Edmondson students to Puerto Rico

Six Edmondson High School Spanish students will combine practical experience with theory when they visit Puerto Rico next week to test their skills on experts in Spanish—the natives.

Accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Ann V. Young, a graduate of the University of Puerto Rico. The touring students all of whom have studied Spanish for four years, include:

Misses Janey Petty, Connie Jones, Michele Jones, Gazelle Sligh, Nancy Ross and Patricia Peaster.

ALSO making the tour are Mesdames Catherine Thompson, Loistene McIntyre Virginia Hays, Barbara Allen, Mildred Jackson, Iris Jones, Hazel Lee; Misses Merle Rawlings, Carolyn Stubbs, Maxine Johnson, Lois Williams, Geneva Green and Selena Foster are also making the tour. The party leaves Sunday.

THINK OF THEM AS AFRO BABIES

Pugh triplets 10 years old; 'they're all good children'

"They are all good children. Thank God they are rarely sick. No one can tell the girls apart except members of the family. To us they don't look alike."

Mrs. Adolphus Pugh (Dorothy), 2301 Seamon Ave., was talking about her triplets, Diane, David and Debra, who were 10 years old on June 8.

They were surprised with a party given by their brother, Philip, 16 who graduated Thursday from Cherry Hill Junior High School No. 180.

• • •

THE CHERRY HILL triplets made their first Holy Communion the first Sunday in May.

Diane is a third grader and David is a fourth grader both at Patapsco Elementary School No. 163.

Debra is a fourth grader at Carter Godwin Woodson Elementary No. 180.

Other brothers and sisters are Wesley, 14, an 8th grader and Candace, 13, a 7th grader both at School No. 180 and Pamela, 11, a 5th grader at School No. 163.

• • •

THE CHILDREN'S mother told the AFRO this week that the girls love each other very much.

They need no other playmates although they do play with others', she said.

The boy, David, however, "teases them a lot. He just loves baseball, always talks about pitching."

She revealed that the girls like to play with paper dolls. They have quite a few of them.

At birth, Debra weighed six pounds and one ounce. Today she is 52 pounds.

Diane, who weighed in at six pounds, is now 53 pounds.

David, who was 5 pounds, 5½ ounces, at birth, is a hefty 61 pounds.

All have the sandy hair and light eyes they had at birth.

Mrs. Pugh said she thinks of them as AFRO babies because "the AFRO gave so much to us when they were born. Other papers ran the story, but the AFRO ran pictures and other stories."

She observed that the children attend different schools now and that separation is good for them. They are doing better in school because they can shine in their own light."

The family attends St. Veronica Catholic Church.

THEN AND NOW — The Pugh Triplets, Debra, David and Diane, are shown at top as they look today. Below, as they looked shortly after they were born on June 8, 1955. The sandy - haired trio attend public school and live in the Cherry Hill section of Baltimore. (AFRO Photo by Otha Mackay).

Today's Menu

For a delicious Suppon on the Porch, serve:
Pork Goulash with Noodles
Spinach Souffle
Sliced Apple Bake
Toased Green Salad
Devil's Food Parfait Cake

• • •

THE PORK GOULASH with noodles is made with one - fourth cup flour, one - half teaspoo n garlic salt, dash pepper, one and one - half teaspoon garlic salt, two tablespoons shortening, one can (10½ ounces) condensed onion soup.

Also one - half cup water, one cup cooked tomatoes, one - half medium green pepper, cut into strips, one - fourth cup chopped celery, one - eighth teaspoon ground thyme, and two cups cooked noodles (about 4 ounces uncooked)

COMBINE flour, garlic salt, and pepper; roll meat in shortening; pour off any excess drippings.

Add soup, water, tomatoes, green pepper, celery, and thyme. Sprinkle remaining flour over mixture. Cover; simmer 1 hour or until meat is tender; stir often.

Uncover; cook 15 minutes more to thicken sauce. Serve over noodles.

Makes 6 servings.
