FOURTH-GRADE CLASS of Mrs. Asalee Portee of Victory School No. 233 visited AFRO on Tuesday.

Teacher stricken, but pupils carry out her plans, make trip

They made it anyway. Although their teacher, Mrs. Asalee Portee, became suddenly ill and was rushed to the hospital, a fourth grade class of Victoria Elementary School no. 238, Fairfield, visited the AFRO as scheduled on Tuesday as she had planned.

They were chaperoned by Clement L. Richmond, a teacher at the same school. With Mr. Richmond were parents, Mrs. Burroughs and Mrs. Randall.

Pupils include James Johnson, Tyrone Mackson, Patricia Sampson, Charmene Minter, Patricia Morrison, Elaine Carpenter, Reginald Carpenter.

Mary Randall, Rhoda Gunthrop, Ivan Alexander, Elroy Williams, Michael Gallman, Jerry Hodge Jerome Hunt, Gregory Hall, Allen Jones, Beverly Reese, Margaret Corbert.

Denise Archer, Victoria Smith, Gennell Carter, Gloria Veney, Janice Everett, Tamaqua Johnson, Guy Leeper, Carolyn Jenkins, April Burroughs, Alice Trasher and Earline Coates.

At AFRO presstime, it was reported by Mrs. Charlotte P. Flanagan, the principal, that Mrs. Portee was doing well, and, in fact, had attended class the next day.

She had become suddenly ill upon hearing of the death of a relative and was rushed to South Baltimore General Hospital.

Council split

pher, Edelman, Rubenstein and Schaefer, for a total of eight.

AGAINST — Bonnett, Duffy, Staszak, Panuska, Prucha, Curran, Gallagher, Piva, Caplan, Hines, Leone and Myers.

THIS MEANS in the housing voting, the D'Alesandro forces lost Bonnett, Duffy, Staszak (1st); Prucha (2nd); Curran (3rd) and Hines (6th), six faction members who are against this rights legislation.

But, they picked up from the opposing camp Dixon, Soppher (4t); Edelman and Rubenstein (5th), four Gallagher faction members who are for (civil rights) measures.

There have been some other Council matters in which the councilmen have transcended opposing factional lines, but none quite as steadfastly drawn as in this area.

Only recommendation anybody has offered to date for enticing more votes on fair housing comes from Mr. D'Alesandro and Councilman Schaefer, who are sponsoring still another study group on the matter.

Nobody knows yet what to do about that 10-10 deadlock in filling the Council vacancy.

Harford County complies with civil rights act

BEL AIR, Md.—The Harford County Board of Education at the same time it received notice that it would not lose federal funds under the 1964 Civil Rights Act, acquired its first colored member.

Named to the post by Gov. Tawes was Charles F. Nealy, 61, a retired supervisor of data processing at Aberdeen Proving Ground.

Mr. Nealy's appointment was upon recommendation of the Democratic State Central Committee, although two years ago he ran for the House of Deegates as a Republican.

THE HARFORD BOARD'S four - point desegregation plans filed with the Health, Education and Welfare Department in Washington insured that the county would continue to share in federal money received under 11 different grants.

The voluntary compliance with Title Six of the Civil Rights Act pledged the Harford Board of Education to:

1. Rearrange all geographical attendance areas to remove all lines drawn according to race;

2. Close all formerly all-colored schools;

3. Absorb all colored students and faculty members into predominantly white schools;

4. Completely desegregate all schools by the opening of the new school term in September, 1965.

Mr. Nealy, presently a substitute teacher, is a member of the County Physical Fitness Commission and of the Havre De Grace nursing home planning committee.
