Mosher all Stars to clash Monday

A select group of little leaguers will compete in the annual James Mosher League all-star game, scheduled for Monday afternoon at the Mosher diamond adjacent to School 144, at Wheeler and Riggs avenues.

The play-ball call is slated for 5 p.m.

• • •

ALL-STAR choices from the National and American divisions of the league will be handled by Leon Barrett of the Tigers, and William Richardson of the Dodgers, respectively.

Some 42 youngsters are expected to see action in this midsummer show of the Mosher organization.

4 given life in Bullet cut

Seven former collegiate basketball stars who attended the recent rookie camp at Fort Meade, have been invited back to train with the opening of the 1965 - 66 N.B.A. season.

According to Coach Paul Seymour, these seven were the cream of the crop of 15 who accepted bids to be screened at the Bullet tryout camp held last June 21 - 26. Four of the seven are colored.

• • •

COMING BACK to try to make the big team will be Willie Somerset of Duquesne, Bobby Joe Edmonds of Tennessee A. and I., Thales McReynolds of Miles College and Charlie Dinkins of Miami of Ohio.

Also given a lease on life with the pros were Walt Sahm of Notre Dame, Joe Newton of Auburn, and Tat Brody of Illinois.

• • •

BASED ON his one-week's performance at Fort Meade, the best player of the seven appeared to be Edmonds, the Bullets' fifth draft choice of 1964. Although he had exhausted his collegiate eligibility, Bobby Joe had a year of school left and elected to finish that out in 1964-65 rather than leap into pro basketball.

"He looks like he's ready now," said Seymour. "He's an exceptional prospect. Off what he showed in camp, he can do everything, shoot, run, work the boards, pass, defend. He's 6-6, 230 and could be a big league forward. He can leap and he really goes for the ball. He seems to want to play basketball."

South Baltimore Notes

By WALTER W. E. HILL Sr.

Congratulations to our Morganites who are so modestly sporting the Honor Roll at Morgan State College, namely: Darrell Greene, secretary of the Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group and Miss Vonita Christian.

Leadenhall Baptist Church will hold a reception for its graduates on Sunday, July 18, at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Edna Meekins is convalescing at her home, 2600 Hollins Ferry Rd., following a brief stay in University Hospital.

The annual session of the Hagerstown District Conference and Sunday School Convention of the Washington Conference AME Church will convene at Randallstown, Md. on Tuesday, July 20. The Rev. L. C. Brown is host pastor. All instated at their recent meeting. Yours truly is district reporter.

The Steering Committee of the Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group express its deep appreciation to its patrons in their endeavors. Special thanks is given to the Mt. Winans Methodist Church for the use of its facilities, church and members (Mrs. Gertrude Parker and Mrs. Gladys Wallace). Mrs. Sadie Blocker was chairman.

For community improvements, attend your Police Community Relations Council meetings, which are held the fourth Tuesday of every month at 8 p.m. Please make it a must.

Send your words of cheer to the sick and shut - ins — Mrs. Venie West, William Washington, Charles Hicks, Mrs. Sarah Hill, Mrs. Leah Wade and Mrs. Render Davis.
