Viet Cong hit close to Saigon

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist guerillas raided a town only 10 miles from Saigon and staged a double ambush on a government battalion further north. U.S. Marines routed the Viet Cong in two other engagements.

Casualties in the first two battles Thursday were about 90 government troops killed or wounded and one senior U.S. adviser wounded.

Report flight

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet News Agency Tass reported the launching of the American spaceship Gemini 4 in some detail although it had ignored preparations for the shot.

School plan is rejected

BOSTON — Mrs. Louise Day Hicks, fiery chairwoman of the Boston School Committee, told Gov. John A. Volpe face - to - face that she disapproved of his plans for racial blance in public schools.

Mrs. Hicks let her position be known during a 35-minute State House meeting with Volpe but offered a terse "no comment" when asked by newsmen what she said to the governor.

Gadabouting In Baltimore

Baltimore site for Companions' fete

By Lula Jones Garrett

The Companions held a two-day conference, here, Friday and Saturday, in the Town House Motel . . . drawing members from their chapters in Washington, Salisbury and this city.

On Friday evening the local Companions held open house, and Saturday, after a Continental breakfast, the day was spent in workshops and other business.

A national executive committee appointed named Laura Brown, chairman, and Lucille Cephas, vice chairman both of the Baltimore chapter. Evelyn Greene of the Washington chapter was elected secretary and Blanche Purnell of Salisbury Md., chapter, became treasurer.

Other members of the committee include Gertrude Shockley and Violet McLennon of Salisbury; Eva Scott and Sarah Auston of Washington; and Margaret Mallory of this city.

A luncheon at noon, the presentation of a gift to Laura Brown by the Washington chapter and adjournment at four completed the conference work. Mrs. Brown had served as sponsor and advisor for the District group.

There was an interlude of relaxing prior to attending a gala party in the beautiful Forest Park home of Companion Genevieve Mason.

Attending the weekend affairs were:

Harriet Wells, Sarah Austin, Evelyn Greene, Emma Hawkins, Thelma Luck, Bettyl Muse, Eva Scott, Lula Rector, Cerring Boyd and Edythe Shepherd of Washington;

Blanche Purnell, Gertrude Shockley and Violet McLemmon of Salisbury;

Janet Woolridge, Elaine Wright, Lucille Cephas, Lucretia Whitten, Marion Carroll, Genevieve Mason, Margaret Mallory, Twilah Scarborough, Laura Brown, Marguerite Sims, Vivian Moddy, June Ross and Gladys Patterson of this city.

Husbands and escorts about were Henry Shepherd Gordon Boyd, Richard Hurt, Bartlett Hawkins, Elenston Luck, Fletcher Muse, and Alfonso Scott of Washington;

Milton Brown, Claude Patterson, Wellington Ross, Charles Cephas, Avon Wright, Alfred Woolridge, Dr. Benjamin Whitten, Leroy Carroll, Cassius Mason and Henry Scarborough of Baltimore.

MEMORIAL DAY weekend found many town Smart Set (Club) members at the Marriott Motel which the Philadelphia chapter used as headquarters for their national conclave.

This year's "Freedom" theme set the tone for the entire weekend .... and amid the flowers of the formal dance on Friday there was the thoughtful note of making a sizable (around $700) donation to the Southern Conference which is headed by Dr. Martin Luther King. the dance was on Friday night.

On Saturday a general meeting was held, and starring on the program was the Philadelphia chapter which gave a report of their civic accomplishments and contributions, which caused hearts to swell and eyes to fill.

Of course there were parties before and after, which allowed the girls to mingle, greet old friends, and meet new ones.

From this city went Kay Carter, Bertha Forte, Louise Gilliam, Ruth Jennifer, Iris Mapp, Sarah Newton, Alice Pinderhughes, Helen Queen and Dorothy Wood.

Seventy delegates attended the sessions, and they came from Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Columbus, Boston, New York, Atlantic City, Monmouth, Shore, Baltimore, Washington and Roanoke, Va.

ON SUNDAY afternoon, sorors of Alpha Gamma chapter, Delta Sigma Theta, had a farewell-to-study cocktail party in the Columbus Drive residence of Mrs. John Young, aunt of Soror Joan Watson.

Miss Watson is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Watson and the late James A. Watson. The chapter presented gifts to its three Fulbright scholars, Carolyn Harcum, Andrea West and Paulette Ligon. Each of these sorors will go to foreign countries in the fall to do further studies in their respective fields.

A beautiful silver trimmed salad bowl was presented to the chapter's advisor, Soror Beryl Williams.

As the sorors sipped champagne, cocktails and partook of the delicious delicacies prepared by Mrs. Watson, musical selections were rendered by John Young on his organ.

Attending the party also were Eleanor Peters, Lurline Jackson, JoAnn Bracy, Phylis Howard, Alpha McCulloh, Rita Bennett, Angela Current, Barbara Bowman, Annette Cherry, Cynthia Herndon, Julia Smith, Cheryl Hitchcock, Carole Williams, Zenobia Cornish, Marcia Saxon and Emily Moore.

A DELIGHTFUL party marked the closing session of the Bridgettes, Saturday.

Dr. Dolly Walker was hostess. She had just returned from Oklahoma and Oregon, where she had been in connection with her post on the U.S. Commission on Education.

The Saturday session was the one at which members exchanged gifts with secret pals . . . and to which they invited guests. The latter who won prizes were Mrs. Albert Laforest and Mrs. Harold Clark.

Other guests were Mesdames Cleveland Hopkins and Carl White. Mrs. Howard Cornish and Mrs. Edward Hurt won first and second club prizes. All the prizes were bags ..... from hand to tote.

The club members present included Dr. Theresa Brown, Mrs. Howard Cornish, Mrs. Nathaniel Proctor Mrs. Frederic Dedmond, Dr. Thelma Bando, Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Hurt and Miss Beulah Davis.

To Miss Davis went beautiful words of tribute (by Mrs. Dedmond) and two albums for the stereo which Morgan faculty members gave her at the testimonial which marked her retirement, recently. Miss Davis will be living in Delaware following the end of the Morgan College term.

A SURPRISE birthday party was given in honor of Mrs. Vilora G. Henderson by her niece Mrs. Annie M. Jackson at her home, recently.

Buffet dinner was served from a beautifully decorated table covered with white linen and decorated with pink dogwood blossoms.

Among those present were the honoree's brothers, Joshua Gray of Calvert County, Rufus Gray, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. James Gray of Arnold, Md; and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gray of this city; and her sister, Mrs. Catherine Jefferson New York City; Nieces and nephews included, attending were Mrs. Sarah Murdock, Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar "all of Baltimore; and a cousin, Mrs. Mildred Fisher also of this city.

Guests included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Arthur Chase, Charles Brown, James McGowan, Mack Jones and Chancy Thomas;

Mesdames Ethel Boone, Sophia Wilkins, Lula Elnore, Ardella Chase, Mary L. Johnson, Drucilla Booze, Mary Easley, Margaret Thrower, Laura Smith; and Arnett Branch.

THE 5-8-year age group of Jack and Jill had fun making a "Wacky Cake" with a home economist at the Central Y.W.C.A. on Saturday.

Both girls and boys enjoyed mixing and decorating the cake, as the mothers watched their children's interest and creativity in this activity.

Children present were Robin Hillen, Leda Fullen,
