News From Eastside

By CHARLOTTE W. MASON

Our Good Neighbor of the Week is charming Mrs. Mary Gattis, wife of George Gattis, an employee of the Maryland Properties, Inc.

Our neighbor is a native of Durham, N.C. but has been in our town since 1950.

Mrs. Gattis resides with her lovely family in the 1500 block of N. Spring St. Our good neighbor is an active member of the Southern Baptist Church, and is a member of Sunday school class.

Other members of the family include George Jr., age 19, an employee in the Xray Department of the Baltimore City Hospitals; Dwight, age 9, a 4th grader, and Thomas, 7, a second grade pupil. The two younger sons attend School 146, Preston and Eden Streets.

Mrs. Gattis attended the East End School in Durham. Her hobbies include working in her garden, parent helper at school her sons attend, making delicious pies and cakes and helping in her community.

Her favorite color is blue; she likes the 23rd Psalm; can be always heard singing "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross."

"Surprise! Surprise!" This was the sound that greeted personable Joseph Ligons, 9th grade teacher at School 146, last week . . . The cheers were coming from the happy students of his class who wanted to show him how much they had appreciated his love . . . understanding . . . and patience . . . during the school term.

In a very pretty setting and plenty of goodies, a good time was had by all.

ARRANGING the affair were: Deborah Amos, Adah Crum, Janice Burton, Jannese Shavers, Yolanda Hamlette and Martha Wheeler.

Others having fun were Valerie Acree, Andria Andrews, Dianne Arrington, Dorothy Best, Reginia Brown, Mildred Carroll, Rebecca Gilliam, Peggy Hall, Terry Jackson and Vernetta Jones.

Also Mary Key, Rumaine Penn, Maggie Thomas, Brenda Thurmon, Frances Wright and Shelia Giles.

Others enjoying the fun were Perry Alexander, Tyrone Carter, David Ellison, Robert Harrison, Darry Harrod, Clyde Hatcher, Charles Jones; Dennis Mason and James Melvin, Lt. Samuel Phillips, William Poole, Gregory Randle, Franklin Swann, Edward Tillery, Daniel Wilkerson, Barry Woodard, Renfort Carter and Bruce Mollar.

Remember to attend the student Art Exhibit given by the Baltimore City Public Schools held at Mondawmin Mall . . .

AMONG PARTY hostesses in Baltimore, Saturday evening, were members of the Bavileds Club, whose cabaret affair was held in Cherry Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thomas, right, of the club.

Men star in NAFAD Designers' show

While there was no dearth of attractive designs shown by ladies of the Baltimore and Washington chapters of NAFAD, it was two men who stole the show at the Seventh Annual affair, here, Sunday.

Particularly fresh and startling were some of the clothes designed by Clarence Mattison, a 23-year-old youth in whose talent the Atlanta, Ga. chapter of NAFAD has so much confidence that they are sponsoring his education at Lincoln University.

• • •

A FOUR-PIECE beach outfit, demurely modest with a brief top and matching skirt, revealed a bikini at the opposite end of the pole when the top and skirt were removed. A cover-up evening gown of white chiffon, the bottom paved with self cabbage roses, was quite decolete when the cape-like stole came off. Mr. Mattison used pleats extensively on his numbers, from hostess gown to tailored suits.

• • •

MR. Mattison and William I. Leggett of Trenton, N.J. modeled men's attire. As with women's wear, the former's outfits were avante garde. Both trousers and coat sleeves were short . . . showing an expanse of hose at the ankle and sleeve cuff at the wrist. He modeled a dinner jacket in bright pink, blue and silver metallic cloth, and worn with a pale blue ruffled shirt, among the half dozen ensembles he showed. Mr. Leggett's wardrobe was conservative, but emphasized fine material and subdued colors.

• • •

AMONG the designs shown by Lucenda Daniels of Washington was a taileur in brown patterned wool, the skirt slim, the jacket double-breasted, and accessorized with brown blouse and brown beret. She also showed a lounging outfit, the pants of orange velvet, with deep slits at the side and a paisley cut velvet top. A third item which drew applause was an elegant, floor-length evening coat.

A cocktail suit, emphasizing scallops at the jacket hem as well as the hem of the skirt, was a prize number shown by another man designer, James Clark of Washington.

• • •

A STARTLING number designed by Jacqueline Birett of this city, was a luscious champagne satin evening gown with an unexpected twirl at the bottom of the fitted skirt back, and an equally unexpected slit at center skirt front that reached to above the knees. The fashions were shown following a luncheon held at No. 1 West, and directed by Mrs. Nell Sheridan, who heads the local chapter of the National Association of Fashion and Accessory Designers.

• • •

OTHER members of the chapter participating included Mrs. Odelie B. Rea, who narrated, Mesdames Maxine Boyd, Dorothy Stokes, June Lockett and Marian F. Ross. They were augmented by members of the Junior group, including misses Sylvia Hamlett, Beverly Booth and Joyce Williams.

