MRS. M. L. BARKSDALE doesn't have to have a reason to have a party, and because she has that certain knack of making each of her party-hours shine, no one ever wonders why ... they just there, when they are lucky enough to be invited.

And so it was Sunday, when she invited some forty folk to dine with her at the Me-De-So Club.

But it did turn out that she had a purpose. Twas a birthdays day dinner, with Dr. Barksdale in mind. And it so happened, too, that it was the day on which Dr. and Mrs. Albert Laforest marked their 15th wedding anniversary, and Mrs. L. (Jimmy) her birthday.

After a cocktail hour, guests gathered about the two huge tables, afterwards participated in prize-winning games.

About for the affair were:

Messrs. and Mesdames William Parrott, William Lewis, Benjamin Barksdale, Roland Williams, Kenneth Wilson, John Osborne of Washington.

Drs. and Mesdames Raymond Hunt, Albert Laforest T. J. Woolridge, McKinley Reeby, Emerson Walden, John Camper, William Watts, Mesdames J. Logan Jackins, John Hampton, Grace Hunt, Sr., Lula Patterson, Dr. R. L. Jackson, Roland Williams, Benjmain Barksdale, Jr. and Robert Barksdale.

MEMBERS of the Baltimore Fisk University Club honored the college president, Dr. Stephen Wright, with a magnificent affair after he received an honorary degree at Morgan Commencement here Monday.

The party that began after the Morgan board of trustees dinner and extended into the wee hours was held at the Wabash Ave. home of Mrs. Phoebe H. Goff.

Among Fisk graduates present were Florie Dedmond, president; Courtney Harris, Myrue L. Jackson, Elizabeth M. Oliver, Dorothe Booze Johnson, Gordine Jones Chisholm, Christie Brown, Audlyn H. Williams, Beatrice Reesby, Mae Jonns Brown, Dr. Brenda N. Cley, Dr. R. Hayes Strider, Peter J. Buchanan, Robert S. Dunmore, and Robert Brown.

THE ALTO ROAD home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Hall rang with gaiety, Sunday, when the friends they had invited came to honor Gerald Smith.

Mr. Smith graduated cum laude from Howard University's School of Law, this week.

The cook-out among the maples found Dr. Tal Pinkney in the role of chief barbecu-er ... and his wiands added to a galaxy of others, plus appables for the littlest guests to the mothers and dads, gave verve to the party. Too, guests enjoyed conversation, meeting old chums, making new friends, and playing games.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Teaneck, N. J., where he will join the staff of NAACP's Legal Defense and Educational Fund. Mrs. Smith is the former Gwendolyn Noel. They have one daughter.

Joining them on Sunday were:

Messrs. and Mesdames James Edwards, Charles Noel, Sr., Charles Noel, Jr., Alphus Jones, Frank DeCosta, Jr., Troy Lewis, Reid Abney, George Harding, John Hargrove;

Drs. and Mesdames Talmadge Pinkney, Sidney Burnett; Messrs. and Mesdames Clifton West, Earl Flannagan and John Baker from Washington;

Mesdames Lula Smith, Delores Triple, Jeannie Henry; Misses Natalie Hall, Evelyn Harding, Cicely Hall, Kim Pinkney, Pia Pinkney, Brian Pinkney, and Janet Hargrove.

Lawrence Morton, Dr. Charles Saunders and John and Steven Hargrove.

OTHER LUSH party of the week was that given a Saturday ago by Mrs. J. Emil Hodges when she held forth in the Sheraton Inn.

The affair honored Mrs. Amelia Friend, Mrs. Anna Lyles, Mrs. Alma Berry and the hostess' daughter, Mrs. Charlene Byrd all of Charleston, W. Va., and Miss Kate Sheppard of this city and Meyersdale, Pa.

Mrs. Friend divides her time with Washington, and Mrs Lyles, with Baltimore.

But Mrs. Hodges added fifty-odd Baltimoreans to these to dine at beautifully arranged luncheon tables, to vie at bridge and pinochle and to garner beautiful gifts ... and she looked much like a gift-wrapped package herself in an embroidery splashed white frock and frosty white hat.

DR. AND MRS. M. P. GLADDEN

Miss Winckler bride of Dr. M. Gladden

St. James Episcopal Church was the setting Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Miss Brenda Dolores Winckler, daughter of Mrs. Phillbin Scott and Raymond Winckler, to Dr. Major Paul Gladden.

Dr. Gladden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gladden of this city.

The Rev. Fr. Donald Wilson, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. Miss Lois Pickens was organist.

A reception followed in the Guild Hall.

* * *

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her step - father, Philbin L. Scott, wore a gown of ivory peau de soie trimmed with antique lace. Her crown, a modified wimple of lace and seed pearls, held her bouffant veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and yellow orchids.

Miss Rayna Winckler was her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Robert Jones, the bridegroom's sister was matron of honor. Other attendants were Misses Carol Spencer, Alice Sykes, Stephanie Laforest and Brice Spears.

Junior attendants were Pamela Jeudy and Carole Boston. Robin Hillen, in all white, was flower girl.

* * *

THE HONOR attendants wore mint green, nylon organdy, floor - length dresses with matching Dior bows, and carried fan - shaped bouquets of yellow roses.

* * *

JOSEPH GLADDEN JR. was best man for his brother. The ushers included Dr. Leroy Garner of New York City, Dr. James Wills of Washington, Dr. Sylvan Campbell of Boston, Benjamin Randall and Robert Jones of this city.

Junior ushers were Philbin J. Scott Jr., the bride's brother and Bernard Gladden, the bridegroom's brother. Eugene Owens 3rd, dressed in all white, was ring - bearer.

* * *

FOR HER daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Scott chose a chic ensemble in beige, a dress which tided to torso length and from there rippled in multiple unpressed pleats to the knees. Her hat was a high crowned sailor in falminge. Mrs. Gladden was gowned in soft aqua blue chiffon, the bedice paved in sequins, with matching hat.

Hostesses who assisted at the reception included:

Mesdames Eugene Owens, William Spencer, John Wood, Benjamin Foreman, W. A. C. Hughes, Vernon Johnson, Josie Smith, Esther Laforest, Leo Hillen, Ardell Jeudy, Frank Sykes, Dolores Branch, Joseph Walker, Joseph Boston, Dolores Shorter; and Misses Jo Ann Jones and Alice Semmes.

* * *

THE NEW Mrs. Gladden is a graduate of Cedar Crest College, Allentown, Pa., a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Alpha and Omega Honorary Science Society, an alumna of Jack and Jill of America and an affiliate of the Ashburton Family Group. She made her debut in 1962 at the Me-De-So Cotillion.

Mrs. Gladden is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Morton and George Winckler and the late Mrs. George Winckler. She is the great granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Morton of this city and the late Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Pierce of Portsmouth on her maternal side.

* * *

DR. GLADDEN is a graduate of Morgan State College and the Howard University School of Medicine. He is a captain in the United States Army Reserves and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

His grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gladden and the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woodward, and great grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Musco Boulware and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack Woodward.

After a wedding trip, and as of July, the couple will live in New York City where Dr. Gladden is chief resident in orthopedic surgery at the Bronx Municipal Hospital Center.
