well as planned tours.

Vera Flint, retiring president, was presented a token of appreciation from the club. Then there were gifts for the two high school graduates who are college bound come September: Patricia Payne who will go to Morgan State and David Skinner to Tufts College in Boston.

For the travelling members of the club bon voyage gifts were presented: Marian Myers, South America; Tama and Yvette Myers, Japan and Korea; Margaret Driver, West Indies; Gladyce Jones and Jimmy Laforest, points around the world.

Members present to share in the evening of fun were Lucille Cephas, Florzella Clark, Mary Sprow, Ellen Johns, Anita Myers, Anethia Williams, Jimmy LaForest, Gladyce Jones, Marion Myers, Alice Payne, Vera Flint, Gloria Phillips, Clarice Parrish, Courtney Valentine, Cleo Diggs and Vyna Skinner.

GIRL FRIENDS (Baltimore chapter) jaunted out to the Morgan Park home of Dr. and Mrs. George Spaulding for an afternoon session on Saturday.

And about, in the beautiful confines of the latters' blue and white living room, were all but four of the members, for the usual chatter and what-have-you.

There was some business, too, I think. I remember the out-going president, Irma Roy, introducing the in-coming head, Georgianna Chester; and vice-president, Gaynell Spaulding. And I recall the discussion anent the upcoming Christmas cotillion, now, of course, just in the embryo stage. I recall everyone taking a gander at Anita Wheatley's elegant new car, and practically everyone trying on a knock-out hat that Catherine Law was wearing. She's off crutches at last from trat foot injury. which made all rejoice. There was an invitation to the September meeting with Elizabeth Stewart, who is in Washington. and another from Agnes Patterson for some fun at her summer place in Cape May. . a n d were there fast acceptances.

But most of all I remember Gay's lucious crisine from the stuffed shrimp to the hot rolls. . all from the rostesses' own cooking.

The gals looked elegant, too. But then practically all had come from the fashionable Howard-Laforest wedding on to the meeting, so!

On hand were Catherine, Georgeanna, Agnes, Gaynell, Irma, and Anita, as mentioned: also Eliza Robinson, Mae Williams, Gwendolyn Lewis, Bernice Chatman, Olga Parker, Mae Parrott, Lula Patterson, Frances Vessells, Doris Wheeler and Catherine Wilson.

SORORS OF Psi Gamma Mu held their closing activity at the beach home of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hunt at Arundel on the Bay, Saturday.

For the cook-out, cards and cruising were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Thomas Brown, Richard Lyles, Vernon Green, John Hawkins, Edward Collie, Vernon Wolst, John Ferron, Harisborn Murphy, A. Paul Moss; Misses Molley Lyles, Shirley Jackson, Michelle Frazier, Catherine Parron, Rachael Phillips; Mesdames Eunice Gross, Julia Richardson, Willard King, Rosa Wallace; and Donald Wallace and Benjamin Phillips.

MORGAN PARK was also the setting, on Monday evening, for the supper party in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy which honored Bishop and Mrs. Cedric Mills of the Virgin Islands . . . and had been setting, too, a Sunday before for the gathering of the Douglass High School faculty, which Mrs. Murphy had hosted.

She says it was one time when the hostess was the happiest of the assembled . . . that 'twas an on-the-spot-of-the moment affair, when she sent out telegrams on Friday, and had acceptances from a surprisingly large number of the 112 faculty members. She, you know, until recently was principal of the school.

YVETTE AND TAMA MYERS, Morgan State College students, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Myers, left last Wednesday for San Francisco for four days of briefing at the University of California by Dr. Ralph Bunche and others, prior to their trip to Japan.

This educational experience, sponsored by the National Student Council of the YW and YMCA's is primarily designed for upper-class students. They will live and work with Japanese students on Hakkeido Island. Discuss with the Japanese and other Asians political, social, economic issues facing the world today.