Models included Mesdames Jean H. Williams, Melimee Yerrell, Patricia Press and Gwendolyn Biddle. Guest models were Miss Burnette Holmes, of Philadelphia, who modeled for Mr. Mattison; Mrs. Edyth Smith, Mrs. Alice Bailey and Miss Shirley Kyle.

• • •

OUT-OF-TOWN guests attending the showing were Mrs. Carrie S. Washington, Mrs. Sarah S. Short, Mrs. Lucenda N. Daniels of Washington.

Baltimoreans present were:

Mesdames Carolyn Carter, Joyce Taylor, Ruth Perkins, Elaine White, Marcelyn Cooke, Ernestine Faire, Reina Sorrell.

Mesdames Helena Hicks, Theo Berry, Charlotte W. Mason, Vivian S. Reed, Berta Jackson, Virginia Bell, Sylvia Bagwell, Mesdames Ruth Peters, Minnie Poole, Mary J. Green, Doris G. Jackson, Pauline Jones.

Mesdames Ida Bowman, Augusta Marshall, Sophia Brown, Minnie Williams, Pauline Brooks, Charlotte Brown, Queenie Lane, Ethel Hodges, Elma Robinson;

Misses Rosa Dorsey, Rosalyn Brown, Lucille Lee, Juanita Marlow, Marcelyne Cooke, Paula Brooks, Carol Williams, Madelina Stevenson, Rescholle Reed.

Misses Beverly Booth, Alfarice Young, Haydee Patterson, Rosa—M. Fair, Mildred Jones, Pearl Johnson, Carrite O. Johnson, Roberta Clark, Yvonne Coles, Blanche Dudley, Rose Lane.

Misses Janice Smith, Florence Hubbard, Lillian Wilson, Clara Armour, Velma Jackson;

Robert Johnson, Charles Owens, Charles Smith, Harold Williams, Earl Boye, Edward Britton, Jacob W. Leggs; Mr. and Mrs. William L. Burton.

New Viet crisis

SAIGON, — A simmering religious - political crisis erupted into the open Thursday when South Vietnamese Roman Catholic leaders called for the ouster of Premier Phan Huy Quat's civilian government.

Father Hoang Quynh, the most active of the country's politically minded priests, presented a list of grievances to chief of state Phan Khac Sua at the Bia Gia Long Palace.

Lawn reception for Miss Yvonne Lansey

Miss Yvonne Frances Lansey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Gaines Lansey, and a current debutante, was honoree at a reception given by her parents, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Paul Moss, Sunday afternoon.

The reception was held on the lawn of the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy in Morgan Park.

• • •

MISS LANSEY made her debut at the Spring Ball and Cotillion of the Me-De-So Club, at which she was sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hunt.

A graduate of Forest Park High School, she is now a freshman at Morgan State College, where she is majoring in psychology.

• • •

FOR THE RECEPTION on Sunday afternoon, the debutante wore a frock with fitted bodice of hot pink and a full skirt of white embroidered cotton. Her accessories were in the pink, and she carried a nosegay of roses surrounded by daisies.

Mrs. Lansey selected an ensemble consisting of aqua silk dress and matching shoes. Miss Priscilla Lansey, sister of the honoree, wore a paisley print, and Mrs. Hunt, a dress in three shades of pink. Mrs. Moss chose an ensemble in black.

They, with Messrs. Lansey and Moss; and Dr. Hunt composed the receiving line.

• • •

GUESTS were introduced to the line by Mrs. Carl Murphy and Mrs. Clarence Henderson: who wore dresses in blue and beige, respectively.

The League for Human Rights - Baltimore County gets its 1965 social season under way with a family picnic at the McKeldin Area, Patapsco State Park, Marriottsville Road between Baltimore National Pike — Route 40 — and Liberty Road, on Wednesday, June 16 at 5 p.m.

Members and friends of the League are encouraged to attend this affair.

The League will supply coffee, iced tea and punch. The only cost is a service charge of $1 per family. Please call Bob Latane, HU. 6-7975 and make your reservations.

William Ross, Dan Nitzberg, King Bobian, Reginald Evelyn and Fay Strauss of the League for Human Rights, Frank Igleart, Edgar Fiengold and Julian Hildenbrand of the Human Relations Commission met with assistant superintendents Josh Wheeler and Melvin Cole and Personnel Director J. J. Synder of the county school system Monday to discuss the county plan for complete desegregation of the schools in compliance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

• • •

THIS COLUMN reported the passage of enabling legislation for the establishment of an anti - poverty program for the county's disadvantaged citizens.

We note that there is a concerted effort by an unidentified group, supposedly the right wing organizations, to petition this bill to referendum.

We strongly encourage all county citizens to carefully read the petition and the bill, No. 36, prior to taking action on the petition. This bill should greatly enhance the position of the readers of this column and should be permitted to function as passed by the county council.
