 1514 Poplar Grove, matron of Queen of Sheba Chapter, OES, is doing nicely after eye surgery.

Another Eastern Star leader on the mend: Mrs. Catherine W. Haynie, 2215 W. North, matron of Rebecca Chapter.

Best wishes to Bon Secours Hospital for Mrs. Harry Cole (Doris), she entered on Tuesday.

• • •

Mrs. Elliott Michelson (Maureen), 2101 Park Ave., is out of the hospital.

She's the wife of the physician, and former 4th District Democratic candidate for Legislature.

Cuff note: Word from Nashville, Tenn., that Meharry Medical College President West has resigned. He will stay on until a successor is named.

Of all things! Willi am (Bill) Taylor, who has pioneered in inner city work in the East Baltimore area, was snubbed in considering applicants for neighborhoods supervisor under the poverty program.

Some technicality about not recognizing his long supervisory experience at Eastside Community Committee.

How come? Failure to utilize his talents will be a loss to the city.

About this and that . . .

Death note: The Rev. Halley B. Taylor, 85, pastor-emeritus of 18th St. Presbyterian Church in Washington, was buried there yesterday.

Survivors include two daughters: Mrs. Bettie Julian, Baltimore; Mrs. Marie Primas, D.C.,

Also, three sons, the Rev. H. Herbert Taylor, Grand Rapids, Mich., Dr. Halley B. Taylor and Robert E. Taylor, both of D.C.

Cuff note: While Father Henry Offer, pastor of St. Peter Claver Catholic Church was on a trip to the Bahamas for the Order, his father died in Detroit last Monday. Requiem high mass was sung at St. Peter Church on Friday.

Eight - year - old Eric B. Dobson, 3603 Ellamont Rd., is out of Sinai Hospital.

He's the youngster who suffered third degree burns of hip and thigh. Seems he lighted the stove while wearing a cub scout suit he had cleaned with lighter fluid!

Eric's a third grader at School No. 18, and the youngest of three sons of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dobson (Mildred).

Best wishes to Mrs. Shirley Charlton, who is back in Hopkins Hospital (Halsted 4), for a fifth operation.

A week back, she had her arm amputated. Keep her spirits up.

"Could have been worse," was the cheerful comment of Mrs. Una Corbett, the retired Western High teacher.

She sustained painful cuts when her leg was mashed in a freak accident outside the Me - De - So Club on Sunday evening.

Seems she was alighting from her car at Laurens and Eutaw Pl., when an unattended auto drifted down the street, mashed her between the cars.

She was treated at Md. General Hospital, is now at home, 1223 Woodbourne Ave.

Cuff note: Out of Providence as of Wednesday, Western High freshman, 13 year - old Barbara Jean Collins. She had pneumonia. She's the daughter of AFRO City Editor George and Mrs. Collins.

• • •

Good news: Mrs. Patricia Taylor, the Morgan State College administrative assistant to President Jenkins, is out after surgery, hopes to be back at her post after June 6th.

Prayers for Mrs. Gertrude Saunders the dressmaker. She entered University Hospital on Tuesday.

Many know her as one of our town's senior citizens. She's in her eighties. Others know her as the godmother of Audrey Jones Pinderhughes and Parren Mitchell.

Remember when she and Mrs. Malinda Wyatt who died last week, were close friends?

Note for housewives who find that lettuce is too high (and it is at 39 and 45 cents a head - small head at that): Try carrots and raisins as a salad instead of lettuce and tomato.

Cuff note: The three Allen children, Peggy Ann, 12; Jacqueline Lenette, 8; and Gayle Denise, 6; were featured at the closing program of the NAACP Baby contest on Sunday.

They wore Japanese dresses and sang several numbers in Japanese.

They lived three years in Japan with their father, Temple Allen Jr., electronics chief master with the Martin Co.

Their mother, and baby sister, Rhonda Suette, 3 are still in Japan with dad.

Children are the granddaughters of the senior Temple Allens of N. Fulton Ave. Grandmother Allen reported $211 in the baby contest.

In from Ft. Jackson, S.C., where he completed his basic training, is former AFRO Photographer Irving Phillips.

He'll be back at his S.C. post until middle summer, then he goes into a photography unit at Ft. Monmouth, N.J.

Even a lady could learn to like Soft Whiskey. It's not hard.

Many women don't find whiskey very likeable.

In fact, they find it hard to take.

So you usually find them with gin or vodka, or one of those lady drinks.

But, we've changed all that. We've given whiskey more appeal.

A lady can even drink Soft Whiskey straight. Without batting an eyelash. Soft Whiskey swallows nice and easy, treating her ever so tenderly.

But don't get the wrong idea. Soft Whiskey is no softie. It's 86 proof. And does exactly what any 86 proof does. It just does it softer. So lady, be discreet.

Now, about the softening process. All we can tell you is, some of Calvert Extra is distilled in small batches instead of huge ones. Forgive our being so closemouthed. But we fell flat on our faces in year after year of experiments before we found the formula.

After all that, we're not going to make it easy for anyone to steal our women.

Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, President of the Baltimore Branch, celebrated her 76th birthday on Tuesday and said, "The financial report of the Baby Contest and the cooperative spirit with which everyone worked to make this effort a success seemed a complimentary birthday present. I am just so happy."

Dr. Jackson also announced that the Spring Renewal Membership Campaign is now on. She is asking for workers to help reach the goal of 2,000 memberships.

$3500 FOR Provident Hospital building drive has been pledged by Hiram Grand Lodge A.F. and Masons, and the affiliated Naomi Grand Chapter, Order Eastern Star. In photo, Mrs. Victorine Adams, Provident volunteer, from Mrs. Clara V. Brummell, grand matron; and Miss Helen V. Benton, associate matron. At right, Grand Master Clarence Wycoff, whose lodge has already paid $1,000 on its pledge for a new hospital.
