CRC to move to 210 N. Calvert

Baltimore's Community Relations Commission announced Wednesday the moving of its headquarters within the next 30 days to more spacious quarters on the fourth floor at 210 N Calvert St.

CRC, since its establishment in 1957 as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, has been located on the third floor of the People's Court Building, Fayette and Gay Sts.

Meanwhile, Samuel T. Daniels, CRC director, and there has been no further action in the Meadowbrook Club case, where a cease and desist order has been issued to force the club to admit colored citizens.

The matter is before the Internal Revenue Dept. on the management's contention it should be exempted from the city law on the grounds it is a non-profit private organization.

The Internal Revenue's decision is expected any day now.
