Estate of Jacob Schoemaker, in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City deceased.

The matter of the Petition of Elizabeth Proctor having been heard, the Court is of the opinion that the testimony proves that the deceased left as a part of his estate, in addition to that returned by the Administrator in his inventory, a gold watch the value of which was shown to be the sum of $25, the sum of $1000 in money, and certain furniture contained in the premises No 922 Hillen Street, that although the Administrator claimed the said furniture was given by the deceased, the proof is not sufficient to establish such a gift.

It is therefore ordered by the Court that 19th day of February 1907, that Anna E. Proctor, Administrator of the personal estate of Jacob Schoemaker deceased return to the Court an additional inventory of her decedent's estate wherein she shall charge herself with the value of said watch to wit $25; with an inventory of the furniture and the furniture in the premises No 922 Hillen Street at the time of death to state to wit by Administration
