pect it now."

MRS. FEDORA BROOKS, 2120 W. Mulberry St., had a happier viewpoint about the matter. She said:

"I'll be gald for the expressway to come through here. The traffic on this street is so heavy it shakes the glassware in my china closet.

"We have been here 17 years and made many improvements, including a new heating plant, painted walls and a patio my husband has built.

"Still, I'll be glad to get away from here and this traffic. Our only hope is that we can get a good price for our home from the city.

"We wouldn't have bought here, had we known they were going to make Mulberry St. a boulevard."

ANOTHER RECENT resident of the area, Mrs. Pearl White, 314 N. Monroe St., who formerly lived a block north in the path of the expressway route at 421 N. Monroe, had these comments:

"It doesn't bother me now. I'm out of there and gald of it."

Among the many who are very much worried, though, is Mrs. Alice V. Lee, 430 N. Carrollton Ave. Here is her brief observation:

"I'll have to get out of here, I know. But I don't know or have any idea where I will go. I will have been here 25 years in March."

"I have no plans for moving and no idea now of where I would go."

SO WENT the observations of many of those contacted in the path of the East-West Expressway.

They are among the residents of such routes many city officials have tagged as "Expressway dwellers."

Almost to a person, they seemed resigned to the pending loss of their homes.

Nobody seems to know where the next home would be, no more than city officials now know.

Another of the East-west Expressway ordinances put before the Council, Monday woull authorize the eastern section from Wolfe St. to Kennedy Highway along the harbor basin.

WILLIAM D. SCHAEFER (5th D.), chairman of the Council's Judiciary Committee, will begin public hearings on this leg next month, with hopes of having it cleared when the Council reconvenes in September.

Councilman Schaefer expects to start open hearings on the Mulberry-Franklin Sts. corridor shortly after the Council ends its summer recess.

A federal timetable calls for the expressway system to be completed by 1972, to retain federal supporting funds.

Officials have no flat predictions at this point, only hopeful conjecture, that this can be met.

—Blind workers

port of blind workers, met at AFL-CIO headquarters.

At 8 p.m. the regular monthly meeting of workshop employees was held at Walbrook-Trinity Presbyterian Church.

As a result of this meeting with members of the Joint Committee on Aid to the Blind of which the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) is a member, these proposals were made:

Extension of employee benefits, yearly review of salary scale, and passage to take care of the blind similar to that already established in other states.

The Rev. Mr. Fraser showed special interest in CORE's committee membership and observed:

"Some real good solutions should emerge in the future. If these meetings fail to resolve the demonstrations will follow and the pressures of public opinion will be brought to bear," he predicted.

Another meeting is planned for 10 a.m. June 24 with the management of the workshop. Reconciliation of the differences between the committee and management and enlightenment of labor practices are the goals for this conference, it was announced.

—Expressway

the children who play around in those alleys will start getting sick with evers and diseases."

* * *

AS HE talked Mr. Scott walked to the end of his block. Pointing to the parrish entrance off the 1400 block of Gilmore St., he declared:

"See, right there is where the street cleaners leave their trash to be picked up and if he window it blows right up into Parrish St.

"I thought I was doing something not only to make it more comfortable for (myself) but for everybody else.

"Maybe after I cool off a bit I'll continue cleaning up around here and find a way to get rid of the trash. I don't know, I just don't know."

ACCORDING to law-enforcement sources Mr. Scott was legally wrong.

The law states that if he collects trash and debris from the street, it is his responsibility to see that it is properly deposed of.

What Mr. Scott would like to see now is the law keep the streets and alleys clean the way they should. It doesn't seem too much to ask.

sign with Colts

The Baltimore Colts announced Thursday that Ted Davis and Alvin Haymond had signed 1965 contracts.

Both checked into the Colts' training camp as rookies last summer and survived to see spot duty in the offensive and defensive lineups.

As a relief man for All-Pro defensive halfback, Bob Boyd, the 6-foot, 190-pound Haymond didn't get much of an opportunity to cut loose last year.

With one pro season behind him, the New Orleans, La., product could be ready to bid for first string service in 1965. The Colts drafted Alvin from Southern University as their 18th choice.

