Mayor outlines bold inner harbor plan

Plans for the first project of the city's inner harbor area were presented Monday by Mayor Theoddre R. McKeldin at a luncheon meeting of the Committee for Downtown.

The boundaries are Lombard St., on the north, Gay St., and the west side of Pier 3 on Pratt St., on the east, Key Highway and Hughes St., on the south, roughly Light St., Conaway and Charles St., on the west.

The plans, the mayor told the assembly, call for the demolition of Piers 1 and 2 and the existing bulkhead line along Pratt St., extended somewhat south.

Pratt St., will be widened to provide a broad landscaped strip on either side. All structures in the area will be demolished, with the exception of the News-American building.

THE FOLLOWING, will be substituted for existing uses within the area:

1. On the south side of Pratt St., at the foot of what is now Commerce St., there will be constructed an international trade center by the Maryland Port Authority.

2. The two blocks north of Pratt St., bounded by Pratt, Light, Lombard and South Sts., will be used for a combination of high-rise and terrace apartments.

3. The blocks on the northwest corner of Pratt and Light, bounded by Pratt, South Charles, Lombard and Light, is designated for the construction of a private office building.

4. The two blocks to the south of the office building lot, bounded by Charles, Pratt, Light and Conway, will be made available by the city to the Maryland Academy of Sciences for the construction of a science center.

5. The area between light St., and the water, from Pratt to York Sts., will be a park, including such recreational activities as a restaurant, repertory theater, a summer tent playhouse and an acquarama.

6. In the harbor just to the east of this recreation area a marina will be constructed along with a motel-boatel with 300 rooms and 200 to 300 boat slips.

7. The cleared area at the southern end of the harbor from Light St., to Battery Ave., will provide athletic fields for Southern High bli rb!' $zz 1, 6lh ; fields for Southern High School as well as some public Park area.

ALSO PLANNED for the area are such municipal facilities as a new police headquarters, an education administration building, a Department of Public Welfare building and one to house the Municipal Court system.

Cost for these four facilities, including sites, total approximately $20,000,000, and they will, if matters go as planned, be bond issues on next year's November ballot for voters to approve or reject.

Mayor McKeldin envisioned another year of detailed planning for the initial project, with neccessary City Council action next spring.

Then property acquisition and demolition would require another two or three years.

The overall period, he estimated, would be about five years.

Which was 18th century England's favourite pastime: Rugby or Gordon's?

Sporting Englishmen first played Rugby around 1870. Which means Gordon's had the field to itself for over a century. Since 1769, to be precise. The year Mr. Gordon made his silky-smooth, icy-dry discovery. The gin that's still England's biggest seller. Not to mention America. And all the rest of the fun-loving world. Next time you're in a sporting mood, try Gordon's. Every bit as exhilarating as Rugby. But not so exhausting.

Birthday Tributes

BALLARD — A birthday Tribute in memory of our dear mother, sister and grandmother, LETTIE J. on her birthday, June 11 and who passed July 18, 1964:
There is no death, although we grieve,
When beautiful familiar forms
That we have learned to love are
From our embracing arms,
They are not dead—
They have but passed
Beyond the mists that blind us here,
into that new and longer life.
Of that serener sphere.
Loving CHILDREN, SISTERS and GRANDCHILDREN

In Memoriams

ARMSTEAD — In loving memory of our son, husband and father, JAMES LEWIS, who passed away June 16, 1962:
Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place.
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears to mingle often-times;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us three years ago.
Loving MOTHER, WIFE And CHILDREN

BROWN — In memory of WILLIAM J. BROWN, Sr., who passed three years ago, June 12, 1962:
Do not think if we have you do dear,
Walk slowly down that long, long path
For soon I will follow you,
I want to follow each step you take,
So I may take the same,
For some day down that lonely road
You will hear me call your name.
Loving Wife, ETTA A.

HILL — A tribute of love to the memory of my dear husband, JAMES E., who passed away six years ago, June 16, 1959:
A silent thought, a secret tear,
Keeps his memory ever dear;
Time takes away the edge of grief
But memory turns back every leaf.
NETTIE HILL

MARSHALL — In loving memory of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, CYRUS W. MARSHALL SR., who passed away four years ago, June 10, 1961:
We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind
In memories we cherish loved one
In our lonely hours of sorrow
Thoughts of you are ever near.
Wife, LELA MATTHEWS
Daughters, EVELYN J. JOHNSON, LELA E. FAIRFAX Grandson, EARL P. MATTHEWS

DUTTON — In loving memory of our dear husband, JAMES, who passed away June 9, 1960:
When the evening shades are falling
And I am sitting all alone,
I think of days gone by, and long for you
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
Five years ago today.
WIFE

WADE — In loving memory of our husband and father, LUTHER R., who passed away June 12, 1964:
Today our hearts are heavy,
Our thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how we miss you, husband and father dear,
Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But so it isn't true.
For one long year has passed dear
And our hearts still ache for you.
Loving Wife, THELMA

WHIRLEY — In loving memory of our dear wife, MARY E. WHIRLEY, who passed away June 14, 1964:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how I miss you, MARY dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But no, it isn't true.
For one long year has passed, dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
Husband, JOHN WHIRLEY

WOODHOUSE — In loving memory of our dear relative, MARY K. WOODHOUSE, who passed away June 13, 1959:

Is your life on and days go by,
In our hearts a memory is kept
Of one we will never forget.
Daughter, JULIA W. Hardman
