Ellington's snub still draws raps

NEW YORK — Repercussions are still being heard over the Pulitzer Award committee's recent refusal to honor a Music Board recommendation that Duke Ellington be cited in a special Pulitzer Prize category.

The board's decision not to make a music award was rapped on two counts.

First, the failure to give Ellington a special citation was regarded as a slight to one of the best American songwriters and a major influence in the development of jazz.

Secondly, the inability of the jury to recommend a musical work to rate a prize this year and last spotlighted a fundamental weakness in the selection process.

* * *

FORMER WINNERS of the Pulitzer awards, William Schuman, Aaron Copland and Elliot Carter, characterized the non-awards as "preposterous."

Virgil Thomson, a long-hair composer, said it was hard to believe that no single work composed during the last 12 months rated a prize.

THE RECOMMENDATION of Ellington for a special citation, even if rejected, represents an important breakthrough for the recognition of pop and jazz music of the "arts."

The awards have consistently gone to the longhairs of "serious" composers in the past with no recognition of such major figures in American popular music as Irving Berlin, Jerome Kern, Cole Porter, George Gershwin, Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein 2d, and a few others who have written the music that America sings.

SCHOOLS WARNED

NEW YORK — Southern school districts that fail to meet the Civil Rights Act requirements face desegregation suits by the government, Vice President Hubert Humphrey warned here Thursday night.

Viet fighting

SAIGON, — U.S. warships have gone into action against the Communists in South Viet Nam for the first time, a spokesman disclosed Thursday. American destroyers bombarded troop concentrations in three provinces.

American planes were out again, ranging over North Viet Nam to shoot up bridges, railroad yards and military barracks among other targets.

A U.S. Navy Crusader Jet was shot down over Communist territory and the pilot presumed killed, the American military spokesman reported.

Two other Americans were killed in ground fighting in South Viet Nam.

SOLOMON BURKE

Telephone company spending $85,500,000 on people explosion

The board of directors of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Maryland has approved during the past 12 months expenditures totaling over $85,500,000, according to L. Mercer Smith, vice president of the company.

This total includes more than $5,000,000 authorized at the board's regular meeting on May 24.

King Cole widow joins suit against disc firm

NEW YORK — Mrs. Maria Hawkins Cole, the widow of Nat King Cole, joined Peggy Lee and Capitol Records last week in seeking to enjoin Camay Records from selling and distributing two discs, one labeled "Nat King Cole's Golden Hits" and the other, "Peggy Lee's Greatest."

Justice Louis Capozzoli in Supreme Court directed Camay and one of its officers, Amos Raggazzino, to answer the charge.

* * *

MRS. COLE, the executor of her husband's estate, said that the singer had been under exclusive contract to Capitol from November, 1943, until his death on Feb. 15.

The court papers said that in 1951 Cole and Miss Lee made teleciptions "or short film sequences of approximately three to four minutes in length intended as 'filler' material for exhibition on television between regularly scheduled programs."

According to the complaint, Camay obtained the sound tracks "in some fashion," made recordings, and was selling them in competition with Capitol.

Counties tap 'poor' for poverty role

Of Maryland's 23 counties, 21 have action commissions in the war on poverty, announced S. Edward Smith, program development officer for the state Office of Economic Opportunity.

Calvert, St. Mary's and Charles counties have formed a tri-county group.

Eleven of these counties have formal sponsors and a few have incorporated their bodies of authority to receive and disburse funds under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

There are 464 members of the county action groups, of which 66 qualify as "poor", — under the $3,000 income bracket — and 97 are non-white.

Mr. Smith stated that the action groups are the policy - making boards for the county poverty programs.

Their inclusion of "poor" members — who are evenly spaced on the 21 county boards — is a jump ahead of the Baltimore city program which has no persons in the under $3,000 class on its 11 - member policy - making board.

* * *

SEVEN OF the counties already have filed for program development grants in order to make studies and surveys of poverty, deprivation, dependency and other related problems.

The second stage will be the filing for funds with which to establish "action programs" in the counties.

Hit record receipts has singer Burke in dilemma

BY MASCO YOUNG
Negro Press International

Salesman Burks whose "Can't Get You Off My Mind" waxing is getting plenty of action across the nation, can't make up his mind about which home to buy with royalties from that tune. His choice: a 10 - room house in South Jersey or a 22 - room mansion in Miami.

ROBERT HOOKS, the actor last seen in the play "A Taste of Honey" plays the part of a Greenwich Village coffee shop owner in a new movie being filmed, which stars Don Murray and Diane Varsi. Diane, who walked out on a starring role in the role in the movie "Peyton Place" six years ago in Hollywood, has a love affair with Hooks in the film.

Mirian Anderson, the world famous contralto who has been accorded many honors throughout the country and abroad, was elected to the board of trustees of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

GENE KRUPA will give private drumming lessons to pretty actress Joey Heatherton while he's at the Metropole in New York, to help prepare her for a forthcoming movie in which she's a percussionist.

JAMES PHELPS, whose "I'll Do The Best I Can" recording is stirring up fans on the charts, sounds a whole lot like the late Sam Cooke—but he sings in his own natural voice.

CHUCK JACKSON, who now wears a natural-look hair style after he quit getting his hair processed, says "I haven't lost a single fan, and I haven't had anyone ask me 'What happened to your hair'?"

LIONEL HAMPTON, the vibermaster, will be seen on TV doing commercials for a total of 26 weeks.

Arab nations in agreement

CAIRO, U.A.R., — The four Arab countries bordering Israel agreed Thursday to grant the Unified Arab Command the right to use joint forces into their territories in the event of war or emergency, an authoritative source said.

The source said the agreement was reached at a meeting of the Arab Defense Council which discussed a report by Unified Force Commander Gen. Aly Amer of the United Arab Republic (U.A.R.) on strategy to protect Arab projects to divert Jordan River waters.

The four countries involved are the U.A.R., Jordan, Syria and Lebanon.
