In the Orphans Court of Baltimore City

The matter coming on for hearing and the testimony offered being duly read, heard and considered, after argument of counsel, it appearing to the Court that due notice by publication in accordance with the provisions of Section 142 of Article 72 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland has been given by Washington Bowie Executor in the will named of Mary E. Dunbar of the appointment of a trustee of the bequest entitled to legacies under the will of the said Mary E. Dunbar for the purpose of distribution thereof.

And it is further appearing to the Court that Emma Bartley one of the legatees mentioned in the said will, died prior to the testatrix and that at the time of her said death said Emma Bartley was domiciled in the City of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, and that at the time of her death she left surviving her her husband, John Bartley, a sister Henrietta M. Millan, a brother C. A. Wittenbruger and Charles M. Shute, a nephew, son of a deceased sister, but left no children nor descendants thereof, nor was she survived by a father or mother.

It is hereby adjudged, Ordered and Decreed that the said legacy of five hundred dollars to the said Emma Bartley should be distributed under the laws of the State of Louisiana, and that under said laws said legacy is payable to and vested in said Henrietta M. Millan, C. A. Wittenbruger and Charles M. Shute equally. . . . that is to say, one third thereof is payable to each of them.

And the said Washington Bowie Executor of the Estate of Mary E. Dunbar, is hereby authorized and directed to make distribution of the said legacy accordingly. And it is further adjudged, Ordered and Decreed that the said Washington Bowie Jr. Executor of Mary E. Dunbar, pay over

English of Baltimore Maryland, to show cause if any she had why she should not turn over to said Mary B. English Administratrix a certificate for one thousand dollars in the Catholic Benevolent Legion St. Benedicts Council No 123 as said certificate was the only asset of this Estate and was being concealed by said Margaret J. English, who had no interest therein and said Margaret J. English being duly summoned on January 18th 1906, was given until January 25th 1906 to show cause if any she had, why said certificate should not be delivered to said Administratrix and as the said Margaret J. English has not shown any cause or filed any answer to said Petition

It is thereupon this 26th day of January 1906, by the Orphans Court of Baltimore ordered that Margaret J. English be and she is hereby forthwith directed to immediately turn over to Mary B. English the Administratrix of this Estate, said Certificate of the Catholic Benevolent Legion Saint Benedicts Council No 123, as said certificate is hereby declared to be an asset of this estate, and as such should be delivered to the said Administratrix, the said Margaret J. English, having concealed the same.
