If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

People, places and things . .

New citizens: It's twin girls for Mr. and Mrs. Irving Morris Jr. (Earle) of Dorithan Rd.

Infants, their first, arrived at Sinai Hospital at 2 p.m. yesterday (Thursday, July 8.), tipped the scales at 2 pounds, 5 ounces and 2 pounds, 4 ounces.

The twins are grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Morris Sr. (Dana) of Cherry Hill; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowen (Marie—she operates LaMar Beauty Salon.).

New Day: CORE (Congress of Racial Equality), which held its 23rd annual convention in Durham, N. C., last week, found something new.

Signs in businesses which formerly barred colored people and in fact vowed "never, never" to serve us, displayed 'Welcome CORE' signs. Times do change!!

We've had such turnabouts right here in Baltimore.

If you're old enough, you'll remember when representatives of several large businesses told civil rights leaders hiring colored people would 'hurt' their business.

Remember? Today, large numbers of colored people work in these places and no one turns an eye.

* * *

If you're old enough, you'll also remember when the Urban League and other groups campaigned for colored drivers of the city's buses?

Remember when they were first hired, a proposal was bantered around that colored drivers would only work on the No. 21 line which traveled through colored neighborhoods. Remember?

Today colored drivers work all shifts in all areas which goes to prove many of our fears are often unfounded.

* * *

P. S. — You don't have to look too far to find out which banks in the city hire you and you and you. We're usually up front.

If you don't see brown faces, you don't have to put your money in that bank.

Selecting a bank to deposit your money is like selecting a wife. No one can force you. The choice is yours.

* * *

Cuff note: Early Admissions Program in the Cherry Hill area is looking for volunteers. If you can help, apply to School Headquarters, 3 E. 25th St.

* * *

Road sign: Marker on Route 2 in St. Leonard's, Md., directs a turn 'for Long Beach, an EXCLUSIVE summer colony, SENSIBLY restricted, well developed.'

More about people, things . .

Cheer to Mrs. Elizabeth Cartier. Since July 2, she's been in Provident Hospital. Illness has kept her inactive and at home for the last few months.

Many know her as an active member of the Rebecca Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and as the wife of Tennyson Cartier, also an active Mason (William F. Taylor Lodge No. 57).

* * *

Cuff note: A 24-year-old West Baltimore mother lost her triplet sons. They died shortly after they were born prematurely at University Hospital on July 1.

* * *

Belated wedding anniversary wishes to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Thornton, (Elmira), 4510 Fairview Ave. Theirs was July 9.

Many know Mr. Thornton as the engineer with the Baltimore Urban Renewal Agency. They have four children.

They are Mrs. Algarne Sampson, Alphonso, a fireman; Miss Cecelia Thornton, 17, a Forest Park student; and Charles, who is Army bound soon.

The family attends Forest Park Presbyterian Church.

* * *

Business note: C and P Telephone Co.'s new Mondawmin business office, (2614), holds open house on Friday, July 16, 5 to 9 p.m. G. G. Brown is the manager here.

* * *

Happy birthday hellos today (July 9) for Mrs. Bruce Hamilton Green, whom many know as the coordinator of volunteer services at Crownsville State Hospital.

Seventy-one birthday candles today (July 9), for D. Arnett Murphy, retired AFRO Vice president.

He's enjoying his leisure hours with golf and church activities (Grace Presbyterian).

More July birthdays: On the 11th, remember Mrs. Libby Maddox, 2032 Ruxton; Mrs. Mabel Denkins, 2051 Bentalou on July 12.

July 10 greetings for William Kirkwood, veteran AFRO super of 2912 Violet Ave.

* * *

Belated: July 8 was the birthday of Mrs. Arnetta Rosemond, the teacher.

* * *

People being kind:—

Her friends gathered to say goodbye to Irma George Dixon at the Elroy Wilson Funeral Home on Friday evening.

Members of her fraternal lodge Queen of Sheba Chapter, Order of Eastern Star; her sorority, Lambda Kappa Mu; and the Democratic Women's Committee for Maryland headed by Mrs. Victorine Adams, and Mrs. Gladys Babour, held memorial services.

Meredith Birche was at the organ. George L. Milburn sang, "My Heavenly Father Watches Over me."

A larger group was at the Saturday afternoon funeral—which was simple and short. Irma would have liked that.

* * *

Cuff note: AFRO writer Charlotte W. Mason and Mrs Hilda Smith are co-directors of that Severn, Md. day camp now open.

It is called Camp Llewellyn in memory of Mrs Mason's father, W. Llewellyn Wilson, longtime Douglass High music teacher. Phone her at 664-1986 for details.

* * *

Mrs. Maggie E. Brown of Baltimore was in Salisbury, N.C. last week for the funeral of her brother, John Simpson Brown, 25. He suffered fatal injuries in a June 24 auto crash.

* * *

On the move: Joseph M. Dukert, one-time public relations exec at the Martin Co. is now his own boss.

He's a freelance consultant in community problems.

A bit about this and that . .

Mexico - bound: Judy Daniels, Western High junior; and daughter of Madison Ave. Church's the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Daniels; and Arthur Murphy, a Poly junior and son of Cherry Hill's Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy.

They leave July 11 with other teens in this area to join in the Ecumenical youth cara an for the Presbyterian Church's Synod of the Chesapeake. (Md., Del., D.C.).

The Murphys' daughter, Madeline, is already at her summer post. She's in the church's camp conference office at Lake Tahoe on the California state line, 50 miles from Reno.

* * *

Constance Helols Moore was a pretty girl with great promise.

As a senior at Morgan State College, as a teacher and youth leader in her church, she had endeared herself to many.

Remember how lovely she looked when she made her debut at the 1963 Girl Friends Cotillion at the Civic Center?

Her unexpected death last Sunday at the age of 29, has been a great shock, particularly to her parents, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. James L. Moore of Sharon Baptist. She was their only child!

Thinking-of-you cards to them at 45-7 Liberty Heights Ave.,

* * *

Out-of-town relatives here for the Friday funeral were her aunts, Dr. Louise Stephens, a member of the faculty of Langston University, Langston, Okla.; Miss Helen Stephens, an English teacher in Tulsa, Okla.

Also two uncles from Detroit, Eddie H. Moore, an electrician and Elihu Morris a music teacher in the public schools.