The girls will visit Tokoyo, Central and Northern Honshu, Osaa and Kyoto — they will take a boat trip to Korea.

MRS. Lucinda Backari, a Community - Developm e n t Worker from Sierra Leone, West Africa, will be in Baltimore as a guest of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, starting Friday July 2 thru July 17th.

She is one of 15 African women participating in the 1965 Community Service Program of the Women's African Committee, visiting in the United States.

Two of the women are sponsored by Delta. The Baltimore visitor is staying with Soror Thelma Daley, National Treasurer.

Another is with Dr. Helen Richards, Regional Director at Gambling, La.

Mrs. Mackarr is 26 years old and is interested in volunteer programs, clean up campaigns, food and nutrition programs, handicraft and education for women.

Mrs. Backari will have three weeks of courses at Connecticut College before she comes to Baltimore; two weeks of field work in Baltimore; and three more weeks at Connecticut College.

The field work in Baltimore should provide on-the-spot observation of community organizations and services.

She will tour AFRO CLEAN BLOCKS and be a guest speaker at the Friday meeting on July 9th.

Miss Laforest bride of Dr. Ralph Howard

The wedding ceremony of Miss Stephanie Elizabeth Laforest, and Dr. Ralph McCalf Howard took place on Saturday at two in the afternoon in the sacristy of Our Lady of Lourdes Roman Catholic Church.

The ceremony was performed by Father Henry Offer of St. Peter Claver Church, who formerly pastored St. Francis Xavier Parish during the bride's childhood.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, Dr. Albert Laforest, the bride wore a gown of white peau de sole, fashioned with a fitted bodice and sheath skirt and embellished with crystal beads. The dress was given fullness by the flowing train which cascaded from the waist. Her headpiece was an original braided crown of the same French illusion as her veil.

She carried a bouquet of Georgianna while orchids and phalenopsis, which she held during the reception was a rare, delicate tropical pink moonmist linen with pale green rosettes rimming the empire waistline.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Jacqueline Brown, matron of honor; Miss Diana Edwards, and a junior bridesmaid, Miss Patricia Davidson, niece of the bridegroom.

Joseph Howard was his brother's best man, and Albert Laforest, Jr., brother of the bride; Dr. Walker Davidson and E. Lloyd Davis were ushers.

MRS. ESTHER LAFOREST, mother of the bride, chose an ensemble in deep rose silk shantung, with a silk organza chapeau delicately adorned by a lavender and pink flower.

Mrs. Helen Safrit, oldest sister of the bridegroom, wore moss green lace. Her white flowered hat, lightly touched with bits of green, complemented her attire.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

This affair was in the foyer of the Murphy Fine Arts Building at Morgan State College. Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Walter Shervington, godmother of the bride; Mrs. Paul M. Johnson and Mrs. Roland Williams.

• • •

DR. AND MRS. LAFOREST entertained at dinner in the Me-De-So Club followed the reception.

Dinner guests were:

UNCF cites Capt. Rayfield

As an example of the leadership shown by many of its alumni, the United Negro College Fund recently cited Captain William L. Rayfield, who graduated from Hampton Institute in 1953.

A native of Baltimore, Capt. Rayfield just completed a tour of duty with the U.S. Army in Korea, where he was Pusan District command project officer for the Armed Forces Assistance to Korea, a program for the construction of schools and hospitals.

One of the projects under his direction was the building of a new Pusan Middle School for Girls. He participated in the opening ceremonies for the school along with Gen Kim Hyun Ok, mayor of Pusan.

Mr. Rayfield graduated from Douglass High School in 1949, when he received a scholarship to Hampton. An ROTC graduate in 1953, he entered the Army and in 1961 was made a captain.

Now stationed in Texas with his wife, Dolores and son William, 5, he also has served in Germany.

Capt. Rayfield is the son of Mrs. Roland H. Hall, who lives in Baltimore at 4409 Roundview Rd.
