News From Eastside

By CHARLOTTE W. MASON

Our Good Neighbor of the Week is pleasant Mrs. Helen Coates, a school crossing guard stationed at the corner of Preston and Eden Sts.

Mrs. Coates is the wife of Melvin Coates, an employee of a plastic firm. They are the proud parents of four lovely children, Melvin Jr., age 7; Cynthia, 5; Monica, 4, and Donna, 4. The school age children attend Columbia School No. 99.

Mrs. Coates is a native of Pasadena. The family attends Mount Olivet Christian Church.

Among her many hobbies are sewing, reading and helping children. Her favorite dish is southern fried chicken.

ON LAST Sunday at 3 p.m the senior choir No. 2 of Mt Pleasant Baptist Church celebrated its fourth anniversary Sunday.

Highlight of the service was the message brought by the Rev. Moses Williams, pastor of Zion Baptist Church.

Other participants included, Mesdames Mary Battle, Yvonne Artis, Frances Brace, Miss Queen Vaughan; Messrs James Blanche Pullen, Doris Cooper and the Rev. L. Williams.

Mrs. Janet Blackman made the presentations. The Senior Choir was organized in 1960 by the Rev. Williams and at present is under the direction of Mrs. Alice Gibbs.

Officers are Mesdames Doris Cooper, president; Rebecca Pullen, vice president; Lossie Tucker, recording secretary; Ella Berry, assistant secretary; Rachel Miles, financial secretary.

JUST TOOOO swellegant was the "farewell party" passed by the students of Mrs. Theola White, teacher at Preston Elementary.

The members of the class are saddened because they must leave Mrs. White so they decided to give a farewell party.

Among those having a wonderful time were Gary Bailey, William Barnes, Floyd Genton, Melvin Batts, Marvin Brooks, Shirley Davis and Anthony Dukes, Joann Dunlap, Allen Perges, Tara O. Hayes, Gregory Johnson;

Also Athel Keller, John A. Lewis, Ames McCallum, William McCoy, Gwendolyn Knight, James Miller, John Parker, Beverly Randle, Clyde Sanders, Brenda Vatines, Gregory Williams, James Williams and Robert Williams.

RECENTLY the officers and members of the "Whatsoever Club," of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church gave an interesting program," Glorify Your Own." Mrs. Mattie Swinton is president and Mrs. Daisy Thompson the program chairman.

Participants were Mesdames Johnnie Sansaffres, Hazel J. Williams, Mattie Swinton, Gertrude Alston; Misses Glory Johnson, Shirley Barber; Dwyn Williams, James Gill Jr., Ernest Davis, Charles English, Robert Johnson, Edward Pullen and Joseph Lee Sr.

Neighbors remember to visit our sick and shutins . . . a card will help cheer them. They are:

Mrs. Mamie McNeil, 304 Raleigh Rd.; William Bell, 1431 N. Lanerner; Anthony Dease, 1323 N. Kenwood Ave.

Franklin succeeds Lee in "post"

A. Edward Franklin is the new youth work secretary of the Druid Hill Avenue Branch of the YMCA of the Greater Baltimore Area. Mr. Franklin, formerly physical director at this branch, takes over his new duties on the retirement of Joseph E. Lee.

Donald Anthony Wright of Wilmington, Mass., and a June graduate of Delaware State College, will head the department of physical and health education.

Leroy Hilliard of Salisbury and a graduate of the A and T College in Greensboro, N. C., will be the assistant physical director.

Wilbur Cooke and John W. Crooms, teachers in the Baltimore Public Schools, will direct the day camp again for the fourth season.

CATHOLICS TO HONOR FRANCIS GALLAGHER

Francis X. Gallagher, legal counsel for the Archdiocese of Baltimore, has been named Holy Name Man of the Year. The award will be made prior to the group's twelfth annual Family Night baseball game July 2 when the Orioles meet the Cleveland Indians.

JUNE 20

Dr. James Nix; dean of Morgan State College and president of the Big Brothers of Baltimore Inc. will be the speaker for Family Day at Sharon Baptist Church, 11 a.m.

Maryland National opens 75th branch

Maryland National Bank will open its 75th office Monday at 2404 Reedie Dr. in Wheaton, Montgomery County, "Robert D. H. Harvey, chief executive officer announced this week.

The new office is housed in an "Instant Bank," a unique unit built especially for the bank which will be occupied while a permanent building is being constructed on an adjacent site.

Walter G. Haynie, assistant cashier, will manage the new office.

Great Books

The Great Books Foundation is offering an eight - session Leader Training Course, beginning on June 21 at the Towson YMCA.

Persons desiring to register for the course or who desire further information may call WI 4-1182.

Teachers back county agency

The executive board of the Teacher Association of Baltimore County has commended the Baltimore County Council and Administration for the creation of the County Economic Opportunity Agency.

In a resolution the Board said: "The obvious need for remedial education, employment assistance, improved health and welfare services and better recreation facilities for this county's low-income population makes the creation of this agency appropriate, proper and in the interests of the total citizenry in Baltimore County."

The Association's 4,600 members have been asked to attempt to determine whether groups opposing the agency are doing so because minority groups will receive assistance.

Municipal Band plans concert

The Municipal Concert Band will perform Sunday, from 7 to 9 p.m., Harlem Park Square, Harlem Ave. and Gilmor St.