In Memoriams

ANDERSON — In loving memory of our husband, father and grandfather, JOHN W. ANDERSON, who passed away May 8, 1963:
As years roll on and days go by,
Loving memories never die,
Of one we will never forget,
WIFE, CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN

JACKSON — In loving memory of our daughter, and my little friend, LENNY, SR., who passed away January 18, 1960:
You're not forgotten, loved one, nor ever shall you be,
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.
GRANDCHILDREN and DAUGHTER - IN - LAW

JEFFERSON — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, JANE E. JEFFERSON, who passed away June 18, 1960:
Your memory to us is a keepsake,
With which we shall never part,
Though God has you in His keeping,
We still have you in our hearts.
Loving Daughters,
MRS. GERTRUDE J. SHIRLEY
MRS. VIOLET A. J. FORD and GRANDCHILDREN

JENSON — In loving memory of my wife, ALICE R., who passed away June 18, 1964:
What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more
In Heaven, that happy life.
HUSBAND AND FAMILY.

JOYNOR — In loving memory of our dear mother and sister, LIZZIE W., who passed away seven years ago, June 18, 1958:
A wonderful mother, woman and aid;
One who was better God never made;
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
One in a million—that, mother, was you.
Just in your judgment, always right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
Wonderful mother—that, mother, was you.
YOUR LOVING DAUGHTERS and SON
MILDRED and CLARENCE
SISTER — ALICE.

LEE — In memory of ALICE V., who departed this life June 18, 1961:

A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our hearts
Which can never be filled
DAUGHTER and SON
REVEREND and MRS. ALFRED and MAGGIE V. GIBSON

LUMPKIN — In loving memory of our Father's Day, EDWARD E., who passed away June 18, 1961:
We do not need a special day
To bring you to our mind,
The days we do not think of you,
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give
We would give it yet again,
To see the face of my dear Godfather
On this Father's Day.
Goddaughter
ANNETTA WOODFORK

LUMPKIN — In loving memory of our husband and father on Father's day, EDWARD E. LUMPKIN, who passed this life on May 11, 1964:
If we had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand
And heard the last sigh from your heart,
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had,
We did not see you die,
We only know you went far away
And said goodbye.
Wife—ROSE LUMPKIN
Daughter—MINA BETTS

MINTER — In loving memory of our dear father, CHARLES CLIFTON, who passed away June 18, 1957:
Gone, but not forgotten.
We will remember thee.
Wife — GOLDEE A. MINTER

PAINE — In memory of our loved son, EDWARD CHRISTOPHER, who passed away June 20, 1951:
The rolling stream keeps on of life rolls on,
But still the vacant Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of the one who once set there.

MOTHER, DAD, FAMILY.

PARKER — In loving memory of my wife, ADA B., who passed away June 20, 1961:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, How I miss you Ada dear,
None but God in heaven can see.
Some day time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true
For four long years have passed dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
Husband—PERCY PARKER.

TATE — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, JAMES WALTER, who passed away June 20, 1962:
As years roll on and days go by,
Loving memories never die
In our hearts a memory is kept
Of one we will never forget.
LOVING WIFE—
LENA TATE and CHILDREN

TUNNAGE — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, WILLIAM, who passed away June 18, 1961:
You was tired and weary,
Weary from toil and pain,
But aside his glasses,
He'd not need them again.
Into Heaven's mansion he entered,
Where no sigh or weep,
After long years of life's struggle,
Top his fallen to sleep.
You made none a last farewell,
You said goodbye to no one,
Your dear heart just ceased to beat,
And suddenly it were gone.
At the time when life could be Sweetest,
And you could have lived your best
The gates of Heaven opened
And you entered into eternal rest.
LOVING WIFE and CHILDREN

WILSON — In loving memory of our sister, PARNITE, who passed away June 18, 1961:
Long years have shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance dear of you.
SISTER and BROTHERS.

WOOLFORD — A Father's Day tribute to our husband and father, JOHN W., who passed away June 18, 1961:
The prayer we'll make on Father's Day
Is that God will give you, too
Still more and more of all the joys
We had, dear Dad, because of you.
Wife and CHILDREN

A tribute to my Father-in-Law, on Father's Day:
Gone is the face we loved so dear
Gone is the voice we loved to hear
Too far away for sight or speech
But no far too far for thought to reach
Sweet is to remember him who once was here
And who, though absent, is just as dear.
SADIE A. WOOLFORD
