Oh, there's a million uses for ReaLemon lemon juices!

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

LEMON GRAPE COOLER

½ cup sugar
2 cups water
1 cup grape juice
1 cup REALEMON
½ cup orange juice

In a saucepan, combine sugar and water, bring to a boil and boil 5 minutes. Cool. When syrup has cooled, add fruit juices; pour over cracked ice, or ice cubes and serve. Makes about 5 cups.

ALSO USE REALEMON—A FEW DROPS—OVER FRYING FISH TO ELIMINATE UNPLEASANT COOKING ODORS.

Malcolm Amos president at Downingtown

For the first time in 41 years Downingtown Industrial and Agricultural School will find itself under the direction of a new principal on August 1. He will be the school's fourth principal.

school's full board of trustees fourth principal.

At the meeting of the school's full board of truestees on June 15 Malcolm D. Amos a Philadelphia school teacher, was elected principal and agreed to assume his new duties on August 1.

His wife teaches in Camden, N.J., but will resign to help her husband at Downingtown. Amos graduated from Cheyney State College. Later he received and M. A. degree in administration from Temple.

He has passed the examination for an elementary school principalship in Philadelphia.

The Rev. William A. Credit of Philadelphia founded Downingtown in November 1905 and served as its first principal until his death in September 1921.

Dr. J. H. N. Waring, Sr., schoolman for most of his life came out of retirement in Massachusetts to succeed Dr. Credit. After only two years at the school he succumbed to a fatal heart attack in Boston, Mass., in December 1923.

J. H. N. Waring Jr. was a member of the faculty of Howard University, in Washington, D.C. when the principalship was offered to him.

He came to Downingtown in June 1924 and served for 41 years as the schools third principal.

He has still not decided where he will live or what he will do after his retirement on July 31.

Band concerts

The Municipal Band, under the direction of Weldon J. Irvine, will present another in its series of summer concerts Sunday, June 27 at Easterwood Park, Bentalou and Baker Sts., from 7 to 9 p.m.

The program will be composed of "concert favorites."

As a special attraction in the week before the Fourth of July, the Municipal Concert Band will present programs of patriotic music at five different locations:

The schedule for the patriotic concerts, conducted by Leigh Martinet, includes:

June 28, Bocek Playground, Madison and Curley Sts.

June 29, Mondawmin Shopping Center Mall.

June 30, Dell, Charles and 31st Sts.

July 1, Mt. Vernon Place.

July 2, Northwood Shopping Center, Elsenwood Rd. and Loch Raven Blvd.

All concerts are free and begin at 8 p.m., except for the one at Mondawmin which starts at 8:30 p.m.

Step right up and Pick a Pair

Look for the Beechwood Tree at your favorite store. It's loaded with 6-paks of the King of Beers. (Naturally . . . Bud is the only beer in America that's Beechwood Aged for extra smoothness.) Now that the thirsty season is here, reach for two 6-paks at the store. Use both hands . . .

PICK A PAIR (smart way to buy!)
